Bi'idhnillaah a very important series begins on the list today, concerned with the subject of al-Jannah and the Hell-Fire. One of these two will be the end destination, moreover the eternal abode, for each and every one of us. Therefore it is crucial for us to reflect on what Allaah has prepared for mankind - for those who are obedient and recognise His favours, and for those who reject His sins and rebel against Him.

It is my intention with these posts, after seeking the pleasure of Allaah azza wa jall, to touch the hearts of each and every one of you, as the book, on which this series is based - "The Final Day: Paradise and Hell" by Dr. 'Umar Sulaiman al the College of Shariah, University of Jordan - touched mine. To fill your hearts with fear of Allaah's punishment; To fill your hearts as mine was filled with Love for Allaah subhaanahu wa ta'ala and an incredible yearning for the beauty and bliss of al-Jannah, the Gardens; and insha'Allah to put this dunyaa in perspective and thus to inspire us to devote our lives to the cause of Allaah and His Deen, to work to save our heels from even feeling the heat of the Hell-fire.

So I ask Allaah, for the sake of our own souls, that we read each word carefully, and deeply reflect on the sayings of His Messenger, so that insha'Allah we will live our lives, as if we could see the Fire on one side of us, and the Garden on the other. Surely, as the Prophet sallallaahu 'alayhi was-sallam said, there is no life but the life of al-Jannah wa An-Naar.
Definition and Explanation

Hell is the abode which Allaah (swt) has prepared for those who do not believe in Him (swt), those who rebel against His (swt) laws and disbelieve in His Messengers. It is the punishment for His (swt) enemies, the prison for evildoers.

It is the ultimate humiliation and loss; there is nothing worse:

"Our Lord! Verily, whom You admit to the Fire, indeed, You have disgraced him, and never [polytheists and wrongdoers] find any helpers" (3:192)

"Know they not that whoever opposes and shows hostility to Allaah and His Messenger, c fire of Hell to abide therein? That is extreme disgrace". (9:63)

"The losers are those who will lose themselves and their families on the Day of Resurrection. Verily, that will be a manifest loss!" (39:15)

How could Hell be other than we have described, when it is full of utterly indescribable torment, pain and grief? It is eternal and its inhabitants will remain there forever. Allaah (swt) has condemned them and their place in the Fir

"Evil indeed it [Hell] is as an abode and as a place to dwell" (25:66)

"This is so! And for the Tagheen [transgressors] - will be an evil final return - Hell! Where [indeed] is that place to rest!" (38:55-6)

Paradise and Hell Have Already Been Created

at-Tahhaawi said, in his book on al-'Aqeedah al-Salafiyyah (correct belief in accordance with that of Islaam) that is known as al-'Aqeedah al-Tahhaawiyyah.

"Paradise and Hell have already been created. They will never come to an end or cease to exist. Allaah Hell before the rest of creation, and He (swt) created inhabitants for each of them. Whoever He (swt) wishes (will enter) Paradise by His grace and mercy, and whoever He (swt) wishes (will enter Hell) as a result of His (swt) justice according to that for which he was created, and his destiny will be that for which he was created; go foreordained for all men".

Muhammad ibn Muhammad ibn Abul-'Izz al-Hanafi remarked, in his commentary on this text:

"With regard to his saying that Paradise and Hell have already been created, Ahl as-Sunnah agree ti been created and are in existence at the present moment. Ahlus-Sunnah continued to hold this view Mu'tazilah and Qaadariyyah came along, which denied that. These groups said: "Allaah will create it the Day of Resurrection." They said this because of their false arguments by means of which they se what Allaah (swt) should do; (they say) it befits Allaah (swt) to do this, or it does not befit Allaah (s Him to His creation and their actions. This is a kind of anthropomorphism with regard to deeds; the, Jahmiyyah (a sect of Mu'tazilah named after the deviant, Jahm ibn Safwan) to creep into their think mu'attaalah (those who deny that Allaah can see). They said, "It does not make sense for Paradise to reward, because it will not be used or inhabited for a very long time. They rejected the aayaat and i false notions they seek to project onto Allaah (swt). They misinterpreted the texts and accused thos going astray and concocting bid'ah".

Proofs from the Qur'aan and Hadeeth in support of this are, for example:
"Race with one another in hastening towards forgiveness from your Lord, and Paradise the width of the heaven and the earth, prepared for those who believe in Allaah and His Messengers, which He bestows on whom He is pleased with. And Allaah is the Owner of Great Bounty."

"...for Paradise as wide as are the heavens and the earth, prepared for al-Muttaqun" (3:133)

"And fear the fire, which is prepared for the disbelievers" (3:131)

"And indeed he (Muhammad) saw him (Jibreel) at a second descent (ie another time), near Sidrat al-Muntahaa which was veiled in colours indescribable. Then I entered Paradise, and its lights were of pearls and its soil was musk".

Muslim, Abu Dawud and Imaam Ahmad report from Abu Hurayrah (ra) that the Messenger (saw) said, created Paradise and Hell, He sent Jibreel to Paradise, saying "Go and look at it and at what I have prepared therein for its inhabitants". So he went and looked at it and at what Allaah had prepared therein for its inhabitants. Then Jibreel brought me to Sidrat al-Muntahaa which was veiled in colours indescribable. Then I entered Paradise, and it was in layers, one above the other...."

Muslim reports from Aishah (ra) that there was a solar eclipse in the time of the Messenger (saw) and he said, "Standing here I saw everything that you have been promised, I even saw myself picking some of the fruits of Paradise, when you saw me stepping forward. And I saw Hellfire, parts of it consuming other parts, when you saw me stepping backward".

Al-Bukhaari and Muslim report from Ibn 'Abbas the same incident, "I saw Paradise and I tried to see what I had managed to do, you would have eaten from it until the end of time. And I saw the Fire of Hell, parts of it consuming other parts, when you saw me stepping backward".

Muslim also reports from Anas that the Prophet (Saw) said, "By the One in Whose Hand is my soul, if you had seen what I saw, you would laugh little and cry much." They said, "What did you see, O Messenger of Allaah?" He said, "I saw Paradise and Hell".

The Prophet (saw) also ascended into jannah on the night of Mi'raj in his 'Isra (night journey): for example

* "...I saw four rivers flowing out from beneath Sidrat al-Muntahaa, two visible and two hidden" (Al-Jannah wa An-Naar) * "Whilst I was walking in Paradise I saw a river whose banks were domes of hollow pearls and I asked, "What is this, O Jibreel?" He said, "This is al-Kawthar which your Rabb has given to you."

* al-Bukhaari and Muslim report from Jaabir that the Messenger of Allaah said, "I entered Paradise Rumaysa, the wife of Abu Talhah. And I heard footsteps and asked, "Who is that?" He (Jil) And I saw a palace with women in its courtyard. I asked, "Whose is this?" They said, It is Khattab" (Mishkaat al-Masaabih, 3/226)

Imaam Ahmed, Ibn Hibbaan and al-Haakim report from Abu Hurayrah that the Prophet (saw) said, believers are in Paradise, being cared for by Ibraahim (as) [and in the narration of Abu Nu'aym] Asakir it adds- "and Sarah, until they give them back to their parents on the day of Resurrection" al-Bukhaari and Muslim also report from 'Abdullaah ibn 'Umar (ra) that the Messenger of Allaah (saw) said, "If you dies, he will be shown his position morning and evening. If he is one of the people of Paradise, and if he is one of the people of Hell, then he will be one of will be told, "This is your position, until Allaah (swt) resurrects you on the Day of Resurrection."

According to al-Muwatta of Imaam Maalik and as-Sunaan, Abu Dawood, "Ka'b ibn Maalik said the Messenger of Allaah (saw) said, "Verily the soul of the believer is a bird hanging on to the trees of Paradise, until Allaah S the day of Resurrection"

This makes it clear that souls will enter Paradise before the Day of Resurrection.

As for the specious arguments of those who say that Hell has not been created yet, they say: If it were of necessity have to come to an end of the Day of Resurrection and everyone in it would have said: "Everything will perish save His Face" (28:88) and "Everyone shall taste death.." (3:185) you mean that Paradise does not exist until the Trumpet is blown and people are resurrected from the incorrect and is refuted by the evidence quoted above and other proofs which we have not mentioned. Allaah (swt) has not yet completed the creation of everything that He will prepare for the inhabitant still creating more and more things in it, and that when the believers enter Paradise, Allaah (swt) will add to it, then this is true and cannot be refuted, and the evidence that you give can only mean this, but when you use the aayah "Everything will perish save His Face" - as evidence, your problem is that you misinterpret this. Paradise and Hell do not yet exist is like your colleagues using it to prove that they will both be dest will all perish! You and your scholars did not understand the aayah properly; only the leaders (great understood it properly. They say that "everything" for which Allaah (swt) has decreed destruction and Paradise and Hell have been created to last forever and never pass away, as has the Throne, which (Sharh at-Tahaawiyyah, p.479, see also Siddeeq Hasan Khan, Yaqadhah ula al-'i'tibaar, p. 37 and 'A

The Keepers of Hell

Standing over Hell are MIGHTY and STERN angels who never disobey Allaah subhaanahu wa ta'ala \ do whatever He commands them, as Allaah subhaanahu wa ta'ala says:

"O you who believe! Save yourselves and your families from a Fire whose fuel is men and [appointed] angels stern [and] severe, who flinch not [from executing] the Commands th do [precisely what] they are commanded." (66:6)

Their number is nineteen as Allaah (swt) says:

"Soon I will cast him into Hellfire. And what will explain to you what Hellfire is? Naught c and naught does it leave alone! Darkening and changing the colour of man! Over it are n guardians and keepers of Hell]" (74:26-30)

This number was a challenge to the kuffaar who thought that they would easily overcome such a sr realise that one of these angels has the strength to confront the whole of mankind on his own. For in the next aayah:

"And We have set none but angels as guardians of the Fire, and We have fixed their numb the disbelievers.." (74:31)

Ibn Rajab said, "What is known and well-established among the earlier and later generations (as-Sa came about when the number of angels was mentioned and the kuffaar thought that it was possible that they would be able to fight and resist them. They did not know that humankind in its entirety even ONE of them." (at-Takhweef min an-Naar, p.174)

These angels are the ones whom Allaah subhaanahu wa ta'ala called the guardians of Hell:

"Those in the Fire will say to the keepers [angels] of Hell: "Call upon your Rabb to lighten day!" (40:49)

The Location of Hell

The scholars differ as to where Hell is located at present. Some say that it is in the lower Earth, other heavens, and yet others refrain from discussing the matter at all. This last group is correct, because reports that define the location of Hell. One of those who prefer not to discuss the matter at all is aSuyuti who said, "Do not discuss Hell, i.e. do not discuss where it is located, for none knows this know of no hadeeth that I could rely on with regard to this issue". (Siddiq Hasan Khan, Yaqazah uli al Sheikh Waliullaah ad-Dahlawee says in, his 'Aqeedah, "There is no clear text which states their local They are wherever Allaah (swt) wishes them to be, and we cannot comprehend all the universes cre p.47). Siddeeq Hasan Khan says, commenting on these words, "I say, that is the best and most cat inshaa'Allaah" (ibid).

The Vast Extent of Hell

Hell is huge and vast and immensely deep, as is proven by several things:

(1) Those who will enter Hell are innumerable, yet one of them will be so huge that his molars will be the distance between his shoulders will be equivalent to three days walking. Nevertheless, Hell will is a number of Kuffaar and evildoers who have existed throughout history, in spite of their huge size, an more, as Allaah says in the Qur'aan:

"On the Day when We will say to Hell: "Are you filled?" It will say: "Are there any more to

The Fire of Hell is like a mill to which are brought thousands upon thousands of tons of grain, which done, then waits for more. In the hadith that describes the debate between Paradise and Hell, it say Hell, "You are My Punishment; I will punish in you whomsoever I will". Both Paradise and will not be filled until Allaah (swt) places His foot in it and it will say, "Enough, enough!". different parts will come closer to one another. Allaah (swt) will not wrong any one of His Creation. Muslim from Abu Hurayrah (ra) (Jaami' al-Usool, 10/544). [See the narration from Anas in al-Bukha Masaabeeh, 3/109 with a similar meaning].

(2) Another indication of its vast depth is the fact that a stone thrown from the top of Hell takes a v bottom. Muslim reports that Abu Hurayrah (ra) said:

"We were with the Messenger of Allaah (saw) and we heard the sound of something falling "Do you know what that was?" We said, "Allaah and His Messenger know best". He said, ' thrown into Hell seventy years ago and it was falling through Hell until now". (Muslim, Kita haar an-naaer, 4/2184 no. 2844)
Haakim reports from Abu Hurayrah, and Tabaraani from Mu'aadh and Abu Umamah (ra) that the Prophet (saw) said, “was a huge stone as big as seven khalifaat stones, and it was thrown from the edge of Hell it would fly through it for seventy years before it reached the bottom.” (Saheeh al-Jaami’ as-Sahheer, 5/58, no. 5124, Its isnaad is saheeh).

(3) The great number of angels who will bring Hell forth on the Day of Resurrection.

The Messenger (saw) described how Hell will be brought forth on the Day of Resurrection, concerning which Allaah (swt) said, “And Hell will be brought near that Day”. (89:23)

The Prophet (saw) said, "Hell will be brought forth that Day by means of seventy thousand ropes, each of which will be held by seventy thousand angels." (reported by Muslim from 'Abdullaah ibn Mas'ud, 4/2184 no.2842)

We can only imagine the vastness of this terrifying creation that requires such a huge number of strong and powerful angels whose strength is known only to Allaah!

(4) Another indication of the vastness of Hell is the fact that two great creations like the sun and moon will be two rolled in Hell. at-Tahhaawee reports, in Mishkil al-Aathaar, that Salamah ibn 'Abdur-Rahman said, "Abu Hurayrah told us that the Prophet (saw) said:

"The sun and moon will be two rolled-up bulls in Hell on the Day of Resurrection"" al-BayhaqI Ba'th wal-Nushur", as did al-Bazzaar, al-Isma'ili and al-Khattabi, with an isnaad that is saheeh according to the conditions of al-Bukhaari, who reported in al-Saheeh al-Mukhtasar, with the wording "The sun and moon will be rolled up in Hell on the Day of Resurrection". (Sheikh Naasir ud-Deen al-Albaani narrated this hadeeth in Silsilah al-Ahadeeth no:124)

The Levels of Hell

There are variations in the degrees of heat in Hell, and in the levels of punishment which Allaah (sv inhabitants; there is not just one level.

As Allaah says:

"Verily the hypocrites will be in the lowest depths [grade] of the Fire" (4:145)

It is said that both Paradise and Hell have different levels; the lower the level in Hell, the greater the heat, and the hypocrites will suffer the worst punishment, and so they will be in the lowest level of Hell.

Allaah (swt) refers to the levels of Paradise and Hell in the Qur'aan:

"For all there will be degrees [or ranks] according to what they did" (6:132)

"Is then one who follows [seeks] the good pleasure of Allaah like the one who draws on himself the Wrath of Allaah? His abode is Hell - and worst, indeed, is that destination! They are in varying grade is All-Seer of what they do". (3:162-3)

'Abdur-Rahmaan ibn Zayd ibn Aslam said, “The levels of paradise go up and the levels of Hell go down” min an-Naar, p.5]. It was reported from some of the Salaf that the sinners amongst the monotheists the first level, the Jews would be in the second level, the Christians in the third level, the Sabians in the fifth level, the polytheist Arabs in the sixth level and the hypocrites in the seventh level (1) So these levels: the first is called Jahanam, the second Ladhaa, the third al-Hutamah, the fourth as-Sa' al-Jaheem, and the seventh al-Hawiyah.

There is no proof for this division of the inhabitants of Hell or the names that have been attributed to them. It is that all of these names - Jahanam, Ladhaa, al-Hutamah, etc - are alternative names by which Hell is known, and they are not applied to one part or another of it. It is also known that people will be placed in different levels of Hell according to the extent of their kufr and sins.

Footnotes

(1) If this division is based on our understanding of the texts that indicate the evil of the various groups, then it needs to be revised, for the Magians who worship fire are no less sinners than the Arab polytheists. It is better not to engage in speculation about matters that were not discussed in the nusoos (texts).

The Gates of Hell

Allaah has told us that Hell has seven gates, as He (swt) said:

"And surely, Hell is the promised place for them all. It [Hell] has seven gates, for each of class of sinners assigned". (15:43-44)

Ibn Katheer commenting on this aayah, said: "This means that each gate has been allotted its share who will enter it, and the will not be able to avoid it. May Allaah (swt) protect us from it. Each will enter a gate according to his deeds, and will be assigned to a level of Hell according to his deeds."

It was reported from 'Ali ibn Abi Taalib (ra) that he said, during a khutbah (sermon): "The gates of Hell are in layers, one above the other. The first will be filled, then the second, then the third, until all of them are filled." (Tafseer Ibn Katheer, 4/162)

When the disbelievers come to Hell, its gates will be opened, and they will enter it, to remain there.

"And those who disbelieved will be driven to Hell in groups, till, when they reach it, the gates [suddenly like a prison at the arrival of the prisoners]. And its keepers will say, "Did not the Messengers come to you from yourselves - reciting to you the Verses of your Rabb, and warning you of the Meeting of this Day of yours. They will say, "Yes" but the Word of torment has been justified against the disbelievers".

After they are admitted, they will be told:

"Enter you the gates of Hell, to abide therein. And [indeed] what an evil abode of the arrogant!

These gates will be shut upon the evildoers, and they will have no hope of ever escaping from them says,

"But those who reject Our Signs, they are the [unhappy] Companions of the Left Hand. Or over [all round]." (90:19-20)

Ibn 'Abbaas said, "vaulted" (literally: "shut over them") means that the gates will be locked". al-Mu'aakadah (mu'sadah) is the word used in the dialect of Quraysh to mean "locked" or shut" (Tafseer Ibn Katheer).

In the Qur'aan Allaah (swt) says:

"Woe to every [kind of] scandalmonger and backbiter, who piles up wealth and lays it by. Would make him last forever! By no means! He will be sure to be thrown into that which he explains to you that which breaks to pieces? The Fire of [the wrath of] Allaah, kindled..."
The gates of Hell may be opened and closed before the Day of Judgement. The Prophet (Saw) told us that the gates of Hell are locked during the month of Ramadhan. at-Tirmidhi reported that Abu Hurayrah said the Prophet (sa) said:

"When the night of Ramadhan comes, the Shayaateen and evil jinns are chained up. The gates of Hell are opened and not one of them is closed." (Ibid, p.66)

The Fuel of Hell

Stones and the rebellious disbelievers are the fuel of Hell, as Allaah says:

"O you who believe! Save yourselves and your families from a Fire whose fuel is men and stones! (...then fear the Fire [hell] whose fuel is men and stones, prepared for the disbelievers"

What is meant by the people who will be fuel for the Fire is the disbelievers and polytheists. As for the type of stone that will fuel the Fire, Allaah (swt) knows best what it really is. Some of the Salaf thought that this stone was brimstone or sulphur. 'Abdullaah ibn Mas'oud said, "It is a stone of sulphur which Allaah (swt) created in the first heaven the day He created the heavens and earth and prepared it for the disbelievers". This was reported by Ibn Jareer, Ibn Abi Haatim and Haakim ir Mujaahid and Ibn Juryayj were also of this opinion. (Tafseer Ibn Katheer, 1/107)

If this opinion was based on something that the Prophet (saw) had said then we could accept it with it is the matter of ijtihaad, based on knowledge of the nature and qualities of stones, then we cannot

There may be other stones that are superior to sulphur in strength and flammability. The first Muslims mufassireen suggest that what is meant by stones is sulphur, with which the Fire of Hell will be fuelled five kinds of torment that are not found in other stones: it catches fire quickly, it has an unpleasant smoke, it sticks to flesh, and it is very hot when it is heated" (Ibn Rajab, at-Takhweef min an-Naar, p.107). Allaah may create other kinds of stones that are superior to sulphur, and we can be sure that whatever exists in the Hereafter will be different from this world.

Another fuel for the Fire will be the gods, which were worshipped instead of Allaah (swt);

"Certainly! You [disbelievers] and that which you are worshipping now besides Allah, are you will enter it. Had these [idols etc] been aaliha [gods] they would not have entered the Fire. They will abide therein." (21:98-99)

"al-Jawhaari said, "Everything that is used to feed the Fire or increase it is its fuel". Abu Ubaydah said "into the Fire is fuel for it" (Yaqazah uli al-i'tibaar, p.61)

The Intensity of Its Heat and the Vastness of Its Smoke and Sparks

Allaah (swt) says:

"And those on the left hand - who will be those on the Left Hand? In fierce hot wind and there..."
of black smoke, [that shadow] neither cool, nor [even] good". (56:41-44)

This aayah includes all of the things that people avail themselves of in this world when it is too hot; air and shade. But the aayah states that these three things will be of no help whatsoever to the people of Hell. The air of Hell is al-Sumoom, which is an intensely hot wind; its water is al-Hameem, boiling water; its shade is al-Yahmoom, which is the smoke of Hell. (at-Takhweef min an-Naar, p.85)

Just as this aayah emphasises the horrifying position of those on the Left Hand, who are the people of Hell, another aayah emphasises the horror of Hell itself. Allaah (swt) says:

"But he whose balance [of good deeds] will be [found] light, will have his home in a [bottomless] pit. And what will explain to you what this is? [It is] a Fire blazing fiercely!" (101:8-11)

The shade referred to in the aayah "and the shadow of black smoke" (56:43) is the shade cast by the smoke of Hell. Shade usually makes one feel cool and comfortable, and people love to feel it, but this shade in Hell will neither be cool nor pleasant; it is the shadow of black smoke.

The Qur'aan tells us that this shade is the smoke of Hell which rises above the Fire:

"Depart you to a shadow [of smoke ascending] in three columns, [which yields] no shade use against the Fierce Blaze". Indeed! It [Hell] throws about sparks [huge] as forts, as if yellow camels [marching swiftly]." (77:30-33)

This aayah states that the smoke that rises from Hell is so great that it is divided into three columns: cooling and it offers no protection from the Raging Fire. The sparks that fly from this Fire are like those likened to yellow or black camels.

Allaah (swt) explained how strong this Fire is, and how it affects the tormented:

"Soon I will cast him into Hellfire. And what will explain to you exactly what Hellfire is? Nothing will endure, and naught does it leave alone! Darkening and changing the colour of man!" (74:26)

The Fire consumes all, destroying everything and leaving nothing untouched. It burns skin, reaching contents of the stomach and exposing what is innermost.

The Prophet (saw) told us: "Fire as we know it is one-seventieth part of the Fire of Hell." Son of Allaah (saw), it is enough as it is!" He said, "It [the fire of Hell] is as if sixty nine equal, fire as we know it." (al-Bukhaari)

This Fire never dies down, no matter how much time passes:

"So taste you [the results of your evil actions]; no increase shall We give you, except in torments". (17:97)

The disbelievers will not taste the luxury of respite, and the torment will not be lessened for them no:

"Their torment shall not be lightened nor shall they be helped". (2:86)
The Fire is rekindled every day as is stated in the hadith reported by Muslim from 'Amr ibn 'Absah (ra) who said:

"The Prophet (saw) said, "Pray salaat as-subh (the early morning prayer) then stop praying it is fully up, for it rises between the horns of Shaytaan and the disbelievers prostrate to the sun at that time. Then when the shadow becomes the length of a lance. Then cease prayer, for at that time Hell is heated up. Then when the shadow moves forward, pray.."

al-Bukhaari and Muslim report from Abu Hurayrah (ra) that the Prophet said, "When it becomes very hot, wait until it cools down to pray, because the intense heat is a breeze from Hell".

The Fire of Hell will be further refueled on the Day of Resurrection when it receives its inhabitants:

"And when Hellfire shall be kindled to a fierce blaze, and when Paradise shall be brought in for its dwellers."

Ibn Jareer reports that Ibn 'Abbaas said:

"A man will be dragged towards Hell, which will shrink into itself. Allaah (swt) will say: "What is the matter with you?" It will say, "He is seeking refuge with you from me". He will say, "Release My slave". Another man will be dragged towards Hell and it will send out a gust of air like a mule snorting at a camel, then it will take in a gust of air and there will not terror him". (Ibn Katheer quoted this report in an-Nihaayah, 2/21, and said that its isnaad is saheeh).

Ibn 'Umar's Vision of Hell

al-Bukhaari and Muslim report that Ibn 'Umar said, "I saw in a dream that two angels came to me. Each of them was holding a whip of iron in his hand. Then I met (another) angel who was also holding a whip of iron in his hand. We were good man; we just wish that you prayed more at night". They took me to the edge of Hell horns: between every two horns stood an angel holding a whip of iron. I saw men hanging upside-down recognised some men of Quraysh. Then they led me away, towards the right. I told Hafsah about my dream, and she told the Messenger of Allaah (saw) who said, "Abdullaah is a righteous man". (at-Takhweef min an-Naar, p.51)

Does Anybody See Hell in Reality Before the Day of Resurrection?

We know that our Prophet (saw) saw Hell, just as he saw Paradise during his lifetime. al-Bukhaari and 'Abdullaah ibn 'Abbaas that the Prophet (saw) said concerning Salaat al-Khusf (eclipse prayer):

"I saw Paradise and I reached out to take a bunch of its fruits. If I had managed to do so it until the end of time. And I saw Hell, and I have never seen anything more terrifying."
inhabitants are women”. (Mishkaat al-Masabeeh, 1/480)

Imaam Ahmad reports from al-Mugheerah ibn Shu'bah that the Messenger of Allaah (saw) said:

"Hell was brought so close to me that I tried to blow its heat away from my face. I saw th with the crooked end, and one who had tended al-Baheerah (a she-camel let loose for past nothing was allowed to be carried), and the man of Humayr and the woman who had imprisoned the cat. (Jaami', 2/181 #1968)

Muslim reports from Jaabir (ra) that the Prophet (saw) said:

"Paradise and Hell were shown to me. Paradise was brought close to me, so that I tried to could not reach it. Hell was shown to me, and was brought so close that I stepped back for me. I saw a Humayr woman who was tall and black, being punished on account of a cat tied it up, not giving it anything to eat or drink, or allowing it to eat of the vermin of the earth Thumaamah 'Umar ibn Maalik being dragged by his trachea through Hell". (Saheeh al-Jaami', 2/298, #2394)

After people die they are shown, in al-Barzakh (the period between death and Judgement) their position in Paradise (if they are believers) or Hell (If they are disbelievers).

How Hell Affects this Earth and its Inhabitants al-Bukhaari reports in his saheeh that Abu Hurayrah said:

"Hell complained to its Rabb, saying "O my Rabb, some parts of me have consumed others." So He allowed it to exhale twice, once in the winter and once in the summer. That is why you find extreme heat (in the summer) and extreme cold (in the winter)".

al-Bukhaari also narrated from Abu Sa'eed (ra) that the Prophet (saw) said:

"Delay your prayers until it cools down, for the intensity of heat is from the exhaled air of Hell". (Kitaab Bad' al-Khalq, Baab Siffaat an-naar wa annaha makhluqah and Fath al-Baari 6/330. The author of Jaami' attributed these two reports to al-Bukhaari, Muslim and at-Tirmidhi).

The Evil Deeds that Lead One to Hell

Sheikh al-Islaam Ibn Taymiyyah, may Allaah (swt) have mercy on him, was asked: "What are the deeds of the people of Paradise?" He replied, "The deeds of the people of Hell are:

* associating partners in worship with Allaah (swt)
* disbelieving in His Messenger
* kufr (ingratitude, disbelief)
* hasad (malicious envy)
* lying
* treachery
* oppression and wrongdoing (dhulm)
* promiscuity
* backstabbing
* cutting off the ties of kinship
* cowardice at the time of jihaad
* miserliness
* inconsistency between what is in one's heart and the face one shows to people
* despairing of the mercy of Allaah (swt)
* feeling secure from the plan of Allaah (swt)
* panicking blindly at the time of crisis
* pride and extravagance at the time of plenty * abandoning one’s duties towards Allaah (swt)
* transgressing His limits
* violating His sanctity
* fearing a created being instead of the Creator
* showing off
* going against the Qur’aan and Sunnah in word or deed
* obeying a created being in some act of disobedience to the Creator
* blindly supporting falsehood
* mocking the signs of Allaah (swt)
* rejecting the truth
* withholding knowledge and testimony that should be revealed
* witchcraft and magic
* disobeying one's parents
* killing any soul forbidden by Allaah (swt) except for reasons of justice
* consuming the wealth of the orphan
* riba (usury)
* desertion from the battlefield
* slandering the reputation of innocent, chaste, believing women" (Yaqadhat uli al-I'tibar, p.222)

The Messenger of Allaah (saw) mentioned all the sins that will lead one to Hell. Muslim reports from Messenger of Allaah (saw) said, during a lengthy khutbah:

"..the people of Hell are five: the weak who lack the power to (avoid evil); the (carefree) irrespective of whether it is good or evil) and who have no concern for their families or the people whose greed cannot be concealed even in the case of minor things; and those who evening, with regard to your family and your property. He also mentioned misers, liars an habit of abusing people and using obscene, foul language". (Muslim in Kitaab al-Jannah wa An-Naar, 4/2197 no. 2865)

Specific People Who Will Be In Hell

The kuffaar and mushikreen will be in Hell, no doubt about it, but the Qur’aan and hadith also ment in the Fire. One of them is the Pharaoh who ruled at the time of Musa (as):

"He [Pharaoh] will go before his people on the Day of Judgement, and will lead them into

Also included are the wives of Nuh (as) and Lut (as):

"Allaah sets forth for an example to the unbelievers, the wife of Nuh and the wife of Lut. under two of Our righteous slaves, but they were false to their [husbands] and they profit on their account, but were told: "Enter the Fire, along with those who enter!" (66:10)

Abu Lahab and his wife are also among those mentioned specifically:

"Perish the hands of the Father of Flame [Abu Lahab]! Perish he! No profit to him from all gains! Burnt soon will he be in a Fire of blazing flames! His wife shall carry the [crackling; rope of palm fibre round her [own] neck!" (111:1-5)

Another of them is 'Amr ibn 'Aamir al-Khuza'ai, whom the Prophet (saw) being disembowelled in He Bukhaari, Muslim, Ahmad); and the one who killed 'Ammar and plundered his possessions. A report in Mu'jam at-Tabaraani from 'Amr ibn al-'Aas, and his son states that the Prophet (saw) said, "The and plundered his possessions will be in Hell". (Saheeh al-Jaami', 4/110, #4170)

The Disbelievers Among the Jinn Will Be In Hell

The disbelievers among the jinn will enter Hell just like the disbelievers among mankind, for the jinn their actions just as human beings are:

"And I have only created jinns and men that they may worship Me [alone]" (51:56)

On the Day of Resurrection, the jinn and mankind will be gathered alike:

"And on the Day when He will gather them [all] together, [and say]: "O assembly of jinns men"" (6:128)

"So by your Rabb, without doubt, We shall gather them together, and [also] the Evil Ones shall bring them forth on their knees round about Hell. Then shall We certainly drag out from all who were worst in obstinate rebellion against Allaah the All-Gracious. And certainly We know best those who are most worthy of being burned therein". (19:68-70)

Then Allaah (swt) will tell the disbelieving jinn:

"Enter in the company of nations who passed away before you, of men and jinns into the Fire"

Then they will be thrown on their faces in Hell:

"Then they will be thrown headlong into the [Fire], they and those straying in evil. And th together". (26:94-95)

Thus Allaah's promise that Hell will be filled with the disbelievers among the jinn and mankind will b

"And the word of your Rabb shall be fulfilled: "Surely I will fill Hell with jinns and men a

"And the Sentence among the previous generations of jinns and men that had passed away then.." (41:25)

Those Who Will Not Remain in Hell Forever

(1) Definition: Those who will enter Hell and be brought forth at a later time are the monotheists anything with Allaah (swt) but they committed many sins that far outweigh their good deeds. They bring forth, through His Mercy, people who never did any good at all.

(2) The Sins for which Allaah (swt) has promised Hell

Here we will mention some of the sins which the Qur'aan and Hadeeth state will earn the punishmer

(i) Following groups and sects that go against the Sunnah

Abu Dawood, ad-Daarami, Ahmad, al-Haakim and others narrate that Mu'awiyah ibn Abi Sufyan saic

"The Messenger of Allaah (swt) stood up among us and said: "There were some among the Peo who divided into seventy-two sects. This nation will divide into seventy-three sects, seve
Hellfire, and only one in Paradise. (This group) is al-Jamaa'ah

This is a sahih hadith. After mentioning its various asaanid (chain of narrator), al-Haakim remarked, "this hadith is sahih". Adh-Dhahabi agreed with him. Sheikh al-Islaam Ibn Taymiyyah said, "It is a mashhoor sahih hadith. Sheikh Naasir ud-Deen al-Albaani listed its asaanid and there is no doubt sahih. (See Silsilat al-Ahadith as-Saheehah, hadith no. 204)

Siddeeq Hasan Khan suggested that the extra wording in the hadith, "all of them are doomed except one are in the Fire", was a da'eef addition. He transmitted this opinion from his Shaykh, ash-Shawkaani, who narrated it from Ibn al-Wazeer and Ibn Hazm before him. He approved the opinion of one who said, "This addition is one of the fabrications of the atheists because it puts people off Islaam and scares them away from embracing it." (Yaqadhaat ul)

Sheikh Naasir ud-Deen al-Albaani refuted the opinion that this addition is da'eef on two counts:

(a) Scholarly critical examination of the hadith indicates that this addition is Sahih so the opinion that it is da'eef carries no weight.

(b) Those who say that it is sahih are greater in number and more knowledgeable than Ibn Hazm, who is extremely strict in his criticism. His opinion should not be taken as evidence if he even if there is no conflict, so how can it be taken as evidence when it differs from everyone else's?

Ibn al-Wazeer rejects the hadith on the grounds of its meaning rather than its isnaad. Siddeeq Hasa Yaqaadaat uli al-I'tibaar explaining that the indication of this addition is that those of this ummah who will enter Paradise are very many, so many that they will be half the population of Paradise:

This may be reconciled in the following ways:

a) Dividing the ummah into seventy-three sects does not mean that most of this ummah will be in Hell, because most of its ummah are `awaam ("rank and file") who are not counted among those sects. Those who deviated contradict the Sunnah are few in number when compared to those who avoided falling into that trap

(b) Not everyone who differs from Ahl as-Sunnah is SOME issue is counted as contradicting the Sunnah people who adopted rules that made them a separate, independent group and caused them to abandon the Qur'aan and Sunnah, like the Khawaarij, the Mu'tazilah and Rawaafidh.

As for those who adopt the Qur'aan and Sunnah and do not deviate from them, if they differ in something they are counted as one of the (doomed) sects.

(c) This addition indicates that all other sects will enter Hell, but that does not necessarily mean that they will remain there forever.

It is well known that some of these sects are kuffar and will abide eternally in Hell, like the extreme faith whilst concealing kufr in their hearts, and the Ismaa'ilis, Druze, Nusayris and so on.

There are others who differ from Ahl as-Sunnah in some serious issues, but that does not mean the definite guarantee of entering Paradise. Allaaah (swt) may forgive them or punish them as He wills. If their deeds that will save them from Hell, or they may be saved by the intercession of those who intercede remain there for as long as Allaaah (swt) wills, then be brought forth through the intercession of those who intercede and the Mercy of the Most Merciful.

(ii) Refusing to Migrate for the Sake of Allaaah
Muslims are not permitted to remain in Daar al-Kufr if there are Muslim countries to which they could become waajib on them to make hijrah (especially when staying in Daar al-Kufr exposes them to trials and temptations). Allaah (swt) will not accept any excuse from those who refused to migrate:

"When the angels take the souls of those who die in sin against their souls, they say: "In They reply, "Weak and oppressed were we in the earth". They [the angels] say: "Was not spacious enough for you to move yourselves away from evil?" Such men will find their ab-refuge [or destination]! Except those who are really weak and oppressed - men, women a means in their power, nor [a guide post] to direct their way". (4:97-98)

Allaah (swt) will not excuse any of them (NB: upon whom hijrah was OBLIGATORY) except those we had no means of migrating and could find no way of moving to Islaamic lands.

(iii) Judging Unjustly

Allaah (swt) revealed the Shari'ah to establish justice among mankind, and He commanded His slave to be just and never to be unfair:

"Verily Allaah commands the justice [and] the doing of good.." (16:90)

He has made it obligatory for rulers and judges to be just and never to be unfair:

"Allaah commands you to render back your trusts to those to whom they are due; and wh and man, that you judge with justice". (4:58)

Allaah (swt) threatens Hell to those who do not judge with justice. Buraydah ibn al-Husayb narrated (saw) said,

"There are three types of judges: one will be in Paradise and the other two in Hell. The on the one who knows the truth and judges according to it. As for the one who knows the tru judgement, he will be in Hell, as will the one who judges between people without underst Dawood - Jaami' al-Usool, 10/168)

(iv) Lying about [falsely attributing words to] the Messenger of Allaah (saw)

Ibn al-Ithir included in his famous book, Jaami' al-Usool a chapter in which he quoted many hadith t the Prophet (saw). These include the report by al-Bukhaari, Muslim and at-Tirmidhi from 'Ali ibn Abi Taalib Messenger of Allaah (saw) said to me: "Do not lie about me (or falsely attribute anything to me will enter Hell".

al-Bukhaari reported that Salaman ibn al-Akwa' said: "I heard the Messenger of Allaah (saw) say: " words that I did not say, let him take his place in Hell".

al-Bukhaari and Abu Dawood reported that 'Abdullaah ibn az-Zubayr narrated from his father, az-Zu heard the Messenger of Allaah (saw) say: "Whoever lies about me deliberately, let him take h. al-Bukhaari and Muslim narrated from al-Mughirah ibn Shu'bah, "The Messenger of Allaah (saw) said like lying about anybody else. Whoever lies about me, let him take his place in Hell". (Jaar

(v) Pride

One of the major sins, al-Kabaa'ir, is pride. Abu Hurayrah (ra) narrated: "The Messenger of Allaah (saw, "Pride is My cloak and greatness is My robe. Whoever competes with Me in respect of admit him to Hellfire". (according to another report, "I will make him taste Hellfire") - Muslim.
Ibn Mas'ud said: "The Messenger of Allaah (saw) said, "No one who has an atom's weight of pride in his heart will enter Paradise". A man said, "But what if a man likes his clothes and shoes to look good?" He said, "Allaah loves beauty. Pride is rejecting the truth and looking down on people". (Muslim).

(vi) Killing a person for no legitimate reason

Allaah says: "If a man kills a believer intentionally, his recompense is Hell to abide therein and the Curse of Allaah are upon him, and a dreadful Penalty is prepared for him". (4:93)

It is not permitted for a Muslim to kill another except in three cases, as explained in the hadith narrated by al-Muslim from Ibn Mas'ud (ra) who said that the Messenger of Allaah (saw) said: "It is not permitted to shed the blood of any Muslim person who testifies that there is no god but Allaah (swt) and that I am His Prophet, except in three cases: a soul for a soul (i.e in the case of murder), the married man who commits adultery, and the religion and abandons the jamaa'ah". (Tafseer Ibn Katheer, 2/355)

al-Bukhaari narrates from Ibn 'Umar that the Messenger of Allaah (saw) said: "The believer has a chance so long as he does not spill blood that it is forbidden to spill". Ibn Umar (ra) said, "One of the situations from which one who falls into it is the shedding of blood for no legitimate reason". (Sahih al-Bukhaari, Kitaab al-Fitan, Baab idhaa tuwajaha al-sayfayhimaa 4/2213)

The Prophet (saw) warned the Muslims against fighting one another and stated that the killer and his victim will both be in Hell. Abu Bakrah said: "The Messenger of Allaah (saw) said, "If two Muslims face one another with swords, both the slayer and the slain will be in Hell". I asked, or it was asked, "O Messenger of Allaah (it is clear about) the slayer, but what about the slain?" He said, "He was trying hard to kill his counterpart". (Muslim, Kitaab al-Fitan, Baab idhaa sayfayhimaa 4/2213)

Hence the righteous slave of Allaah (swt) refuses to fight his brother, for fear that he may be among the slayer will carry his own sins and those of his slain brother:

"Recite to them the truth of the story of the two sons of Aadam. behold, they each presented a sacrifice [to Allaah]: it was accepted from one but not from the other. Said the latter: "Be sure I will slay you". does not accept the sacrifice of those who are righteous. If you do stretch your hand against me to slay me, it is not for me to stretch my hand against you to slay you, for I fear Allaah, the Cherisher of the Worlds. For me, I intend to let you draw on yourself my sin as well as yours, for you will be among the Companions [or dwellers] of the Fire, and that is the reward of those who do wrong". (5:27-29)

(vii) Consuming Ribaa

One of the sins that will condemn a person to Hell is consuming ribaa. Allaah (swt) says of those who indulge in this sin after they have come to know that He has forbidden it:

"..but those who repeat the offence (ribaa) are Companions (dwellers) of the Fire - they will abide therein forever" (2:275)

"O you who believe! Devour not [interest, ribaa] doubled and multiplied, but fear Allaah that you may prosper. Fear the Fire, which is prepared for those who reject Faith". (3:130-131)

According to a hadith whose authenticity is agreed upon, the Prophet (saw) counted ribaa as one of the seven sins that would doom the one who committed them to Hell. al-Bukhaari and Muslim report that Abu Hurayrah (ra) said:

"The Messenger of Allaah (saw) said, "Avoid the seven sins that will condemn the one who commits them to Hell, O Messenger of Allaah (saw)". He said, "Associating anything in worship with Allaah (swt); magic and witchcraft; killing anyone whose killing Allaah (swt) has forbidden, except in the case of murder; consuming ribaa; consuming the wealth of the orphan; running away from the battlefield; reputation of innocent, chaste believing women”.

(viii) Consuming people’s wealth or property unjustly

As Allaah says: "O you who believe! Eat not up your property among yourselves in vanities; but let there be among you traffic and trade by mutual good will. Nor kill [or destroy] yourselves, for verily Allaah is Merciful. If any do that in rancour and injustice, soon shall We cast him into the Fire, and easy is it for Allaah" (30)

The one who consumes the wealth of people unjustly also consumes the property of orphans unjustly. Allaah (swt) made specific mention of the property of orphans because of their weak position and the ease which their property particular ugliness of this sin:

"Those who unjustly eat up the property of orphans, eat up a Fire into their own bellies, a Fire which endure a blazing Fire! (4:10)

(ix) Those Who Make Images of Animate Beings

The people who will be most severely punished on the Day of Resurrection are those who make images of Allaah (swt). al-Bukhaari and Muslim narrate that 'Abdullaah ibn Mas'ud said, "I heard the Messenger of Allaah (saw) said, "The people who will be most severely punished on the Day of Resurrection are those who make images."

(Mishkaat al-Masaabeeh, 2/505)

Ibn 'Abbaas said, "I heard the Messenger of Allaah (saw) say, "Every maker of images will be in image he made Allaah (swt) will create for him a soul [i.e. so that the punishment will be and Allaah (swt) will punish him in Hell." (al-Bukhaari and Muslim).

'Aaishah reported that the Prophet (saw) said, concerning a pillow that had pictures on it, "The makers of these images will be punished on the Day of Resurrection. It will be said to them: "Give life to that which you made." (Bukhaari and Muslim).

'Aaishah also reported that the Prophet (saw) said "Those who will be most severely punished are those who imitate the creation of Allaah (swt)" (Mishkaat al-Masaabeeh).

Abu Hurayrah (ra) said, "I heard the Messenger of Allaah says, "Allaah (swt) said, "Who is a greater wrongdoer than the one who tries to create something like My creation? Let them create a grain or let them create a seed or a grain of barely" (al-Bukhaari and Muslim).

(x) Inclining to Those Who Do Wrong

One of the reasons why people will enter Hell is inclining towards and supporting those who do wrong (swt):

"And incline not to those who do wrong, or the Fire will seize you, and you have no protectors other than Allaah, nor shall you be helped". (11:113)

(xi) Women Who Are Dressed But Appear Naked, and Those Who Whip the Backs of People

Another type of person who will enter Hell is the corrupt woman who makes a display of herself and phenomenon has never been quite so widespread as it is now - and never obeys Allaah (swt). Abu Hurayrah (ra) reported that the Prophet (saw) said: "There are two types of people of Hell that with whips like the tails of cattle, with which they strike the people, and women who are walking with an enticing gait, with their heads looking like the humps of camels, leaning i enter Paradise, nor even smell its fragrance, although its fragrance can be discerned from distance". (Muslim, al-Bayhaqi, and Ahmad - Silsilat al-Ahadith as-Saheehah, 3/316, no. 1326)

Concerning those who have whips like the tails of cattle, al-Qurtubee said, "This type of whip can be until now." Commenting on al-Qurtubee's remark, Siddeeq Hasan Khan said, "Indeed it can be seen it is increasing day by day among the leaders. We seek refuge in Allaah (swt) from all that Allaah (swt) despises". (al-I'tibaar p.113)

And I say: we still see such people in many places, striking the people. May they and their like perish.

(xii) Those Who Torture Living Beings

Muslim reports in his Saheeh from Jaabir that the Messenger of Allaah (saw) said,

"I was shown Hell and I saw a woman of Banu Israa'eel who was being punished because owned. She tied it up and did not feed it, or let it eat of the vermin of the earth, until it died of hunger." (Masaabeeh, 3/688)

If this is the case for one who tormented a cat, then how will it be for those who use all kinds of me beings, especially when it is the righteous who are being tortured for their faith and their Islaam? May Allaah curse those who torture the believers - be it in the lands of Chechnya, Kashmir, Maluku, Philippines, Palestine, or in t al-Haafidh al-Mundhiri mentions many hadiths that warn the person who seeks knowledge for a cause Allaah (swt). We will quote a few of them here. Abu Hurayrah (ra) said, the Messenger of Allaah (sa knowledge that should be sought only for the sake of Allaah (swt) but seeks it purely for not smell the fragrance of Paradise on the Day of Resurrection". It was reported by Abu Daw Hibbaan in his Saheeh and by al-Haakim who said, "It is saheeh according to the conditions of al-Bukhaari and Muslim).

Jaabir said, The Messenger of Allaah (saw) said, "Do not seek knowledge in order to compete to win arguments with the ignorant, or to show off in gatherings. Whoever does any of these reported by Ibn Maajah (ra), by Ibn Hibbaan in his Saheeh and al-Bayhaqi.

Ibn 'Umar (ra) said that the Messenger of Allaah (saw) said, "Whoever seeks knowledge for a re sake of Allaah (swt), then let him take his place in Hell." It was reported by at-Tirmidhi and 'Umar via Khalid ibn Durayk who did not hear it directly from him; the men in their isnaad Targheeb wat-Tarheeb by al-Mundhiri 1/91)

(xiv) Those Who Drink From Vessels of Gold and Silver

al-Bukhaari and Muslim report from Umm Salamah that the Messenger of Allaah (saw) said "The one who drinks from a vessel/utensil of god and silver is pouring the fire of Hell into his stomach". According to another wording is "The one who eats and drinks from vessels of gold and silver.." (Mishkaat al-Masabih)

Hudhayfah (ra) said, I heard the Messenger of Allaah (saw) say, "Do not wear silk or brocade, drink gold and silver, and do not eat from such platters, for these belong to them [the kuffaar] in the Hereafter" (al-Bukhaari and Muslim).

(xv) The One Who Cuts Down Trees that Offer Shade To People

'Abdullaah ibn Hubaysh (ra) said, The Messenger of Allaah (saw) said, "Whoever cuts down shad cast him head first into Hell". (Abu Dawud, Mishkaat al-Masaabeh, 2/125. Sheikh Naasir ud-Deen al-Saheeh al-Jaami' 5/431, hadith no. 6352 and ascribed it to Abu Dawud an ad-Diyaa, al-Mukhtarah.)

al-Bayhaqi reported, with a saheeh isnad from 'Aaishah that the Messenger of Allaah (saw) said, "Those who cut down shade trees will be thrown on their heads in Hell." (al-Bayhaqi in Saheeh al-Jaami' 2/88, al-Albaani said it is saheeh)

(xvi) Those Who Commit Suicide

al-Bukhaari and Muslim report from Abu Hurayrah that the Prophet (saw) said, "Whoever kills hin instrument) then his iron will be in his hand, and he will be stabbing himself in the stoma Fire of Hell. Whoever kills himself with poison, then he will be drinking that poison forever. Whoever throws himself from a mountain and kills himself, he will be throwing himself do Hell". (at-Tawkheef min an-Naar, p. 148) al-Bukhaari reports from Abu Hurayrah that the Prophet (saw) said, "The one who strangles him himself in Hell, and the one who stabs himself will be stabbing himself in Hell". (Saheeh al-

The Vast Number of People in Hell

Many texts indicate the large numbers of the children of Aadam will enter Hell, and the few who will says:

"Yet no faith will the greater part of mankind have, however ardently you desire it." (12:1)

An indication of the large numbers of kuffaar and mushrikeen who rejected the call of the Messenger will come on the Day of Resurrection some with a small group (of less than ten), others with one or followers at all. Muslim reports from Ibn 'Abbaas that the Prophet (saw) aid:

"I was shown the nations and I saw a Prophet accompanied by a small group, another accompanied by one or men, and another with no companions at all.." (Saheeh Muslim, 1/198, no.220) al-Bukhaari narrates from Abu Sa'eed that the Prophet (saw) said: Allaah will say, "O Aadam!" A respond to Your call, I am obedient to Your commands, and all good is in Your hands." Th Aadam, "Send forth the people of the Fire". Aadam will say, "How many are the people of will say, "Out of every thousand, take nine hundred and ninety-nine". At that time, children every pregnant female will spontaneously abort and you will see the people looking as if they are not, but Allaah's punishment will be most severe". This speech distressed his Com Messenger of Allaah (saw), who amongst us will be that man (one in a thousand)?" He sa thousand will be from Ya'juj and Ma'juj (Gog and Magog) and the one will be from among Him in Whose hand is my soul, I hope that you will be one third of the people of Paradise. Allaah (swt) and then he said, "By Him in Whose Hand is my soul, I hope that you will be paradise, as you are among the nations like a white hair on the hide of a black bull or a ro foreleg of a donkey". (al-Bukhaari, Kitaab ar-Raqaaq, Baab Qawl Allaah Azza wa jalla, innaa zalza 'Adheem, Fath al-Baari, 11/388; see also Tafseer Ibn Katheer, 4/435).

It might be asked: how can we reconcile between these hadith and the report from Abu Hurayrah in the Prophet (saw) said that Allaah (swt) said to Aadam ('alayhis-salaam) - "Send forth [into Hell] hundred [of your descendants]". It is obvious that these reports do not contradict the other Sah quoted above, because these figures are referring to different groups. The hadith that mention a rat nine may be interpreted as referring to all the progeny of Aadam, whilst the hadith of al-Bukhaari th nine may be interpreted as referring to the progeny of Aadam excluding Ya'juj and Ma'juj. This reco correct - as Ibn Hajar suggests - because Ya'juj and Ma'juj are mentioned in the hadith of Abu Sa'eed whereas they are not mentioned in the hadith of Abu Hurayrah. It may be said that the first hadith refers to all of creation admitted to Hell when all nations are taken into account is 999 in every thousand. The latter hadith ratio of people who will enter Hell from this ummah alone. Ibn Hajar (said) "This interpretation is supported by the words of the Sahabah in the hadith of Abu Hurayrah (ra): "If ninety-nine out of every hundred are taken from us, what will be left of us?" This division of people could happen twice: once involving all the nations, when one in a thousand will enter Paradise and ten out of every thousand will enter Paradise". (Fath al-Baari, 11/390).

The Wisdom Behind There Being So Many People In Hell

The reason why there will be so many people in Hell is not that the truth failed to reach them all, wherever or whenever they lived. Allaah does not blame anyone whom His call did not reach:

"..Nor would We punish with Our Wrath until We had sent a Messenger [to give warning].

"..And there never was a people, without a Warner having lived among them [in the past]

The reason behind it is the fact that those who responded to the Messengers were few in number, while those who disbelieved were great. Furthermore, many of those who responded were not pure and sincere in faith.

In his book, at-Takhweef min an-Naar, Ibn Rajab discussed the reason why so few people will enter Hell: "These hadith and other similar reports prove that most of the children of Aadam will enter Hell, and that the followers of the Messengers are few in number when compared to the rest of mankind. Those who did not follow the Messengers will enter Hell, except for those whom the Message did not reach, or who could not understand it because of the garbled form in which they heard it. Many of those who claim to follow the Messengers are in fact adhering to a distorted religion and an altered book, and they too will be among the people of Hell, " as Allaah (swt) says:

"...But those of the sects that reject it [the Qur'aan] the Fire will be their promised meeting...

As for those who claim to follow the Book and Law of Allaah (swt) the true religion, many of them will be the Munaafiqoon (the hypocrites) who will be in the lowest level of the Fire. Many of those who claim to follow it openly and in secret will be tested by ambiguities and doubts - these are the misguided inventors and followers of bid'ah (reprehensible innovations, heresies). Several hadith have been narrated which state that seventy-odd sects, all of which will be in the Hell except for one. Many people will also be tested with the promised punishment is Hellfire, although in this case it is not necessarily an eternal punishment will be saved from the Fire, or deserve the absolute promise of Paradise, apart from the one sect or example and practice of the Prophet (saw) and his Companions openly and in secret, and are saved from the tests of desires and doubts. Such are very few indeed, especially in latter times". (at-Takhweef min an-Naar).

The main reason why so many follow their desires is that the love of such things is deeply rooted in "Fair in the eyes of men is the love of things they covet: women and children; heaved-up hoards of gold and silver [wealth]; horses branded [for blood and excellence]; and [wealth of] cattle and well-tilled possessions of this world's life. .." (3:14)

Many people want to fulfill these desires in whatever way they wish, without paying attention to the and by adhering to the customs of their forefathers in ways that contradict these laws:

"Just in the same way, whenever We sent a Warner before you [Muhammad] to any people them said: "We found our fathers following a certain religion, and we will certainly follow [Warner] said: "What! Even if I brought you better guidance than that which you found you said, "For us, we deny that you [Prophets] are sent [on a mission at all]". (43:23-24)
Loving the ways of one's forefathers to the point of sanctifying them is a disease which many nations are suffering from, and its effects on the deeply-rooted desires of men are no less, if it is not counted as a desire in itself.

at-Tirmidhi, Abu Dawud, and an-Nasaa'ee report from Abu Hurayrah (ra) that the messenger of Allaah (swt) created Hell. He told Jibreel, "Go and look at it." Jibreel went and looked at it, and when he came back, he said, "By Your Glory, I fear that no-one who hears of it will enter it". So He surrounded it with desires, and said, "Go and look at it." Jibreel went and looked at it, and when he came back, he said, "By Your Glory, no-one left who does not enter it". (the version narrated by an-Nasaa'ee adds the words, "and what I have prepared for its inhabitants in it"). [Jaami al-Usool, 10/250, # 8068. at-Tirmidhi described it as sahih hasan].

al-Bukhaari and Muslim narrated from Abu Hurayrah that the Prophet (saw) said, "Hell is veiled in desires and Paradise is veiled in hardships".

Siddeeq Hasan Khan said, "What is meant by desires is the things that people want and enjoy". al-Qurtubee said, those things that people like and towards which they are inclined, and surrounding a thing means placing something all around it, so that it cannot be reached without going through it". (Yaqadhat uli al-I'tibar, p.220)

Most of Those Who Enter Hell Will be Women

Most of the sinners amongst the monotheists who enter Hell will be women, as is reported in as-Saheehayn, via Ibn 'Abbaas: in the khutbah given during a solar eclipse, the Prophet (saw) said, "I saw Hell and I saw that most of its inhabitants were women".

al-Bukhaari and Muslim report from Abu Sa'eed al-Khudri that the Prophet (saw) said, "O women, you form the majority of the people of Hell." They asked, "Why is that so, O Messenger of Allaah (saw)"? He said, "Because you curse too much and are ungrateful for good treatment".

al-Bukhaari and Muslim report from Usaamah ibn Zayd that the Prophet (saw) said "I stood at the gate of Hell, and saw that most of those who entered were women".

Muslim reports from 'Imraan ibn Husayn (ra) that the Prophet (saw) said, "Few of the inhabitants of Paradise will be women".

This does not contradict the fact that every man in Paradise will have more than one wife. What is referred to by the women who will be the majority of the inhabitants of Hell is women who are descendants of Aadam: the inhabitants of Paradise will have many wives from among al-Hoor al-'Iyn.

"Women will be few among the inhabitants of Paradise because in most cases they prefer the immer they are less wise and unable to keep the Hereafter in mind. They are too weak to strive and prepare more inclined towards this world. In spite of all this, they are the strongest factor in this world that call them to deviate from Islaam, and reluctant to follow those pious people who call them to righteous deeds". (al-Qurtubee, at-Tadhkirah, 1/369)

In spite of all this, there are many righteous women among them, who stay within the limits set by their faith and righteous deeds.

The Huge Size of the People of Hell

When the People of Hell enter the Fire they will be huge in size, in a form that none can comprehend.
According to a hadith narrated by Abu Hurayrah, the Messenger of Allaah (saw) said: "The distance the Kaaifir in Hell will be like three day’s travelling for a fast rider" (Muslim, 4/290)

Abu Hurayrah reported that the Messenger of Allaah (saw) said: "The molar of the kaafir or the thickness of his skin will be like a journey of three (days)". (Muslim, Haakim, Ibn Maajah and Ahmad)

Zayd ibn Arqam said, "The man who is destined for Hell will become huge in preparation for it, so that one of his molars will be as big as Mount Uhud".

This is narrated by Ahmad, who attributes it to the Prophet (saw) but Zayd did not state that he heard it from the Prophet (saw).

Abu Hurayrah reported that the Prophet (saw) said: "The kaafir’s skin will be forty-two cubits thick and his molar will be like Uhud and the space he occupies will be as wide as the distance between Makkah and Madinah." (Mishkaat al-Masaabeeh 3/103, sahih hasan)

Abu Hurayrah (ra) reported that the Prophet (saw) said: "The molar of the kaafir on the Day of Uhud, and the thickness of his skin will be seventy cubits. His upper arm will be like al-Bayda’, his thigh will be like Warqaan and the space he occupies will be like the distance between me and ar-Rabdhah" (al-Silsilah al-Ahadith as-Sahihah, 4/94. al-Baydaa’ could be the name of a mountain or it may refer to Morocco)

This increasing of the kaafir’s body size will increase his suffering and torment. Commenting on the this subject, an-Nawawi said, "All of this is in order to intensify the suffering, and all of this is possible for Allaah (swt). We must believe in it, because the truthful (Prophet) has told us about it" [Sharh an-Nawawi ‘alaa Muslim, 17] comment on these hadith said, "So that their punishment and suffering may be more severe, as Allaah punishment says:

"...that they may taste the Penalty". (4:46)

[Ibn Katheer, an-Nihayah, 2/139]

The Food, Drink and Clothing

The food of the people of Hell is ad-Daree and az-Zaqqum, and their drink is al-Hameem, al-Ghasleen and al-Allaah (swt) says:

"No food will there be for them but a bitter Daree obnoxious thorny plant, which will neither nourish nor satisfy hunger". (88:6-7) ad-Daree is a thorny plant know as ash-Shubruq that grows in the Hijaz. Ibn 'Abbaas said, "It is a when it grows tall it is called daree". Qataadah said, "It is one of the very worst types of food" (Ibn Naar, p.115). This food of the people of Hell will be of no benefit whatsoever to them, and they will one of the forms of punishment that they will suffer. Allaah (swt) says:

"Verily the tree of Zaqqum will be the food of the sinful, like molten brass, it will boil in th of scalding water." (44:43-46).

The Tree of Zaqqum is described in another aayah:
"Is that [Paradise] the better entertainment or the tree of Zaqqum [a horrible tree in Hell it [as] a trial for the wrongdoers. For it is a tree that springs out of the bottom of Hellfire, stalks are like the heads of devils; Truly they will eat thereof and fill their bellies therewith will be given to drink a mixture made of boiling water. Then, shall their return by to the b

Elsewhere in the Qur'aan, Allaah (swt) says:

"Then, will you truly - O you that go wrong, and treat [Truth] as Falsehood! You will surely taste of the tree of Zaqqum. Then you will fill your insides therewith, and drink boiling water on top of it. Indeed diseased camels raging with thirst! Such will be their entertainment on the Day of Requital!"

What we may understand from these aayaat is that this tree is a repulsive tree, whose roots go deep whose branches stretch forth all over. Its fruits are so ugly that they are likened to the heads of devils; easily understand just how ugly they are, even though they have never seen them. Although this tree will be given to drink, boiling water, so that it cuts up their bowels [to pieces]"

This is the hospitality that will be offered to them on that awesome Day. May Allaah (swt) protect us with Mercy.

When the people of Hell eat this vile food of ad-Daree and az-Zaqqum, they will choke because of its foulness:

"Verily with Us are fetters [to bind them] and a raging Fire [to burn them], And a food that chokes and a Penalty grievous". (73:12-13)

The food that makes people choke is the food that sticks in the throat.

The Prophet (saw) portrayed for us the ugly and terrifying nature of az-Zaqqum:

"If one drop from az-Zaqqum were to land on this world, the people of earth and all their would be destroyed. So how must it be for the one who must eat it?" It was reported by at-1 hasan hadith. [Mishkaat al-Masaabeeh, 3/105, narrated by Ibn 'Abbaas]

Another kind of food that will be eaten by the people of Hell is al-Ghasleen. Allaah (swt) says:

"So no friend has he here this Day, Nor has he any food except corruption [or filth] from t Ghasleen], which none do eat but those in sin". (69:35-37)

"Yea, such! - Then shall they taste it - a boiling fluid and a fluid dark, murky, intensely col penalties of a similar kind - to match them!" (38:57-58)

al-Ghasleen and al-Ghassaaq mean the same thing, which is the festering pus that oozes out of the skin and flesh of the kuffaar. al-Qurtubee said, "It is the juice of the people of Hell" [Yaqhadhat uli a Allaaah tells us that al-Ghasleen is just one of many similarly obnoxious punishments.
The drink of the people of Hell will be al-Hameem. Allaah (swt) says:

"...and if they implore relief, they will be granted water like melted brass that will scald the drink! How uncomfortable a couch to recline on!" (18:29)

"...and he will be made to drink boiling, festering water. He will sip it unwillingly, and he will find great difficulty in swallowing it." (14:16-17)

These aayaat mention four kinds of drink that the people of Hell have to endure:

(1) al-Hameem: an extremely hot water.

As Allaah says: "In its midst and in the midst of the boiling hot water will they wander round!" (22:19)

This was explained as being ultra-hot water. And Allaah (swt) says: "They will be given to drink from a boiling hot spring." (88:5)

(2) al-Ghassaaq: as discussed above.

(3) al-Sadeed (pus): what flows from the flesh and skin of the Kaafir. Muslim reports from Jaabir: "Anyone who drinks intoxicants will be made to drink the mud of khabaal". They asked, "O the mud of khabaal?" He said, "The sweat of the people of Hell", or "the juice of the people of Hell".

(4) al-Muhl: according to the hadith of Abu Sa'eed al-Khudri narrated by Ahmad and at-Tirmidhi that the Prophet (saw) said:

"It is like boiling oil, and when it is brought near a person's face, the skin of the face falls said, "It is like very thick oil".

Some of the sinners will be fed the burning coals of Hell as an appropriate punishment:

"Those who unjustly eat up the property of orphans, eat us a Fire into their own bellies, a enduring a blazing Fire!" (4:10)

"Those who conceal Allaah's revelations in the Book, and purchase for them a miserable profit themselves naught but Fire.." (2:174)

As for the dress of the people of Hell, Allaah (swt) has told us that garments of fire will be tailor-made for them, as it says in the Qur'aan:

"..But for those who deny [their Rabb] for them will be cut out a garment of Fire; over the boiling water" (22:19)

When Ibraaheem at-Taymi recited this Aayah he used to say, "Glory be to Allaah, Who has created garments out of fire" (Takhweef min an-Naar, p.126)

Allaah (swt) says,

"And you will see the sinners that Day bound together in fetters. Their garments of liquid covered with Fire". (14:49-50)

This pitch or tar is melted copper. According to a hadith narrated by Muslim from Abu Maalik al-Ash'ar: "The woman who wails for the dead, if she does not repent before she dies, she will be re:
Resurrection, wearing a shirt of tar and a shield of scabs." Ibn Maajah reported this with the wails over the dead, who does not repent before she dies, Allaah (swt) will cut out for her a shirt of tar and a shield of scabs.

The Punishment of the People of Hell:

The Intensity of the Suffering of the People of Hell

The Fire is an intense punishment, in which there are different types of torment, to escape which people would give the dearest possessions that they own:

"As for those who reject Faith, and die rejecting - never would be accepted from any such as much gold as the earth contains, though they should offer it for ransom. For such is [in store] a penalty grievous helpers". (3:91)

"As to those who reject faith - if they had everything on earth and twice repeated, to give as ransom for the Penalty of the Day of Judgement, it would never be accepted of them. Theirs would be a grievous Penalty"

Muslim reports from Anas ibn Maalik that the Messenger of Allaah (saw) said: "One of the people of Hell who found the most pleasure in the life of this world will be brought forth on the Day of Resurrection, and will be dipped into the Fire of Hell. Then he will be asked: O son of Aadam, have you ever seen anything good? Have you ever enjoyed any pleasure?" He will say, "No, by Allaah (swt), O Rabb"" (Muslim, Mishkat al-Masaabeeh, 3/102).

Just a few short moments will make the kuffaar forget all the good times and pleasure that they had. Muslim report from Anas ibn Maalik that the Messenger of Allaah (saw) said, "On the Day of Resurrection, one whose punishment in the Fire is the lightest, "If you had whatever you wanted on earth, would you give up to save yourself?" He will say, "Yes". Allaah (swt) will say, "I wanted less than that from you: when you were still in the loins of Aadam, I asked you not to associate anything in worship with Me, but you insisted on associating others in worship with Me"". (al-Bukhaari, in Kitaab ar-Raqaaq, Baab Sifaat al-Jannah wa Naar, Fath al-Mishkat al-Masaabeeh, 3/102)

The horror and intensity of the Fire will make a man lose his mind, and he would give up everything but he will never be able to:

"..the sinner's desire will be: would that he could redeem himself from the Penalty of that day - his children, his wife and his brother, his kindred who sheltered him, and all, all that is on earth, so that it could deliver him. By no means! For it would be the Fire of Hell! Plucking out [his being] right to the skull"

This horrendous ongoing punishment will make the life of these evildoers one of continual sorrow and pain.

Pictures of Their Punishments

(1) The Punishment of the People of Hell Will Vary in Degree

As Hell has various levels, in some of which the torment and horror is greater than in others, so the different levels of punishment. According to a hadith narrated by Muslim and Ahmad from Samurah, concerning the people of Hell:"There are some whom the Fire will take up to their ankles, others up to their waists, and others up to their collarbones". According to another report, "The Messenger of Allaah (saw) has told us about those who will receive the lightest punishment in Hell: al-Nu'maan ibn Basheer who said:
"I heard the Messenger of Allaah (saw) say, "The person who will have the least punishment among the people of Hell on the Day of Resurrection will be a man under the arch of whose feet will be placed a smouldering ember, and his brains will boil because of it."

In another report also narrated by al-Bukhaari from an-Nu'maan ibn Basheer, the Prophet (saw) said: "The person who will have the least punishment among the people of Hell on the Day of Resurrection will be a man under the arch of whose feet will be placed two smouldering embers, because of which his brains will boil like water boils in a mirjal [copper vessel] or qumqum [narrow-necked vessel]." (al-Bukhaari in Sahih, Kitab ar-Raqaaq, Baab Sifaat al-Naar, Fath al-Baari, 11/417, and Muslim in his Sahih, Kitab al-Imaan, 1/196, no. 363)

According to a report narrated from an-Nu'man ibn Basheer by Muslim, the Prophet (Saw) said: "The person who will have the least punishment among the people of Hell on the Day of Resurrection is a man who will be given shoes and laces of fire, because of which his brains will boil like water in a mirjal (copper vessel). He will not think that anyone could be more severely punished than himself, yet he will be the one with the lightest punishment."

al-Bukhaari and Muslim both narrate from Abu Sa'eed al-Khudri that he heard the Messenger of Allaah Abu Taalib was mentioned: "Maybe my intercession will help him on the Day of Resurrection, so that he may be put in a shallow part of Hell, with fire reaching to his ankles and causing his brain to boil". (al-Bukhari in Sahih, Kitab ar-Raqaaq, Baab Sifaat al-Jannah wan-Naar, Fath al-Baari, 11/417 and Muslim in Kitaab al-Imaan, Baab Shifa'at an-Taalib, 1/195, hadith no. 360)

Many aayat confirm the different levels of punishment that will be given to the people of Hell:

"The hypocrites will be in the lowest depths of the Fire.." (4:145)

"..and [the Sentence will be] on the Day that Judgement will be established [it will be said to the angels]: "Cast the people of Pharaoh into the severest Penalty!" (40:46)

"Those who reject Allaah and hinder [men] from the Path of Allaah, for them will We add they used to spread mischief [or corruption]". (16:88)

al-Qurtubi said, "This topic indicates that the kufr of the person who simply disbelieves is not like that of those who oppress, disbelieves, rebels and disobeys. There is no doubt that the kuffaar will suffer different levels of punishment from that which is known from Qur'aan and Sunnah. We know for certain that the punishment of those who oppress Muslims, and spread corruption and disbelief on earth, will not be the same as the punishment of those who did not do such things, but treated the Prophets and Muslims well. Do you not see Abu Taalib, how the Prophet (Saw) will help him, protected him and treated him well? The hadith narrated by Muslim interpreted as referring to the kuffaar, as there is a hadith about Abu Taalib, or it may be interpreted as referring to those who were extreme in their disbelief and spread corruption on earth, calling others to kufr, will be punished". (at-Tadhkirah, p. 409)

Ibn Rajab said, "Know that the different levels of punishment suffered by the people of Hell will be according to the levels of their deeds for which they entered Hell". Then he quotes the evidence for that, such as the words of Ibn Rajab regarding the levels of punishment for those who were extreme in their disbelief and spread corruption on earth, calling others to kufr, will be punished. Then Ibn Rajab says, "Similarly, the punishments of the monotheists who were guilty of major sins (kabaa'ir) will be reduced for some of them because of whatever reason Allaah (swt) wills. Hence some of them may die in the Fire". (at-Takhweef min an-

(2) Roasting of the Skin

The Fire of the Almighty will burn the skin of the kuffaar. The skin is the site of sensation, where the pain of burning is felt, and for this reason, Allaah (swt) will replace the burnt skin with a new one, to be burnt anew, and this would continue indefinitely.

Al-Jannah wa An-Naar-------------------
"Those who reject Our Signs, We shall soon cast them into the Fire. As often as their skins shall change them for fresh skins, that they may taste the penalty. For Allaah is Exalted in Power, All-Mighty, Most Wise.

(3) Melting

One of the kinds of torment will be the pouring of al-Hameem over their heads. al-Hameem is ultra-extreme heat, it will melt their innards and everything inside:

"... then as for those who disbelieve, garments of fire will be cut out for them, boiling water will be poured down over their heads. With it will melt or vanish away what is within their bellies, as well as [I at-Tirmidhi reported from Abu Hurayrah (ra) that the Prophet (saw) said:

"al-Hameem will be poured on their heads and will dissolve through until it reaches their will drop out, until it comes out of his feet, and everything is melted, then he will be restored to his original state."

Tirmidhi) said, "It is a sahih ghareeb hasan hadith". (at-Takhweef min an-Naar, p.145, Jaami' al-Usool, 10/540)

(4) Scorching (the face).

The noblest and most dignified part of a person is the face, hence the Prophet (saw) forbade us to strike the face. One of the ways in which Allaah (swt) will humiliate the people of Hell is by gathering them on their faces, blind, dumb, and deaf, on the Day of Resurrection:

"...We shall gather them together prone on their faces, blind, dumb, and deaf; their abode will be Hell; everytime it shows abatement, We shall increase for them the Fierceness of the Fire". (17:97)

Then they will be thrown on their faces in the Fire:

"And if any do evil, their faces will be thrown headlong into the Fire; "Do you receive a reward other than that which you have earned by your deeds?" (27:90)

The Fire will burn and cover their faces forever, with no barrier between them and it:

"If only the unbelievers knew [the time] when they will not be able to ward off the Fire from their backs, and [when] no help can reach them!" (21:39)

"The Fire will burn their faces and they will therein grin, with their lips displaced" (23:104)

"Their garments of liquid pitch, and their faces covered with fire". (14:50)

"Is then one who has to fear the brunt of the penalty on the Day of Judgement [and received therefrom]?" (39:24)

Look at this horrific scene that makes one shudder!

"The Day that their faces will be turned upside down in the Fire, they will say, "Woe to us obeyed Allaah and obeyed the Messenger." (33:66)

Do you not see that just as meat and fish are turned over when they are cooked, so their faces will be turned over in the Fire of Hell. We seek refuge with Allaah (swt) from the punishment of the people of Hell.
Another of the painful torments that the Kuffaar will suffer is being dragged on their faces into Hell:

"Truly those in sin are the ones straying in mind, and mad. The Day they will be dragged [faces [they will hear]]: "Taste the touch of Hell." (54:47-48)

Their pain at being dragged will be increased by the fact that they will be tied up in chains and fetters:

"...But soon shall they know - when the yokes [shall be] round their necks, and the chains along, in the boiling fetid fluid, then shall they be burned". (40:70-72)

Qataadah said, "They will be dragged once in the Fire, and once in al-Hameem." (Ibn Rajab, at-Takhweef)

Allaah (swt) will blacken the faces of the people of Hell in the Hereafter:

"On the Day when some faces will be [lit up with] white and some faces will be [in the glo who faces will be black [it will be said]: "Did you reject Faith after accepting it? Taste the Faith". (3:106)

This is intense blackness, as if the darkness of night had covered their faces

"But those who have earned evil will have a reward of like evil, and ignominy will cover th they have from [the wrath of] Allaah. Their faces will be covered, as it were, with pieces They are Companions [or dwellers] of the Fire, they will abide therein [for aye!]" (10:27)

The people of Hell are the Kuffaar whose sins and disobedience surround them, leaving no hasanah response to the Jews who claimed that the Fire would only touch them for a certain length of time:

"Nay, those who seek gain in evil and are girt round by their sins - they are companions [therein shall they abide [forever]]" (2:81)

No one will be in such a state unless he is a kaafir and a mushrik. Siddeeq Hasan Khan says, "What deeds is a certain type of deed, the reasons for which should be overwhelming, with no way out or r Eternity in Hell is for the kuffaar and mushrikeen, so evil and sin in this aayah has to be interpreted Thus the arguments of the Mu'tazilah and Khawaarij are shown to be false by the proven mutawaati sinners among the monotheists will eventually be brought forth from Hell."

Sins and evil deeds surround the Kuffaar like a bracelet around the wrist, so their punishment should Fire will surround the Kuffaar on all sides, as Allaah (swt) says:

"There will be a bed of Hell [Fire] and over them coverings [of Hellfire]" (7:41)

The "bed" is what comes under them, and the "coverings" are what come over them. What is meant them from above and below, as Allaah (swt) says:

"On the Day when the torment [Hellfire] shall cover them from above them and from und
"They shall have coverings of Fire above them, and coverings of Fire beneath them". (39:16)

Some of the Salaf interpreted the "Bed" (al-Mihaad) as meaning a mattress and the "cover" (al-Ghawaash) as being a blanket (Tafseer Ibn Katheer, 3/168)

The "surrounding" may be interpreted in another way, which is that Hell will have a wall to surround never be able to get out or escape form it, as Allaah (swt) says:

"..Verily We have prepared for the wrongdoers a Fire whose [smoke and flames] like the hem them in; If they implore relief, they will be granted water like melted brass, that will dreadful the drink! How uncomfortable a couch to recline on!" (18:29)

(8) The Fire Will Leap Up Over Their Hearts

We have already explained that the physical bodies of the people of Hell will be made huge in size. I penetrate their bodies until it reaches their innermost depths:

"Soon will I cast him into Hellfire! And what will explain to you what Hellfire is? Naught does it leave alone, Darkening and changing the colour of man!" (74:26-29)

Some of the Salaf said concerning the phrase, "naught does it leave alone" that it meant, "it eats bc does not leave anything untouched" (Ibn Rajab, at-Takhweef min an-Naar, p.146)

Allaah (swt) says:

"By no means! He will be sure to be thrown into that which Breaks to Pieces. And what will explain to you what that which Breaks to Pieces is? [It is] the Fire of the [wrath of] Allaah, kindled [to a blaze], the hearts". (104:4-6)

Muhammad ibn Ka'b al-Qurtubee said, "The Fire eats into him until it reaches his heart, then his body reported that when Thaabit al-Bananeel read this aayah, he said, "The Fire will burn them until it reaches are still alive; this is how great their suffering is!" Then he wept." (at-Takhweef min an-Naar, p.146)

(9) Their entrails will be spilled out in the Fire al-Bukhaari and Muslim report from Usaamah ibn Zayd that the Prophet (saw) said: "A man will be brought forth on the Day of Resurrection and thrown into the Fire. Then his entrails will be spilled out into the Fire, and he will walk around and around like a donkey in a treadmill. The people of Hell will gather around him and say, "O So-and-so, what is wrong with you? Did you not enjoin us to do good and forbid us to do evil?" He will say, "I used to order you to do good, but I did not do it, and I used to forbid you to do evil, but I used to do it." Then he will walk around and around like a donkey in a treadmill" (al-Bukhaari and Muslim, Mishkaat al-Masaabeeh, 2/642)

One of the people whose entrails will be spilled out in Hell is 'Amr ibn Lahay who was the first to change the religion of the Arabs. Muslim reports from Jaabir ibn Abdullaah that the Prophet (saw) said, "I saw 'Amr ibn 'Aamir al-Khuza'ee dragging his own entrails in Hell, and he was the Saa'ibah (a she-camel turned loose for free pasture for the sake of idols, upon which nothing was allowed to be carried". (Mishkaat al-Masaabeeh, 2/642)

(10) The Chains, Fetters and Hammers of the People of Hell

Allaah (swt) has promised that the people of Hell will have chains fetters and hammers in the Fire:

"For the Rejecters We have prepared iron chains, yokes and a blazing Fire". (76:4)
"With Us are fetters [to bind them] and a Fire [to burn them] and a food that chokes, and (73:12-13)

The yokes will be placed around their necks:

"...We shall put yokes on the necks of the unbelievers. It would only be a requital for thei (34:33)

"When yokes [shall be] round their necks, and the chains, they shall be dragged along." (40:71)

The chains or fetters are something with which Allah (swt) will punish them:

"With Us are fetters..." (73:12)

The chains are another kind of punishment, with which the wrongdoers will be tied up, just as criminals are chained up in this world. See how the Qur'aan describes them:

"The stern command will say, "Seize him and bind him, and burn him in the blazing Fire, for a chain, whereof the length is seventy cubits". (69:30-32)

Allaah (swt) has promised the people of Hell hooked rods of iron which are like hammers with which when they try to escape from the Fire, and they will be thrown ever deeper into Hell:

"And for them are hooked rods of iron [to punish them]. Every time they seek to get away they will be driven back therein, and [it will be] said to them: "taste the torment of burning".

(11) They will be accompanied by their objects of worship and their devils in Hell

The Kuffaar and Mushrikeen used to glorify the false deities that they worshipped instead of Allaah (and give of themselves and their wealth in their worshipping. On the Day of Resurrection, Allaah (sv that they used to worship instead of Him to enter the Fire, as a source of humiliation and shame for that they were misled and that they worshipped something that has no power either to benefit them

"Verily, you [disbelievers] and the [false] gods that you worship besides Allaah are [but] surely] come! If these had been gods, they would not have got there! But each one will a Ibn Rajab says, "Because the Kuffaar worship their gods instead of Allaah (swt) and believe that the Allaah (swt) and will bring them closer to Him, they will be punished by having these gods in Hell with humiliation and shame, and to make them feel deep sorrow and regret. Because when a punishment that was the reason for the punishment, the pain and sorrow becomes more intense." (at-Takhweef

For this reason the sun and moon will be thrown into Hell, and will be fuel for it, to punish those wrt them instead of Allaah. As the hadith says, "The sun and moon will be rolled up in Hell". (al-Ba al-Bazzar, al-Iisma'eelee and al-Khattabee, see Silsilat al-Hadith as-Saheehah, 1/32)

al-Qurtubee says, "They will be placed in Hell, because they were worshipped instead of Allaah (swt them, because they are inanimate, but that will be done in order to increase the sorrow and shame was said by some of the scholars." (al-Qurtubee, at-Tadhkirah, p.392)

For the same reason, the Kuffaar and their devils will be gathered together, so as to make the punis

"And if anyone withdraws himself from the remembrance of [Allaah] All-Gracious, We ap be an intimate companion to him. Such evil ones really hinder them from the Path, but the guided aright! At length, when [such a one] comes to Us, he says, [to his evil companion] and you were the distance of east and west”. Ah, evil is the companion indeed! When you avail you nothing, that Day that you shall be partners in punishment”. (43:36-39)

(12) Their sorrow, regret and supplications

When the Kuffaar see Hell, they will be filled with intense regret, at a time when regret will be of no avail:

"...they would declare [their] repentance when they see the penalty but the judgement be justice, and no wrong will be done unto them." (10:54)

When the Kuffaar looks at the record of his deeds, and sees his kufr and shirk, for which he deserve oblivion and death:

"But he who is given his Record behind his back, soon will he cry for perdition, and he will plead for destruction there and then! This Day plead not for a single destruction: plead for destruction oft-repeated". (25:13)

Their screams will grow louder and more desperate and they will call on their Rabb, hoping that He (swt) will take them out of the Fire:

"Therein will they cry aloud [for assistance]: "Our Rabb! Bring us out, we shall work right we used to do." (35:37)

At that time, they will come to realise the error and foolishness of their kufr:

"They will further say: "Had we but listened or used our intelligence we would not [now] of the blazing Fire". (67:10)

"They will say, "Our Rabb! Twice have You made us without life and twice have you given recognised our sins: Is there any way out [of this]?" (40:11)

But their prayer will be harshly refused, and they will be answered as animals deserve to be answered:

"They will say, "Our Rabb! Our misfortune overwhelmed us, and we became a people astray of this; if ever we return [to evil] then shall we be wrongdoers indeed!" He [Allaah] will speak not to Me!" (23:106-108)

The promise will come true, and they will reach a destination where no prayer will benefit them and

"If only you could see when the guilty ones will bend low their heads before their Rabb [so have seen and we have heard; now then send us back [to the world], we will work right [now] believe”. If We had so willed, surely We could certainly have brought every soul its Word from Me will come true: I will fill Hell with jinns and men all together. Taste you the Meeting of this Day of yours, and We too will forget you - taste the penalty of eternity for 14)

After that the people of Hell will call upon the keepers of Hell: "Pray to your Rabb to lighten us the penalty for a day. "(40:12)
[at least]! They will say, "Did there not come to you your Messengers with clear signs?" T will reply, "Then pray [as you like]! But the prayer of those without faith is nothing but [f of] error". (40:49-50)

Then they will ask for intercession so that their Rabb might annihilate them:

"And they will cry, "O Malik [Guard of Hell]! Would that your Rabb put an end to us". He v abide"" (43:77)

Everything they ask for will be refused. There will be no coming out of the Fire, no reduction in the t Rather it is ongoing, eternal punishment, and at that time they will be told:

"...and whether you are patient of it, or impatient of it, it is all the same. You are only bei used to do." (52:16)

Then their wailing will increase, and they will weep for a long time:

"Let them laugh a little: much will they weep: a recompense for the [evil] that they do". (1)

They will weep until no tears are left, then they will weep blood, and their tears will leave traces on cut into rock by water. In al-Mustadrak by al-Haakim there is a report from 'Abdullaah ibn Qays thal (saw) said: "The people of Hell will weep so much that if ships were placed in their tears, t will weep blood - meaning, instead of tears"

Anas ibn Maalik reported that the Prophet (saw) said: "The people of Hell will be made to weep they have no tears left. Then they will weep blood until they have as it were channels in t put in them, they would float". (1)

Those evildoers lost their own souls and their families when they preferred kufr to eemaan. Listen to they are punished:

"The Day when their faces will be turned upside down in the Fire, they will say, "Woe to u obeyed Allaah and obeyed the Messenger!" And they would say, "Our Rabb, verily we obe great ones, and they misled us from the (right) Path. Our Rabb, give them double penalty very great curse!" (33:66-68)

Listen to how Allaah (swt) described their condition [we seek refuge with Allaah (swt) from that]:

"As for those who are wretched, they will be in the fire, sighing in a high and low tone. Th the time that the heavens and earth endure, except as your Rabb wills.." (11:106-107)

az-Zajjaj said, "The high tone (az-Zafeer) is because of the intensity of their groaning and it is very az-Zafeer means the panting of the breath in the chest due to extreme fear, so that the ribs become tone" (ash-Shaheeq) is a long drawn-out breath, or an intake of breath; in either case it is an indica their grief and anguish. Their situation is likened to that of the one whose heart was overwhelmed b surrounded by it. al-Layth said, "az-Zafeer means that a man will take deep breaths because of his Shaheeq refers to his exhaling" (Siddeeq Hasan Khan, Yaqadhat uli al-I’tibaar p.72)

(1) Sheikh Naasir ud-Deen al-Albaani narrated these two hadiths in Silsilat al-Hadith as-Saheehah, attributed the first hadith to al-Haakim in al-Mustadrak. al-Haakim said "It is a hadith whose isnaad agreed with him. Sheikh Naasir said, "He should have added: according to the conditions of al-Bukhari and Muslim) recorded. He mentions Nu’man, whose nickname was 'Aarim had become confused. Sheikh Naasir quoted the second hadith attributed it to Ibn Maajah, and Ibn Abi-Dunyaa; Yazeed al-Raqqas one of the narrators, is da'eeef, but the rest of the narrators are those from whom al-Bukhaari and Muslim narrated.

How to Save Oneself From the Fire

As it is kufr that will condemn a person to eternal Hell, the way to be saved from Hell is through eemaan and righteous deeds. So the Muslims pray to their Rabb with faith to save them from the Fire:

"Those who say, "Our Rabb! We have indeed believed, forgive us then, our sins and save us from the Fire". (3:16)

"...Our Rabb! Not for naught have You created [all] this, glory to You! Give us salvation from Our Rabb! Any whom You admit to the Fire, truly You cover with shame, and never will we have heard the call of one calling [us] to faith: "Believe in your Rabb," and Rabb! Forgive us our sins and blot out from us our inequities, and take to Yourself our souls in the company of the righteous [al-Abraar]. Our Rabb! Grant us what You did promise unto us through Your Messengers and save us from shame on the Day of Judgement, for You never break Your Promise". (3:191-194)

Many ahadith speak in detail about this matter and describe the deeds that will protect one from the Allaah (swt). In al-Haakim's al-Mustadrak, and Ahmad's al-Musnad, a report from Anas ibn Maalik (ra) states, "By Allaah (swt), Allaah will never thrown one whom He loves into the Fire" (Jaami' 6/104)

Fasting is also a source of protection from the Fire, as Ahmad reports in al-Musnad and al-Bayhaqi in Shu'ab al-hasan isnaad from Jaabir ibn 'Abdullaah: "The Prophet (saw) said, "Allaah (swt) says, "Fasting is a protect oneself from the Fire". (Sahih al-Jaami', 4/114)

In Shu'ab al-Imaan, al-Bayhaqi reports from 'Uthmaan ibn Abil-Aas that the Prophet (saw) said, "Fasting is a punishment of Allaah (swt)" It was reported by Ahmad, an-Nasaa'ee, Ibn Maajah and Ibn Khuzaa (Sahih al-Jaami' 3/264).

If fasting is accomplished at the time of jihaad against the enemy, then that is a great victory, as it was reported from Abu Sa'eed al-Khudree that the Messenger of Allaah (saw) said: "Whoever fasts for one day when he is engaged in jihaad for the sake of Allaah, Allaah will remove him [lit. his face] seventy years distance from the Fire". (Ahmad, Tirmidhi and an-Nasaa'ee - Sahih al-Jaami' 5/310)

Other means of salvation from the Fire are fear of Allaah and jihaad for His sake:

"But for him who fears the standing before his Rabb, there will be two gardens [ie in Paradise]..." at-Tirmidhi and an-Nasaa'ee reported from Abu Hurayrah (ra) that the Messenger of Allaah(saw) said, of fear of Allaah will enter Hell until the milk goes back into the breast [i.e. never] and a the dust from fighting in the way of Allaah (swt) and the smoke of Hell". (Mishkaat al-Masa'abeer, 2/349, no. 3794)

al-Bukhaari reports from Abu 'Abs that the Messenger of Allaah (saw) said, "No two feet that get (swt) will never meet in the Fire of Hell". (Mishkaat al-Masa'abeer, 2/349, no. 3795)

Muslim reports from Abu Hurayrah (ra) that the Messenger of Allaah (saw) said, "A Kaafir and the never meet in the Fire of Hell." (Mishkaat al-Masa'abeer, 2/349, no. 3795)

We may also be shielded from the Fire by seeking protection with Allaah from it:
"Those who say, "our Rabb! Avert from us the wrath of Hell, for its wrath is indeed an affliction grievous. Evil indeed is it as an abode and as a place to rest in". (25:64-65)

Ahmad, Ibn Maajah, Ibn Hibbaan, and al-Haakim report with a sahih isnaad from Anas, that the Messenger of Allaah (saw) said, "No one asks Allaah (swt) for Paradise three times, but Paradise will say, "O Allaah (swt) admit him to Paradise". And no Muslim asks Allaah for protection from Hell three times, but Hell will say, "O Allaah save him from me"." (Sahih al-Jaami', 5/145, no. 5506)

al-Bukhaari and Muslim report from Abu Hurayrah (ra) that when the Prophet (saw) was discussing the angels who seek out gatherings of dhikr he said, "Allaah (swt) asks them and He knows best, "What are they seeking protection from?" They tell Him, "From the Fire". He asks, "And have they seen it?" They say, "No, by Allaah, O Rabb, they have not seen it." He says, "How would it be if they had seen it?" They say, "They would be even more afraid and anxious to escape it". He (swt) says, "Bear witness that I have forgiven them".". (Sahih al-Jaami', 2/233, no. 2169)

Paradise: the Eternal Abode

Paradise is the tremendous reward which Allaah (swt) has prepared for His beloved (awliyaa) and those who obey Him. It is complete joy and pleasure, where nothing is lacking and nothing can disturb its purity. What Allaah (swt) and His Messenger have told us about it makes our heads spin because our minds are not able to comprehend the greatness.

Listen to the words of Allaah (swt) in this hadith qudsi:

"I have prepared for My righteous slaves that which no eye has seen, no ear has heard and has never crossed the mind of any human being".

Then the Prophet (saw) said, "Recite, if you wish: "No person knows what is kept hidden for what they used to do". (32:17)

The joys of Paradise are far greater than the pleasures of this world, which pale into insignificance in comparison. al reports from Sahl ibn Sa'd as-Sa'idee that the Messenger of Allaah (saw) said: "A space the size of a better than this world and al that is in it". (Fath al-Baari, 6/319, an-Nawawi's commentary on Muslim 17/166)

Because admittance to Paradise and salvation from the Fire are according to Allaah's will and judge tremendous success, as Allaah (swt) says:

"Only he who is saved far from the Fire and admitted to the Garden, will have indeed attained the object of life [or: been successful]". (3:185)

"Allaah has promised to believers - men and women - Gardens under which rivers flow, to and beautiful mansions in Gardens of everlasting bliss. But the greatest bliss is the Good Pleasure of Allaah. That is the supreme felicity [or success]". (9:72)
"...and those who obey Allaah and His Messenger will be admitted to Gardens with rivers abiding therein [forever] and that will be the supreme achievement". (4:13)

Admittance to Paradise

There is no doubt that the joy of the believers will be incomparable when they are led, group by group, to the blessed Gardens of Paradise.

When they reach Paradise its gates will be opened for them, and they will be welcomed by noble angels congratulating them on their safe arrival after suffering so much hardship and witnessing so much horror:

"And those who feared their Rabb will be led to the garden in crowds, until, behold, they are opened and its keepers will say "Peace be upon you! Well have you done! Enter here, t

In other words, your words, thoughts and deeds were good so your hearts and souls became pure and for that you deserve Paradise.

The Believers Will Be Purified Before They Enter Paradise

After the Believers have passed over as-Siraat (the bridge over Hell), they will be kept on a bridge between Paradise and Hell, where they will be purified by means of their settling any wrongs that existed between any of them. When they enter Paradise they will be pure and clean, none of them bearing any ill-will towards another or desiring anything of another. al-Bukhaari reported from Abu Sa'eed al-Khudri (ra) that the Messenger of Allaah (saw) said:

"The believers will be saved from the Fire then they will be kept on a bridge between Paradise and Hell, where they will settle their accounts with one another for any wrongs that existed between them in this world and will be purified and cleansed, and will be permitted to enter Paradise. By the One in Whose hand is the soul of Muhammad, each of them will know his dwelling in Paradise better than he knew his dwelling in this world." (Kitaab ar-Riqaaq, Baab al-Qisas Yawm al-Qiyamah, Fath al-Baari, 11/395)

Our Prophet (saw) will be the first to ask for the gates of paradise to be opened, after Aadam, the father of mankind, and all the other great Prophets refuse this task.

The First People to Enter Paradise

The first of mankind to enter Paradise will be our Prophet Muhammad (saw) and the first nation to enter Paradise will be his ummah. The first member of this ummah to enter will be Abu Bakr as-Siddiq (ra).

Ibn Katheer quotes a number of Hadith [an-Nihayah, 2/213] that state this such as the report of Muslim to which the Messenger of Allaah (saw) said, "I will be the first one to knock at the gates of Paradise. The gatekeeper will ask, "Who are you?" I will say, "Muhammad". The gate ordered not to open the gate for anyone else before you". Muslim also reported from Anas that the Messenger of Allaah (saw) said: "I will come to the gate to be opened. The gatekeeper will ask, "Who are you?" I will say, "Muhammad". The gate ordered not to open the gate for anyone else before you".

al-Bukhaari, Muslim and an-Nasaa'ee report from Abu Hurayrah (ra) that the Prophet (saw) said: "I be the first on the Day of Resurrection. We will be the first of mankind to enter Paradise".

Abu Dawood reports from Abu Hurayrah (ra) that the Prophet (saw) said, "Jibreel came to me, an Paradise through which my ummah will enter”. Abu Bakr said, "O Messenger of Allaah (saw), I wish to see it!"). The Messenger of Allaah (saw) “But you, O Abu Bakr, will be the first of my ummah to enter Paradise”.

Those Who Will Enter Paradise Without Being Called to Account

The first group of this ummah who will enter Paradise will be those who were pre-eminent in their imaan, taqwaa, righteous deeds and adherence to the true religion. They will enter Paradise in one rank: the first of them will not enter until the last of them enters, and they will be as beautiful as the full moon.

Al-Bukhaari reports from Abu Hurayrah (ra) that the Messenger of Allaah (saw) said:

"The first group to enter Paradise will be as beautiful as the full moon. They will not spit, blow their noses or defecate. Their vessels will be of gold, their combs of gold and silver, their incense of aloes, and their sweat of musk. Each of them will have two wives, the marrow of whose leg-bones will be visible through their flesh because of their extreme beauty. There will be no differences or hatred among them (the people of Paradise); their hearts will be as one, and they will glorify Allaah (swt) morning and evening". (Kitaab Bid' al-Khalq, Baab Ma Jaa' fi Sifaat al-Baari, 6/318; Muslim, at-Tirmidhi)

al-Bukhaari reports from Sahl ibn Sa'd (ra) that the Messenger of Allaah (saw) said: "Seventy thousand of my ummah will enter Paradise; the first of them will not enter until the last of them does so, and their faces will look like the full moon". (Fath al-Baari, 6/319)

It is true that with each one of these seventy, Allaah (swt) will give His Prophet seventy thousand. Ahmad reports with a saheeh isnaad from Abu Bakr (ra) that the Messenger of Allaah (saw) said:

"I have been given seventy thousand of my ummah, who will enter Paradise without being called to account and without being punished, and with each one will be seventy thousand, and three handfuls of people picked up by my Rabb [i.e. it will be a great number]". (Saheeh al-Jaami', 6/108, no. 2988).

The Prophet (saw) described the characteristics of these seventy thousand.

al-Bukhaari reports from Ibn 'Abbaas that the Prophet (saw) said, "I was shown the nations, and I saw a Prophet pass by with a group of his people, and another with a band of his people, another with only ten, and another on his own (with no followers). Then I looked and saw a large crowd of people. I asked, "These my ummah?" He said, "No, but look at the horizon." So I looked, and saw a huge multitude. He said, "These are your ummah, and those seventy thousand in front will not be called to account". Why? He said, "They did not treat themselves with branding (cauterisation) or with ruqyaa (charms) and they did not see evil omens in things (i.e they were not superstitious): they put their trust only in their Rabb"." Mihsan stood up and said, "Pray to Allaah (swt) to make me one of them". The Prophet (saw) said, "One of them". Then another man stood up and said, "Ask Allaah (swt) to make me one of them". The Prophet said, "'Ukaasha has preceded you". (Saheeh al-Bukhaari, Kitaab ar-Riqaaq, Baab Yadhkul al-Jannah Sab'un Alfan bi Ghayri Hisaab, Fath al-Baari, 11/405)

These may be the ones whom Allaah (swt) has called al-Muqarraboon (those nearest to Allaah swt):

"And those foremost [in faith] will be foremost [in the Hereafter]. These will be those nearest [to Allaah Muqarraboon], in the Gardens of Bliss". (56:10-12)

More of them will come from the early generations than from the later generations:
"A multitude of those [foremost] will be from the first generations [who embraced Islaam [foremost] will be from the later generations". (56:13-14)

The Poor Will Enter Jannah Ahead of the Rich

Muslim reports from 'Abdullaah ibn 'Amr (ra) that the Messenger of Allaah (saw) said "The poor of Paradise forty years ahead of the rich". (Mishkaat al-Masaabeeh, 2/663, no. 5235) at-Tirmidhi reported from Abu Sa'eed, and Ahmad, at-Tirmidhi and Ibn Maajah reported from Abu H of Allaah (saw) said: "The poor of the Muhajireen will enter Paradise five hundred years ahead of the rich" (Saheeh al-Jaami' 4/90, no.4104).

Elsewhere the Prophet (saw) explained that these are the people who have nothing to be brought at addition to their jihaad and virtue. al-Haakim reported from 'Abdullaah ibn 'Amr that the Messenger know who will be the first of my ummah to enter Paradise? I said, Allaah and His Messenger "The poor of the Muhajireen. They will come to the gate of Paradise on the Day of Resurrection opened. The gatekeepers will say to them, "Have you been brought to account?" They will be brought to account for? We were carrying our swords and fighting for the sake of Allaah. Then the gates will be opened for them and they will stay there for forty years before any." Hadith as-Saheehah, 2/532, no. 853, al-Haakim said it is sahih according to the conditions of al-Bukhara.

al-Bukhaari reports from Usaaamah ibn Zayd that the Prophet (saw) said, "I stood by the gate of the majority of those who entered were the poor and wretched. The rich [Muslims] were detained while the people of Hell were ordered to be taken to Hell". (Sahih al-Bukhaari, Kitaab ar-Riqaaq, BAab Sifaat al-Jannah, wan 2/345)

Some of the hadith quoted above stated that the poor will enter Paradise forty years ahead of other the difference will be five hundred years. The two statements may be reconciled by pointing out tha neither are the rich. As al-Qurtubee suggested (at-Tadhkirah, p.470) the poor vary in the strength of achievements, and the same applies to the rich. If we think in terms of the first of the poor and the Paradise then the time-span will be five hundred years, but if we are thinking of the last of the poor the time span is forty years. And Allaah knows best." (Ibn Katheer, an-Nihaayah, 2/345)

The First Three to Enter Jannah

at-Tirmidhi reported with a hasan isnaad from Abu Hurayrah that the Prophet (saw) said:

"I was shown the first three to enter Paradise: the Shaheed (the martyr); the one who is slave who worships Allaah (swt) with devotion and is faithful and sincere towards his ma. 10/535, attributed to Ahmad, al-Haakim and al-Bayhaqi)

The Sinners Among the Believers Will Enter Paradise

(i) They will be brought forth from Hell and will enter Paradise by means of intercession.

Muslim reports from Abu Sa'eed that the Messenger of Allaah (saw) said:

"The people of Hell will remain there, never dying, and never living. But there are people of their sins, and will be killed therein, so that they become like coals. Permission will be made, and they will be brought forth in groups and spread on rivers of Paradise, and it Paradise, pour water on them. Then they will grow like seeds in the silt left by a flood". [h as-Shafa'ah wa 1khraaj al-Muwahiddin min an-Naar, 1/172]
Muslim also reports from Jaabir ibn 'Abdullaah that the Messenger of Allaah (saw) said, "Some people will be brought out of the Fire, having been burnt all over except for their faces, and they will enter Paradise". [Muslim, Kitaab al-Baab adna Ahl al-Jannah Manzilatan, 1/178]

The people of Paradise will call these people who are brought out of Hell and admitted to Paradise, al-Bukhaari reports from 'Imraan ibn Husayn (ra) that the Prophet (saw) said, "Some people will be brought out of Hell through the intercession of Muhammad (saw). They will enter Paradise and will be known as al-Jahannamiyyoon." Bukhaari, Kitaab ar-Riqaaq, Baab Sifaat al-Jannah wan-Naar, Fath al-Baari, 11/418. They are also mentioned in a hadith narrated from Jaabir by Muslim, 1/179 and al-Bukhaari from Anas, Fath al-Baari 11/416

According to another sahih hadith narrated by Jaabir: "The Prophet (saw) said, "They will be brought out of the Fire through intercession, as if they are tha'areer". I asked, "What are tha'areer?" He said, "Daghabis [snake cucumbers]" Bukhaari, Kitaab ar-Riqaaq, Baab Sifaah al-Jannah wan-Naar, Fath al-Baari, 11/416

Muslim reports a lengthy hadith from Abu Hurayrah, in which the Prophet (saw) describes the Hereafter, and in which he says:
"...When Allaah (swt) has finished judging mankind, and wants to bring whomever He wills out of Hell by His Mercy, He will order angels to bring forth those upon who He wishes to bestow His mercy of the people who never associated anything in worship with Allaah (swt), and who said, "Laa ilaaha illa Allaah". The angels will recognise them in Hell, and will known them by the mark of sujood on their foreheads. The Fire will consume all of a man except the mark of sujood which Allaah (swt) has forbidden the Fire to consume. They will be brought forth, having been burned in the Fire, the water of life will be poured on then, and they will grow like seeds left by silt after a flood". [Saheeh Muslim, Kitaab al-Imaan, Baab ar-Ru'yah, 1/299, no. 182]

It was reported in more than one hadith that Allaah (swt) will bring forth from hell whoever has a dinaar's weight of faith in his heart, or even half a dinaar's weight or an atom's weight. Moreover, people will be brought forth who have nothing at all. Abu Sa'eed al-Khudri reported that the Messenger of Allaah (saw) said, "Allaah (swt) will admit to Paradise and He will admit whomesoever He will by His Mercy. And He will admit the people of Hell, then He will say, "Look for anyone who has the weight of a mustard seed of faith in his heart, and bring him out". Muslim, Kitaab al-Imaan, Baab Ithbat ash-Shafa'ah wa Ikhraaj al-Muwwahhadeen, 1/172

One of the reports about Hell is the hadeeth narrated by Jaabir ibn 'Abdullaah (ra) concerning entering Hell:
"Then intercession will be permitted and they will interceded until whoever says Laa ilaaha illaa Allaah and has a barley grain's worth of goodness in his heart will be brought forth. They will be made to stand in the courtyard of paradise and the people of Paradise will start to pour water over them, until they begin to look like seeds left by silt after a flood. All traces of the Fire will disappear, then he [the person who was brought out] until he is given the equivalent of this world and ten times more". [Sahih Muslim, Baab adna Ahl al-Jannah Manzilatan, 1/178]

Anas ibn Maalik reported that the Prophet (saw) said: "Whoever says Laa ilaaha illaa Allaah and a wheat grains weight of goodness in his heart will be brought out of the Fire. Then whoever says, "Laa ilaahi illaa Allaah and has an atom's-weight of goodness in his heart will be brought out of the Fire". Then whoever says, "Laa ilaahi illaa Allaah and has an atom's-weight of goodness in his heart will be brought out of the Fire". Muslim, Kitaab al-Imaan, Baab adna Ahl al-Jannah Manzilatan, 1/182

There are many hadiths that discuss this matter.

(ii) Opinions of different groups on intercession.

The Khawaarij and Mu'tazilah deny that there will be any intercession to protect those who are guilt ordered to enter Hell from doing so, or to bring forth those who have already entered.

Al-Qurtubee said, "This intercession was denied by the innovators, Khawaarij and Mu'tazilah. Their principles, which are based on what they saw as rational thinking". [1]
These reprehensible ideas which go against the muttawaatir sahih hadith, emerged while the Sahab reports in his sahih from Yazeed al-Faqeer, who says: "I was infatuated with one of the ideas of the of us went out, intending to go for Hajj and then go out to fight the people. We came to Madinah, w 'Abdullaah sitting by a pillar, narrated hadith to the people. When he mentioned al-Jahannamiyyoon Messenger of Allaah, what is this that you are narrating, when Allaah (swt) says: "And who You admit to the Fire, truly You cover with shame." [3:192] and "....everytime they wish to get away therefrom, they will be put back thereto.." [32:20] So what is it that you are saying?" He said, "Have you read the Qur’aan?" I said heard about the [exalted] position of Muhammad [i.e. the position to which Allaah swt would raise that is the honoured position of Muhammad by which Allaah (swt) will bring out whosoever He wishes described as-Siraat [the bridge over Hell] and the passing of the people over it, then said, "I am afr rected exactly what he said. But he said that people would be brought out of Hell after entering would come out looking like the wood of the ebony tree; they would enter one of the rivers of paradise would come out looking [white] like sheets of paper". We turned back and said, "Woe to you! Do you lies about the Messenger of Allaah (saw)? We turned back [from the views of the Khawaarij] and by abandoned this group except for one man". [Sahih Muslim, Kitaab al-Imaan, Baab adna Ahl al-Jannah

The Khawaarij and Mu'tazilah went ot extremes with their claim that people guilty of major sins [al- out of Hell, and that the intercession of those who interceded would be of no avail for them. The Mu extreme by stating that no-one who was guilty of major sins would necessarily enter Hell, and believe would enter Paradise without being punished at all. Both groups are in conflict with the well-known the consensus of the Salaf and Imaams of this ummah. Allaah (swt) has guided Ahl as-Sunnah wal-matter where others have erred, by His Will. They [Ahl as-Sunnah] believe that hose who are guilty the will of Allaah (swt); if He wills, He will forgive them, out of mercy, and If He wills, He will punish them to Paradise by His Mercy.

"Allaah forgives not that partners should be set up with Him, but He forgives anything els pleases." (4:48)

"Say: O My Slaves who have transgressed against themselves [by committing evil deeds and sins] in the Mercy of Allaah, verily Allaah forgives all sins. Truly He is Oft-forgiving, All-Merciful".

Shirk will not be forgiven, but any other sin is subject to the Will of Allaah. The one who repents will aayaat that the Khawaarij use to prove that intercession will not be accepted actually refers to the k in by the mushrikeen. They think that interceding with Allaah is like interceding with rulers or autho person may intercede with someone (an authority figure) without that person's permission and ever displeased with the one on whose half intercession is made. This is not so in the case of Allaah (swt) texts reject this type of intercession, for example:

"Then guard yourselves against A Day when one soul shall not avail another, nor shall intercession be taken from him nor shall anyone be helped [from outside]"

"Then will no intercession of [any] intercessors profit them". (74:48)

"..No intimate friend, nor intercessor will the wrongdoers have, who could be listened to"

Several texts explain that no-one can intercede with Allaah except with His permission and unless H intercessor and the one for whom he seeks to intercede:

"Who is he that can intercede with Him except with His permission?" (2:255)

"and they cannot interceded except for him with whom He is pleased" (21:28)

"And there are many angels in the heavens, whose intercession will avail nothing except a for whom He wills and pleases". (53:26).
Allaah (swt) also says about the angels:

"He knows what is before them and what is behind them, and they cannot intercede except with permission. And they stand in awe for fear of Him". (21:28)

"No intercession can avail in His presence, except for those to whom He has granted permission".

These aayaat reject and refute the kind of intercession believed in by the mushrikeen, i.e. intercession via angels, prophets and righteous people, ("saints"), and confirm only that intercession which takes place with the permission of Allaah (swt) and when He is pleased with both the intercessor and the one on whose behalf he intercedes. Allaah (swt) is not pleased with the kuffaar and mushrikeen. As for the disobedient monotheists, intercessors will interceded for them, but they will not intercede for a mushrik.

[1] al-Khawaarij are a sect that emerged after the battle of Siffin; they denounced 'Alee and Mu'awiya and whoever followed them, as kaafirs, and claimed that whoever was disobedient to Allaah (swt) would remain forever in Hell. The Mu'tazilah are the followers of Waasil ibn 'Ataa' who believe in the Mu'tazili doctrine that whoever commits major sins will end up in Hell, but does not judge their position in this life.

The Last Person to Enter Paradise

The Prophet (saw) has told us about the last man who will be brought out of Hell and into Paradise and the conversation that will take place between him and his Rabb, and the incredibly great honour that Allaah (swt) will bestow upon him. Ibn al-collected all the hadith on this topic in Jami' al-Usool from which we will quote the following:

(i) 'Abdullaah ibn Mas'oud (ra) said:"The Messenger of Allaah (saw) said, "I know the last of the people of Paradise to enter it. It is a man who will walk on all fours." Allaah will say to him, "Go and enter Paradise". So he will come to it and will go back and say, "My Rabb, I found it full". Allaah (swt) will say, "Go and enter Paradise for there you have something like the world and ten times over [or you have something ten times better than the world]." He will say, "Are you making fun of me - or laughing at me - and You are the Sovereign of All?" I ['Abdullaah] saw the Messenger of Allaah (saw) smiling so broadly that his back teeth were visible. He used to say, "The status of the people of Paradise". [al-Bukhaari, 11/386, ar-Riqaaq, at-Tawheed Baab al-qiyamah wa ghayrihim; and Muslim, with slight variation, no. 186, Baab aakhir Ahl al-Jannah, Ch. 10]

(ii) 'Abdullaah ibn Mas'oud reported that the Messenger of Allaah (Saw) said: "The last person to enter Paradise will be a man who will alternately walk, stagger and be touched by the Fire. Once he has passed out of the Fire, he will turn to face it and say, "Blessed be He Who has saved me from you. Allaah (swt) has given me something that He did not give to the earlier and later generations. Then a tree will be raised up for him, and he will say, "O my Rabb, bring me near to this tree so that I may enjoy its shade and drink of its water". Allaah (swt) will say, "Perhaps if I grant you this, you will ask Me for something else?" He will say, "No, O Rabb, ask for anything else". Allaah (swt) will excuse him because he is seeing something that he has no patience to resist, so He will bring him closer and he will enjoy its shade and drink its water. Then another tree will be raised up for him and he will say, "O my Rabb, bring me nearer to this tree so that I may enjoy its shade, then I will not ask you for anything more". Allaah (swt) will say, "O son of Aadam, perhaps if I bring you closer to this tree you will ask for more?" So the man will promise not to ask for any more, and Allaah will excuse him because he has no patience to resist, so He will bring him closer and he will enjoy its shade and a third tree will be raised up at the gate of paradise, and it will be better than the first two. Allaah (swt) will say, "Rabb, bring me closer to this [tree] so that I may enjoy its shade and drink its water, and more." Allaah will say, "O son of Aadam, did you not promise Me that you would not ask Me for anything more?" His Rabb, may He be glorified, will say, "Yes, O Rabb, I will not ask you for anything more." His Rabb is seeing something which he has no patience to resist, so He will bring him closer. Allaah will hear the voices of the people of Paradise, and will say, "O my Rabb, admit me to it." Aadam asks, "What of Aadam what do you want so that you will never ask Me for anything else? Will it please you if I give you the world and as much again?" He will say, "O Rabb, are You making fun of me when You are the Rabb al-Mas'oud smiled and said, "Why do you not ask me why I am smiling?" They asked, "Why do you not ask me why I am smiling?" He said, "Because the Messenger of Allaah (saw) smiled". They asked, "Why are you smiling, O Messenger of Allaah (saw)?" He said, "Because the Rabb of the Worlds will smile when He is asked, "Are You making fun of me when You are the Rabb of the Worlds?" He will say, "I am not making fun of you, but I am able to do whatever I will". [reported by Muslim, no.188 Kitaab al-Imaan, Baab adna Ahl al-Jannah manzilatan]

And in the version of Abu Sa'eed, he adds, "Allaah (swt) will tell him, "ask for such and such" his wishes, Allaah (swt) will say, "You will have them and ten times more". Then he will enter Paradise and his two wives from among al-hoor al-'eeyn will enter and say, "Praise be to Allaah (swt) who has created you for us and created us for you". He will say, "No one has ever been given anything like the provision I have been given." [reported by Muslim, Kitaab al-Imaan, Baab aakhir an-Naar khurujan]

Those Who Will Enter Paradise Before the Day of Resurrection

The first human being ever to enter Paradise was the father of mankind, Aadam (as),

"O Aadam! Dwell you and your wife in the Garden and enjoy [its good things] as you wish or you run into harm and transgression". (7:19)

But Aadam (as) disobeyed Allaah by eating from the tree which Allaah (swt) had forbidden him to eat, so he was sent down from the Garden of Paradise to this world of distress and misery:

"We had already, beforehand, taken the covenant of Aadam, but he forgot, and We found power. When We said to the angels, "Prostrate yourselves to Aadam". They prostrated themselves but Iblees refused. Then we said, "O Aadam! Verily, this is an enemy to you and your wife. So let him not lead you out of the Garden, so that you are landed in misery. There is in it [enough provision] for you not to go hungry nor to go naked, Nor to suffer from thirst nor from the sun's heat". But Shaytaan whispered evil to him, he said, "O Aadam, Shall I lead you to the Tree of Eternity and to a kingdom that never decays?" As a result they both ate of the tree and so their nakedness appeared to them, and they began to sew together leaves from the Garden. Thus did Aadam disobey his Rabb and allow himself to be seduced. But his Rabb chose him out of mercy to him with forgiveness, and gave him guidance. He [Allaah] said, "Get you down, from the Garden, with enmity one to another." [20:115-123]

The Messenger of Allaah (saw) also saw Paradise. al-Bukhaari reports from 'Imraan ibn Husayn that have seen Paradise and I saw that its inhabitants are the poor." [Sahih Bukhaari, Kitaab Ba-Sifaat al-jannah, Fatḥ al-Baari, 6/318]

Among those who will enter paradise before the Day of Resurrection are ash-Shuhadaa [the martyrs] said, "We asked Abdullah ibn Mas'oud about this aayah:

"Think not of those who are slain in Allaah's way as dead. Nay, they live, finding their sus their Rabb" (3:169)

He said, "We asked about that too, and the Prophet (saw) said, "Their souls are in the bellies of lights suspended from the Throne. They wander about in Paradise wherever they wish, those lights. Their Rabb will suddenly come to them and ask, "Do you desire anything?" They could we wish for when we can wander wherever we wish in Paradise?" Allaah will come
When they see that they will not be allowed to give no reply, they will say, "O Rabb, would that we could return our bodies and be killed for Your sake one more time." When Allaah (swt) sees that they have will be left alone"". (Mishkaat al-Masaabeeh, 2/351, no. 3804)

Whoever dies will be shown his position in Paradise or Hell morning and evening. Muslim reports fro Messenger of Allaah (saw) said:

"When any one of you dies, he will be shown his position morning and evening. If he is in Paradise, then he will be one of the people of Paradise, and if he is one of the people of Hell and he will be told, "This is your position until Allaah (swt) resurrects you at Resurrection"". [Muslim, see Muslim bi sharh an-Nawawi, 17/300]

Paradise: There is Nothing Like It

The delights of Paradise surpass the imagination and defy description. They are like nothing known! And matter how advanced we may become, what we achieve is as nothing in comparison with the joys of Paradise. The Sahabah asked the Prophet (saw) about the buildings of Paradise and he replied with a wonderful description:

"Bricks of gold and silver, and mortar of fragrant musk, pebbles of pearl and sapphire, and soil of saffron. Whoever enters it is filled with joy and will never feel miserable; he will live there forever and never wear out and their youth will never fade." [Ahmad, at-Tirmidhi, ad-Daarimee, Mishkaat al-Halal]

Allaah (swt) indeed spoke the truth when He (swt) said: "And when you look there [in Paradise that cannot be imagined]. and a great dominion" [76:20]

What Allaah (swt) has kept hidden from us the delights of Paradise is beyond our ability to comprehend. From Abu Hurayrah (ra) that the Prophet (saw) said that Allaah (swt) said, "I have prepared for My slaves what no eye has seen, no ear has heard and no human heart can imagine". Recite if you wish, "No person knows of the joy as a reward for what they used to do." (32:17).

In the version reported by Muslim from Abu Hurayrah, there is the addition, "Never mind what Allaah has not told you is EVEN greater".

The Gates of Paradise

Paradise has gates through which the believers, like the angels, will enter:

"'Adn [Eden - everlasting gardens] of Paradise, whose doors will open for them" [38:50]

"...And angels shall enter unto them from every gate [with the salutation]: "Peace be unto persevered in patience! How excellent is the final home!" [13:23-24]

Allaah (swt) has told us that these gates will be opened when the believers reach them, and they will enter with greetings of peace:

"...til, when they reach it, its gates will be opened, and its keepers will say, "Salaamun 'al well, so enter here to abide therein." [39:73]
The number of gates in Paradise is eight, one of which is called ar-Rayyaan, which is exclusively for those who fast. al-Bukhaari and Muslim report from Sahl ibn Sa’eedi that the Messenger of Allaah (saw) said, "In Paradise there are eight gates, one of which is called ar-Rayyaan. No one will enter it when they have entered it will be locked behind them and no one else will enter it". [Ibn Katheer, an-Nihaayah, 2/214]

In addition to ar-Rayyaan, there are also gates for those who pray much, those who give in charity and those who fight in jihaad; Abu Hurayrah (ra) reported that the Prophet (saw) said, "Whoever spends a pair of anything for the sake of Allaah (swt) will be called from the gates of Paradise, and Paradise has eight gates. Whoever used to pray regularly and properly will be called from the gate of prayer; whoever used to give in charity will be called from the gate of charity; whoever used to fight in jihaad will be called from the gate of jihaad, and whoever used to fast regularly will be called from the gate of fasting". [saheeh, Ibn Katheer, an-Nihaayah, 2/214]

The Prophet (saw) also said, "Whoever performs wudhu and does it properly, then lifts his gaze to the sky and says, 'Ashhadu an laa ilaaha ila Allaah, wahdahu laa shareeka lah, wa ashhadu anna Muhammadan 'abdahu wa rasuluhu, the eight gates of Paradise will be opened to him, and he will enter it through whichever one he wishes". [Ahmad and others on the authority of 'Umar, an-Nihaayah, 2/219]

The Prophet (saw) told us that there is a gate, which is only for those who will not be called to account: this is the right of Paradise. Everyone else will enter Paradise with the rest of the nations through the other gates. In Shafaa'ah (intercession) whose authenticity is agreed upon, Abu Hurayrah reported that the Prophet say, "O Muhammad, admit those of your ummah who do not need to be brought to account through the right gate and the others will enter through the other gates like the rest of the people.""

In the same hadith, the Prophet (saw) described the width of the gates of Paradise:

"By the One in Whose Hand is the soul of Muhammad, the distance between two panels or between the two gateposts, is liek the distance between Makkaah and Hajar, or between ." [Ahmad in al-Hilyah, from Haakim ibn Mu'aawiyah from Mu'aawiyah, sahih; see also Muslim and Ahmad on the authority of 'Utbah ibn Ghazwaan]

The Prophet (saw) has told us that the gates of Paradise are opened during Ramadhaan. al-Bukhaari from Abu Hurayrah that the Messenger of Allaah (saw) said, "When the month of Ramadhan come are opened".

In some reports it states that the distance between the two gate-panels when they are open is that of a forty year journey.

The Messenger of Allaah (saw) said, "The distance between the two gate-panels of one of the gates of Paradise is the distance of forty-year's walking, but there will come a time when it is very crowded". [Ahmad in al-Hilyah, from Haakim ibn Mu'aawiyah from Mu'aawiyah, sahih; see also Muslim and Ahmad on the authority of 'Utbah ibn Ghazwaan]

And in the narration of at-Tabaraani reported in al-Mu'jam al-Kabeer from 'Abdullaah ibn Salaam, it will become as crowded as a drinking-trough surrounded by thirsty camels".

The Levels of Paradise

(i) Evidence that Paradise has various levels and its inhabitants will be in different categories

Paradise consists of levels, some of which are above others, and its people will be of differing levels their position in Paradise. Allaah (swt) says:
"Whoever wishes for the quick passing [transitory enjoyment of this world] we readily grant him what We will for whom We like. Then afterwards, We have appointed for him Hell, he will burn therein disregarding from Allaah's Mercy]. And whoever desires the Hereafter and strives for it, with the [i.e. righteous deeds of obedience to Allaah] while he is a believer [in tawheed] then such striving shall be appreciated, thanked and rewarded [by Allaah]. To each - these as well the bounties of your Rabb. And the bounties of your Rabb can never be forbidden" [17:18-20]

Allaah (swt) explains how He gives more of His bounty in this world or the next, as He (swt) wills, a [forbidden] from either the righteous or the sinful. Then He (swt) says:

"See how We prefer one above another [in this world] and verily, the Hereafter will be greater in preference." [17:21]

Allaah (swt) explains that the differences between people in the Hereafter will be greater than the differences in this life, and the difference between the levels or ranks of the Hereafter is greater than the difference in the life as He does between the rest of His believing slaves. He (swt) also differentiates between His Prophets as He does between the rest of His believing slaves. Allaah (swt) says:

"Those Messengers! We preferred some to others; to some of them Allaah spoke [directly to them]; others He raised to degrees of [honour]; and to 'Eesa the son of Maryam, We gave clear proofs and evidence, Ruh al-Quddus [Jibreel]." [2:253]

and

"...And indeed We have preferred some of the Prophets above others." [17:55]

Muslim reports from Abu Hurayrah (ra) that the Prophet (saw) said "A strong believer is better and more beloved to Allaah than a weak one although both are good..." and al-Bukhaari and Muslim report from Abū Aas that the Prophet (saw) said, "If a judge seeks to form an independent judgement [ijtihaad] and is correct, he will have two rewards; if he seeks to form an independent judgement and is wrong, he will have one reward."

Allaah, subhaanahu wa ta'ala, says:

"Not equal among you are those who spent and fought before the conquest [of Makkah] [and did so later]. Such are higher in degree that those who spent and fought afterwards. But to all, Allaah has promised the best [reward]." [57:10]

And

"Not equal are those of the believers who sit [at home] except those who are disabled [blind, lame, etc] and those who strive hard and fight in the Cause of Allaah with their wealth and their lives. Allaah has preferred in grades those who strive hard and fight with their wealth and their lives above those who sit [at home] by a huge reward; degrees of [higher] grades from Him, and Forgiveness and Mercy. And Allaah is Ever Oft-Forgiving, All-Merciful". [4:95-96]

"Do you consider the providing of drinking water to the pilgrims and the maintenance of al-Makkah as equal to the worth of those who believe in Allaah and the Last Day, and strive in the Cause of Allaah? They are not equal before Allaah. And Allaah guides not those people who are Dhaalimoon. Those who believed and emigrated and strove hard and fought in Allaah's Cause with their wealth and their lives are far higher in degree with Allaah. They are the successful. Their Rabb gives them glad tidings of a Mercy from Him, and that He is pleased and of Gardens for them wherein are everlasting delights. Verily, with Allaah is a great reward". [9:19-22]

"Is one who is obedient to Allaah prostrating himself or standing [in prayer] during the hours of the night, fearing Allaah, and one who is disobedient to Allaah? We have appointed for him Hell, he will burn therein disgraced and rejected, away from Allaah's Mercy. And whoever desires the Hereafter and strives for it, with the necessary effort due to it, [i.e. righteous deeds of obedience to Allaah] while he is a believer [in tawheed] then such striving shall be appreciated, thanked and rewarded [by Allaah]. To each - these as well the bounties of your Rabb. And the bounties of your Rabb can never be forbidden" [17:18-20]

Allaah (swt) explains how He gives more of His bounty in this world or the next, as He (swt) wills, a [forbidden] from either the righteous or the sinful. Then He (swt) says:

"See how We prefer one above another [in this world] and verily, the Hereafter will be greater in preference." [17:21]

Allaah (swt) explains that the differences between people in the Hereafter will be greater than the differences in this life, and the difference between the levels or ranks of the Hereafter is greater than the difference in the life as He does between the rest of His believing slaves. He (swt) also differentiates between His Prophets as He does between the rest of His believing slaves. Allaah (swt) says:

"Do you consider the providing of drinking water to the pilgrims and the maintenance of al-Makkah as equal to the worth of those who believe in Allaah and the Last Day, and strive in the Cause of Allaah? To each - these as well the bounties of your Rabb. And the bounties of your Rabb can never be forbidden" [17:18-20] the Hereafter and hoping for the mercy of his Rabb [like one who disbelievers]? Say: "Are those who know not?" It is only men of understanding who will remember [i.e. learn a lesson from Allaah's Signs]" [39:9]

The Prophet (saw) said, narrated by al-Bukhaari from Abu Hurayrah, "...Paradise has one hundred reserved for the mujaahideen who fight in His Cause and the distance between each of these is like the distance between the heavens and the earth. So when you ask Allaah for something, ask for the best and highest part of Paradise. Above it is the throne of the Most Merciful, and from it the rivers of Paradise". [al-Bukhaari in as-Saheeh, Kitaab al-Jihaad, Baab Darajat al-Mujaahideen fi Sabeelillaah] al-Bukhaari also reports from Anas that Umm Harithah came to the Prophet (saw) when her son Harithah had been martyred at Badr, killed by an arrow. She said, "O Messenger of Allaah, you know how dear Harithah was to my heart. If he is in Paradise, I will not weep over him, but if he is not there, you will see what I do". He said, "Is there only one Paradise? There are many Paradises and he is in al-Firdaws, the Highest." [Saheeh al-Bukhaari, Kitaab ar-Riqaaq, Baab Sifaat al-Fath al-Baari, 11/418]

Differences between the Levels of al-Jannah

The Prophet (saw) explained that the people will be in different levels in Paradise according to their status. al-Muslim report from Abu Sa’eed al-Khudri that the Prophet (saw) said, "The people of Paradise will dwelling in the chambers above them in the same way that people look at a brilliant star shining far away on the horizon, in the East or West, because of their superiority [in reward] over them." The people said, "Allaah, are these the dwellings of the Prophets which no one else can attain?" He replied, "No by the One in Whose Hand is my soul, they are for the men who believed in Allaah, and also in His Messengers." [Saheeh al-Khalq, Baab Sifaat al-Jannah wan-Naar, Fath al-Baari, 6/220; Saheeh Muslim Kitaab al-Jannah, Baab tara'i Ahl al-Ghuraf, 4/2177, no. 2831]

Ahmad, at-Tirmidhi, Ibn Maajah and Ibn Hibbaan reported from Abu Sa’eed that the Prophet (saw) said, "higher levels will be seen by those below them as if they were looking at a star rising on the horizon. ‘Umar will be among them; what good people they are!" [Saheeh al-Jaami' as-Sagheer, 2/187]

al-Qurtubee said, "Know that these chambers will differ in height, and appearance according to the deeds of their occupants. Some of them will be higher than others. When the Prophet (saw) said, "No by the One is Whose Hand is my soul, they are for the men who believed in Allaah (swt) and also in His Messengers; he did not mention deeds or anything else. It is because of their faith and belief in the Messengers, with no doubts or questions. Otherwise, how could these chambers be reached by the faith of the ordinary people? If that were the case, then all the Muslims would reach these highest levels, and that is impossible."

As Allaah says, "Those will be rewarded with the highest place [in Paradise] because of their patience.." This patience often involved self sacrifice and being steadfast for the sake of Allaah, focussing on His attributes of al-Muqarraboon, as Allaah (swt) says:

"And it is not your wealth, nor your children that bring you nearer to Us, but only he [will] and does righteous deeds; for such there will be twofold reward for what they did, and the dwellings [Paradise] in peace and security". [34:37]

Here Allaah mentioned the highest chambers or dwellings of Paradise and states that they will not be for children, but through faith and righteous deeds then they will have a double reward. Their place tells you that this is faith that gives one tranquility and certainty, and fills the heart. A person who has faith has no doubts or questions. If he does a good deed, he does it for the sake of Allaah, and not for the sake of anything else, because belief in the Messengers, with no doubts or questions. Otherwise, how could these chambers be reached by the faith of the ordinary people? If that were the case, then all the Muslims would reach these highest levels, and that is impossible."

As Allaah says, "...and it is not your wealth, nor your children that bring you nearer to Us, but only he who has much imaan is very great and who is content and has no doubts, no matter what his circumstances. The faith and deeds of the one whose good deeds are contaminated are not like that, so his status will be lower" [al-Qurtubee, at-Tadhkirah, p. 464]

The inhabitants of the highest levels of Paradise will enjoy greater pleasures than the people below them.
promised two gardens to those who fear Him:

"But for him who fears the standing before his Rabb, there will be two gardens" [55:46]

Allaah (swt) described these Gardens, then He (swt) said,

"And besides these two, there are two other Gardens [i.e. in Paradise]" [55:62]

These two gardens will be lower in status. Whoever thinks of the characteristics of the two gardens second will realise that they are lower than the first two, because the first two are for the muqarraboon [those who are close to Allaah], whilst the second two are for ashaab al-yameen [those of the Right Hand] as Ibn 'Abbaas a [at-Tadhkirah, 440].

al-Qurtubee said:

"When He described the two pairs of gardens, He referred to the difference between them. Describir them [both] will be two springs flowing free" [55:50] whereas in the second two "...will be two springs gushing forth water" [55:66]. Gushing or bubbling water is not the same as flowing water; bubbling is of a lesser degree.

Allaah says that in the first two gardens "..will be every kind of fruit in pairs" [55:52] - all kinds moist and dry; this is a general statement. But in the second two gardens "..will be fruits, dates and pomegranates" [55:68] Allaah does not say that there would be every kind of fruit in pairs.

In the first two gardens the people will be "reclining upon the couches lined with silk brocade" two gardens they will be "reclining on green cushions and rich beautiful mattresses" [55:76] embroidered, and there is no doubt that a couch lined with silk brocade is superior to an embroidered.

The Hoor al-'Eeyn in the first two gardens are described as

"like rubies and coral" [55:58] whilst those in the second two gardens are described as

"fair [wives] good and beautiful" [55:70]

not everything that is beautiful is as beautiful as rubies and coral.

The first two gardens are described as

"with spreading branches" [55:48]

while the second two are

"dark green [in colour]" [55:64]

so intensely green that it is almost black. The first two clearly have many bushes and trees, whilst t simply as being green" [at-Tadhkirah, p. 440]

al-Bukhaari and Muslim report from Abu Musa al-Ash'ari that the Messenger of Allaah (saw) said, "Two gardens of silver, their vessels and everything in them and two gardens of gold, their vessels and everything in t nothing between the people and their seeing Allaah, except the garment of pride over His 'Adn" [ Jaami' al-Usool, 10/498, no. 8029] Allaah (swt) described the drink of the pious in Paradise:

"Verily the Abraar [pious, who fear Allaah and avoid evil] will drink a cup [of wine] mixed in Paradise called Kafoor" [76:5]

"And they will be given to drink there a cup [of wine] mixed with Zanjabeel [ginger]" [76:17]

It seems - and Allaah Knows Best - that this is for Ahl al-Yameen. Elsewhere Allaah (swt) says

"It [that wine] will be mixed with tasneem, A spring whereof drink those nearest to Allaah"

Ahl al-Yameen will drink something mixed with Tasneem, whilst al-Muqarraboon will drink a pure drink of Tasneem. Tasneem is the name of a spring in Paradise.

The Highest and Lowest Positions in Paradise

Muslim reports from al-Mugheerah ibn Shu'bah that the Messenger of Allaah (saw) said:

"Musaa asked his Rabb, "Who will have the lowest position in Paradise?" Allaah said, "A man who will come after the people of Paradise have entered Paradise. He will be told, "Enter Paradise", and he will say, "O my Rabb, I have already taken their places." He will be asked, "Will you not be content if you could have the equivalent of a kingdom on earth?" He will say, "Yes, my Rabb". So he will be told, "You will have that and as much again, and as much again, and as much again." On the fifth time, he will say, "I am content with that"."

"Musaa asked, "My Rabb, who will have the highest status in Paradise?" Allaah said, "They are those whom I choose. I establish their honour with My own hand and then set a seal over it, [and they will be blessed with Bounties] which no eye has seen, no ear has heard and no human mind can comprehend." This confirmed by the words of Allaah, may He be glorified and exalted, "No person knows what is kept hidden for them of joy as a reward for what they used to do" [32:17]

The Highest Position in Paradise

The highest position in Paradise which will be attained by only one person is called al-Waseelah. It is by the Chosen Prophet, the best of Allaah's creation, our Prophet Muhammad (saw).

This is narrated in a hadith narrated by al-Bukhaari from Jaabir ibn 'Abdullaah according to which the Prophet (saw) said,

"Whoever says, when he hears the call to prayer, "Allahumma Rabba hadhihi-da'wati-tammah, wasqaa'imah, aati muhammadan al-waseelata wal-fadeelata, wab'aththu maqaaman mahmoodan alladhi wa'adtahu [O Allaah, Lord of this Perfect Call and the Prayer to be Offered, grant Muhammad al-Waseelah Paradise - and also the eminence and resurrect him to the praised position You have promised] will be granted on the Day of Resurrection."

Muslim reported that 'Abdullaah ibn 'Amr al-'Aas said, "I heard the Messenger of Allaah (saw) say, 'If a muaddhin call, say what he says, then send blessings on me, for whoever sends blessings return it to him tenfold. Then ask Allaah to grant me al-Waseelah, for whoever asks Allaah Waseelah intercession will be granted for him.'"

The Sahaabah asked the Prophet (saw) "What is al-Waseelah?" He said, "It is the highest level of man will reach, and I hope that I will be the one". [Ahmad from Abu Hurayrah]

The Messenger of Allaah (saw) said, "al-Waseelah is a rank above which there is no other in t Ask Allaah (swt) to grant me al-Waseelah” [Ahmad from Abu Sa’eed, See Ibn Katheer, an-Nihaayah, 2/2332]

Those Who Take their Positions in the Highest Levels

Among those who will occupy the highest levels in Paradise are the shuhaadaa, the best of whom are those who fight in the front ranks and never turn away until they are killed. Ahmad and at-Tabaraani report with a saheeh isnaad that the Prophet (saw) said, "The best of the Shuhaadaa are those who fight in the first rank, facesaway until they are killed. They will have the pleasure of occupying the highest dwellings in Paradise. Your Rabb will smile at them, and whenever your Rabb smiles upon any of His Slaves, that person will not be brought to account". [Musnad Ahmad, Kitaab az-Zuhd, Baab al-Ihsaan ila al-armila wal-masaakeen wal-yateem, 2/2286, no. 2982]

The one who helps widows and the destitute will have the status of a mujaahid in Paradise. Muslim reports from the Prophet (saw) said, "The one who helps widows and the destitute is like one who fights in jihaad for the sake of Allaah (swt)." I [the narrator] think he said, "And he is like the one who stands all night in prayer and never sleeps, and like the one who fasts continually and never breaks his fast". [Saheeh Muslim, Kitaab az-armilah wal-miskeen wal-yateem, 2/2286, no. 2982]

The one who sponsors an orphan will be close to the Prophet (saw) in Paradise. Muslim reports from the Messenger of Allaah (saw) said, "The one who sponsors an orphan, whether from his own wealth or from the orphan's wealth, I and he will be like these two in Paradise," - and Maalik [the narrator] gestured with his forefinger and middle finger. [Saheeh Muslim, Kitaab al-Imaan, Baab al-Israa', 1/150, no. 164; al-Bukhaari reports the same from Anas ibn Maalik, Jaami' al-Usool, 10/507, narrated bt Abu Awanah, al-Isma'eelee and at-Tabaranee in as-Sagheer]

Another of the rivers of Paradise is al-Kawthar, which Allaah has given to His Messenger (saw):

"Verily We have granted you [O Muhammad] al-Kawthar [a river in Paradise]" [108:1]

The Prophet (saw) saw it and told us about it. al-Bukhaari reported from Anas ibn Maalik that the Pr

Hudbah [one of the narrators] was not sure if he said tib [scent] or teen [mud]. [Sahih al-Bukhaari, Hawd, Fath al-Baari, 11/464]

Ibn 'Abbaas explained, "al-Kawthar means the abundant blessings which Allaah has bestowed upon Abu Bishr said to Sa'eeed ibn Jaabir, who reported this comment from Ibn 'Abbaas, "There are people in Paradise". Sa'eeed said, "The river in Paradise is one of the blessings that Allaah has bestowed upon Kitaab ar-Riqaaq, Baab fil-Hawd, Fath al-Baari, 11/463] al-Haafidh ibn Katheer compiled a number of hadith [an-Nihaayah, 2/246] in which the Prophet (saw) spoke about al such as the report narrated by Muslim from Anas, which states that when the aayah "Verily We ha Kawthar" [108] was revealed, the Prophet (saw) said, "Do you know what al-Kawthar is?" The Messenger know best'. He said, "It is a river that Allaah (swt) has promised me and in it is n

Also narrated by Ahmad from Anas, the Prophet (saw) said, "It is a river that Allaah (swt) has g mud is musk and its water is whiter than milk, and sweeter than honey. Birds with necks drink from it."

Allaah (swt) says:

"The description of Paradise which the Muttaqoon have been promised is that in it are rivers, smell of which are not changed; rivers of milk of which the taste never changes; rivers of who drink; and rivers of clarified honey [clear and pure].." [47:15]

at-Tirmidhi reports, with a sahih isnaad, from Haakim ibn Mu'aawiyah that the Messenger of Allaah th there is a sea of honey, a sea of wine, a sea of milk and a sea of water, and the rivers flow al-Usool, 10/508]

He also told us of a river called Baariq, which flows by the gate of Paradise. During the period of al-l death and the day of Judgement] the shuhadaa are beside this river:

Ibn 'Abbaas narrated that the Messenger of Allaah (saw) said, "The shuhadaa [martyrs] are in a river of Baariq, near the gate of Paradise, from which provision comes to them morning and evening."

Jaami' as-Sagheer, 3/235, no. 3636

The Springs of Paradise

In Paradise there are many springs that provide drinks of different tastes:

"Truly al-Muttaqoon [the pious and righteous] will be amidst Gardens and Water-springs"

"Verily al-Muttaqoon shall be amidst shades and springs." [77:41]

Concerning the two Gardens which Allaah (swt) has prepared for those who fear their Rabb, Allaah (swt) will be two springs flowing [free]." [55:50]

And concerning the two Gardens beneath them, He said,

"In them [both] will be two springs gushing forth water." [55:66]

In Paradise there are two springs from which al-Muqarraboon will drink pure and undiluted, whilst the Abraar will drink their water mixed with something else. The first is the spring of Kafoor, as Allaah (swt) says:

"Verily the Abraar [the pious, those who fear Allaah and avoid evil], shall drink a cup [of wine] mixed with water from a spring in Paradise called Kafoor, A spring wherefrom the slaves of Allaah will drink, causing it to gush forth abundantly." [76:5-6]

He tells us that the pious will drink from it mixed with something else, whilst those close to Allaah will drink it pure and undiluted.

The second spring is of Tasneem, as Allaah (swt) says:

"Verily al-Abraar will be in delight [Paradise], On thrones, looking [at all things]. You will drink the brightness of delight. They will be given to drink pure sealed wine, the last thereof [that wine] will be mixed with Tasneem, a spring whereof drink those nearest to Allaah." [83:22]

Another of the springs of Paradise is called al-Salsabeel as Allaah (swt) says:

"And they will be given to drink there a cup [of wine] mixed with zanjabeel [ginger], a sp Salsabeel". [76:17-18]

This is probably the same spring as that mentioned above, i.e. Kafoor.

The Palaces and Tents of Paradise

Allaah (swt) will build good and beautiful dwellings for the people of Paradise:

"and beautiful mansions in Gardens of everlasting bliss" [9:72]

In some places in the Qur'aan, Allaah (swt) described these dwellings as ghurafaat [chambers or dw

"and they will reside in the high dwellings [Paradise] in peace and security." [34:37]
The reward for the slaves of the all-Merciful will be:

"Those will be rewarded with the highest place [in Paradise] because of their patience. Their greeting is peace and they say the word of respect" [25:75]

Allaah (swt) described these Ghurafaat:

"But for those who fear Allaah and keep their duty to their Rabb [Allaah], for them are built lofty rooms, one above the other, under which rivers flow. [This is] the Promise of Allaah, and Allaah does not fail in His Promise."

Ibn Katheer said: "Allaah has told us about His blessed slaves who will have rooms [or dwellings] in palaces, "lofty rooms, one above another - story upon story, well-constructed, strong and decorated."

Allaah (swt) has told us that there are tents or pavilions in Paradise:

"Houris [beautiful, fair females] restrained in pavilions" [55:72]

These pavilions are wondrous tents, made of pearls, each one is made from a single, hollowed-out pearl; sixty miles high; according to some reports they are sixty miles wide. al-Bukhaari reports from 'Abdullaah ibn C from 'Ali (ra) the Prophet (saw) said:

"In Paradise there are dwellings whose inside can be seen from the outside, and the outs. Allaah [swt] has prepared them for those who feed the hungry, and speak softly and gent pray at night whilst the people are asleep." [Saheeh al-Jaami' as-Sagheer, 2/220, no. 2119]

Allaah (swt) has told us that there are tents or pavilions in Paradise:

"Houris [beautiful, fair females] restrained in pavilions" [55:72]

The Prophet (saw) has told us of the way in which the believer may acquire more than one house in Paradise:

Ahmad reports with a saheeh isnaad from Ibn 'Abbaas that the Prophet (saw) said, "Whoever build if it is as small as the nestling-place scratched out by the same grouse for its eggs, Allaah him in Paradise". [Saheeh al-Jaami' as-Sagheer, 5/265, no. 6005]
Ahmad, al-Bukhaari, Muslim, at-Tirmidhi and Ibn Maajah report from 'Uthmaan that the Messenger of Allah (saw) said, "Whoever builds a mosque for Allah (swt), Allah (swt) will build something similar for him.

Muhammad, Abu Dawud, Ahmad, an-Nasaa'ee, and Ibn Maajah report from Umm Habeebah that the Messenger of Allah (saw) said, "Whoever prays twelve extra [supererogatory] rak'ahs every day, Allah (swt) will build for him a house in Paradise." [Saheeh al-Jaami', 5/316, no. 6234] al-Qurtubee said, "The scholars said there is no night and day in Paradise, rather they will be in eternal everlasting light. They will know when night comes because curtains or screens will be put up and doors will be closed, and they will know when day comes because the curtains or screens will be taken down and the doors will be opened. This was mentioned by Abul Jawzee" [al-Qurtubee, at-Tadhkirah, p. 504]

The Light of Paradise

Ibn Katheer in his commentary on the aayah: "And they will have therein their sustenance, morning and evening. Such is the Paradise, which We shall give as an inheritance to those of Our slave who have been al-righteous" [19:62-63] said, "This means something approximate to the times of day and night, it does not mean that there will be a day and night there. They will know the passing of time by the changes in the light" [Tafseer Ibn Katheer, 4/471]

On the same subject, Ibn Taymiyyah said, "There is no sun and moon in Paradise, and no day or night, but they will know morning and evening from a light that shines from the direction of the Throne" [Majmu' Fataawa Shaikh al-

The Fragrance of Paradise

Paradise is filled with a pure and beautiful fragrance, which the believers will be able to discern from a great distance. Ahmad, an-Nasaa'ee, Ibn Maajah and al-Haakim report with a saheeh isnaad that the Messenger (saw) said, "Whoever kills a man of Ahl-ad-Dhimmah [non-Muslims living under Islamic rule] will not smell the fragrance of Paradise, even though its fragrance can be discerned from a distance of forty years' travelling." [Saheeh al-Jaami as-Sagheer, 5/235, no. 6324 and 5/337 no. 6333]

The Trees and Fruits of Paradise

(i) Its trees and fruits are of many kinds and everlasting

The trees of Paradise are abundant and good and of many kinds. Allah has told us that there are grapevines, datepalms and pomegranate trees in Paradise, as well as lotus trees and acacia trees:

"Verily, for the muttaqoon, there will be a success [Paradise], gardens and grape yards" [55:68]

"in them [both will be fruits, date palms and pomegranates" [55:52]

"And those on the Right Hand - who will be those on the Right Hand? [They will be] among the lotus trees with fruits piled one above another, In shade long-extended, By water flowing constantly, And fruit in plenty" [56:27-32]

The lotus tree [ad-Sidr] is a thorny plant, but in Paradise it will be thornless. at-Talh [acacia tree] is 'idah [a fair sized thorny shrub], but in Paradise its fruits will be ready to eat, with no effort required.

What Allah (swt) has told us about the trees of Paradise is only a small part of what Paradise contains:

"In them [both] will be every kind of fruit in pairs" [55:52]
Because of its abundance, people will be able to leave what they want and take what they want:

"...and therein they will call for fruits in abundance and drinks". [38:51]

"With fruits, any that they may select" [56:20]

"Verily the Muttaqoon shall be amidst shades and springs, And fruits - such as they desire"

In short, Paradise contains all kinds of fruits and other joys that one's heart could desire:

"Trays of gold and cups will be passed round them, [there will be] therein all that one's soul could desire, all that the eyes could delight in, and you will abide therein forever" [43:71]

Ibn Katheer spoke very cleverly about the greatness of the fruits of Paradise, and concluded that by Allaah (swt) conveyed the abundance and greatness of those fruits. He said, "The lotus tree [as-Sid. other than some insignificant, inferior fruits, and it is thorny. The acacia tree [at-Talh] is only used for fruit] but in Paradise there will be many of them, growing beautifully, and bearing such abundant fruit seventy kinds of taste and colour that resemble one another.

So how do you think the trees that are grown for their fruit on earth will be in Paradise, like apple trees, date palms, grape vines and so on? How do you think the flowers will be? In short, there will be what no eye has seen, no ear has heard and no human heart can comprehend and we ask Allaah (swt) to grant us some of this, by His Grace" [an-Nihaayah, 2/262]

The trees of Paradise bear fruit constantly, unlike the trees of this world, which bear fruit only at certain times or seasons. The trees of Paradise always bear fruit and offer shade:

"The description of the Paradise which the Muttaqoon have been promised! -Underneath its provision is eternal and so is its shade" [13:55]

"And fruit in plenty, whose season is not limited, and their supply will not be cut off" [56:32]

The supply is continuous and the people of Paradise are never denied. One of the delights that the people of Paradise will enjoy is finding that its fruits are similar in appearance, but different in taste:

"Everytime they will be provided with a fruit therefrom, they will say, "This is what we were provided with before", and they will be given things in resemblance [i.e. in the same form but different in taste]

The trees of Paradise are of rich and lush foliage –

"With spreading branches" [55:48] and they are intensely green –

"dark and green [in colour]" [55:64]

The intensity of the colour is because of the density of the trees in Paradise.

The fruits of the trees will be low-hanging, in easy reach of the people of Paradise:

"Reclining upon the couches lined with silk brocade, and the fruits of the two Gardens will..."
"..and We shall admit them to shades wide and ever deepening". [4:57]

"In shade long-extended" [56:30]

(ii) Some of the trees of Paradise

The Messenger of Allaah (saw) told us wondrous things about some of the trees of paradise which ir amazingly huge that trying to imagine them makes one's head spin. We shall quote some examples

(a) A tree whose shadow it takes one hundred years to cross.

This is a huge tree, whose true size is known only to its Creator. The Prophet (saw) conveyed an im said that "In Paradise there is a tree which the rider of a swift horse would need one hund

Jannah Shajarah, 2/2176, no. 2828, from Abu Sa'eed al-Khudri; see also al-Bukhaari, Kitaab Bid' al al-Jannah, Fath al-Baari, 6/319]

And in the narration of Muslim from Abu Hurayrah and Sahl ibn Sa'd it is said that "In Paradise the shade a traveller could travel for one hundred years and not reach the edge of it" [Muslim, Jannah Shajarah Yaseer al-Raakib fi dhiliha mi'ah 'aam, hadith no 2826, 2827]

(b) Sidrat al-Muntaha

There is a tree in paradise which Allaah has mentioned in a clear and unambiguous revelation. Allaa Prophet Muhammad (saw) saw Jibreel in the form in which Allaah created him at that tree. He also t something known only to Allaah (swt) when the Prophet (saw) saw it:

"And indeed he [Muhammad] saw him [Jibreel] at a second descent [i.e. a second time] n Lote-tree of the utmost boundary beyond which none may pass] near it is the Paradise of the lote-tree which covered it! The sight of [Muhammad] turned not aside [right or left], nor did it transgress beyond [the] limit [ordained for it]" [53:13-18]

The Prophet (saw) told us about what he saw of this tree:

"Then I was taken up until I reached Sidrat al-Muntaha and I saw its Nabq [fruits] which Hajar, its leaves were like the ears of elephants, and one of these leaves could cover the

(c) Tooba.

This is a huge tree which produces the fabric for the clothing of the people of Paradise. Ahmad Ibn J

Narrated by Ahmad from 'Abdullaah ibn 'Amr, who said, "A man came to the Prophet (saw) and asked tell us about the clothes of the people of Paradise; are they created or are they woven?" Some of the Message of Allaah (saw) said, "Why are you laughing? Because someone who does not kno does know?" Then he turned and asked, "Where is the one who asked the question?" The man said Allaah”. He said, "No, they are produced by the fruits of Paradise" three times" [Silsilat al-Hadith as-Saheehah, 3/407, no. 1420]

(iii) The best aromatic plants in Paradise

Allaah told us that in Paradise there are aromatic plants:

"[there is for him] rest and provision [Rayhaan - literally - sweet smelling plants, here us complete satisfaction and delight]" [56:89]

In Mu'jam at-Tabaraanee al-Kabeer, a report from 'Abdullaah ibn 'Amr whose isnaad is saheeh according to the conditions of al-Bukhaari and Muslim states that the Prophet (saw) said, "The best of the aromatic plants of Paradise is henna." [at-Tirmidhi, al-Haakim and Abu Na'eem reported from Ibn Mas'oud that the Messenger of Allaah (saw) said: I met Ibraaheem...and he said, "O Muhammaad, tell your ummah that Paradise is a land whose soil is good and its water is sweet. It is an empty plain, which will be planted with SubhaanAllaah, al-Hamdu 'l Akbar" [Saheeh al-Jaami' as-Sagheer, 5/34, no. 5028]

(iv) The trunks of the trees of Paradise are of Gold

One of the wondrous things that the Messenger of Allaah (saw) told us is that the trunks of the trees of Paradise have a tight covering of gold:

"There is no tree in Paradise that does not have a trunk made of gold" [Ibn Hibbaan, at-Tirmidhi, Saheeh al-Jaami' as-Sagheer 5/150 saheeh]

(v) How can the Believer increase his share of the trees of Paradise?

al-Khaleel ar-Rahmaan and the Father of the Prophets, Ibraaheem (as) asked our Prophet Muhammm Israa' to convey his greetings to this ummah and to tell them the way in which they could increase their share of Paradise. at-Tirmidhi reported with a hasan isnaad from Ibn Mas'oud that the Messenger of Allaah (saw) said: I met Ibraaheem...and he said, "O Muhammaad, tell your ummah that Paradise is a land whose soil is good and its water is sweet. It is an empty plain, which will be planted with SubhaanAllaah, al-Hamdu ‘l Akbar" [Saheeh al-Jaami' as-Sagheer, 5/34, no. 5028]

The Animals and Birds of Paradise

The kinds of birds and animals that exist in Paradise are known only to Allaah. He ta'ala told us that by the people of Paradise will be:

"..and the flesh of fowls any that they may desire" [56:21] at-Tirmidhi reports from Anas that the Messenger of Allaah (saw) was asked, "What is al-Kawthar?" and he said, "that Allaah has given me... and in it are birds with necks like the necks of camels". 'Umar said, "Those who eat them will be more blissful". The Messenger of Allaah (saw) said, "You will have seven hundred haltered she-camels in Paradise" [Silsilat as-Saheehah, 2/228 no. 634; a similar report is narrated by Muslim, Mishkaat al-

The People of Paradise

The Deeds for Which People Will Deserve to Enter Paradise

The people of Paradise are the believers and strict monotheists. All those who associate others with Allaah, or disbelieve in Him, or deny any of the principles of faith will not be allowed to enter Paradise. Their destination will be Hell.

The Qur'aan often states that the people of Paradise are the believers who do righteous deeds, to qi
"But whoever comes to Him as a believer [in tawheed] and has done righteous good deed ranks [in the Hereafter] - 'Adn [Eden] Paradise [everlasting gardens [under which rivers flow, wherein they will abide forever: such is the reward of those who purify themselves". [20:75-76]

* Believers may earn Paradise through their eemaan and Islaam:

"My worshippers! No fear shall be on you this Day, nor shall you grieve - [you] who believed Muslims, enter Paradise you and your wives in happiness" [43:68-70]

* Or because they were sincere in their devotion to Allaah:

"Save the chosen slaves of Allaah [al-Mukhliseen]. For them there will be a known provision, fruits and they shall be honoured, in the gardens of delight." [37:40-43]

* Or for the strength of their relationship with Allaah, their longing for Him and worship of Him:

"Only those who believe in our aayaat who, when they are reminded of them fall down praises of their rabb, and they are not proud. Their sides forsake their beds, to invoke the and they spend [charity in Allaah's Cause] our of what We have bestowed on them". [32:15]

* Or for their patience and reliance upon Allaah:

"..Excellent is the reward of the workers, those who are patient and put their trust [only]

* Or for their steadfastness in faith:

"Verily those who say "Our Rabb is Allaah" and remain firm [on that path], on them shall grieve. Such shall be the Companions of the Garden dwelling therein: a recompense for their good deeds".

* Or for their humility:

"Verily those who believe and do righteous deeds and humble themselves [in repentance their Rabb - they will be dwellers of Paradise to dwell therein forever"

* Or for their fear of Allaah:

"But for him who fears standing before his Rabb there will be two Gardens" [55:46]

* Or for their hatred of the kuffaar and mushrikeen and their refusal to befriend them:

"You will not find any people who believe in Allaah and the Last Day, making friendship with Allaah and His messenger, even though they were their fathers, or their sons, or their bro [people]. For such He has written Faith in their hearts, and strengthened them with Ruh [ from Himself. And We will admit them to Gardens under which rivers flow, to dwell therein pleased with them and they with Him". [58:22]

Some aayaat discuss in detail the righteous deeds for which a person may deserve Paradise; for exa

"But it is only the men of understanding who pay heed, those who fulfill the Covenant of uthaaq, those who join that which Allaah has commanded to be joined, [i.e. good to relations of kinship], fear their Rabb and dread the terrible reckoning, and those who remain p Rabb's Countenance, perform as-Salaat, and spend out of that which We have bestowed on openly, and defend evil with good, for such there is a good end 'Adn [Eden] Paradise which [also] those who acted righteously from among their fathers and their wives, and their of enter unto them from every gate [saying] Salaamun "alaykum for that you persevered in is the final home!" [13:19-24]

And at the beginning of Surah al-Mu'minoon, Allaah explains that success is for the believers and th will qualify them for success:

"Successful indeed are the believers, those who offer their salaah with khushoo', and those laghw [dirty, false, evil, vain talk, falsehood and all that Allaah has forbidden], and those who guard their chastity, except from their wives or those whom their right hands possess, for then, they are free from blame; but whoever seeks beyond that then those are the transgressors; those their amaanah [all duties that Allaah has ordained: honesty, moral responsibility, and trusts] and those who strictly guard their prayers [at the fixed times]. These are indeed the inheritors Firdaws. They shall dwell therein forever" [23:11]

The Prophet (saw) also said, "The people of Paradise are three: a ruler who is fair and just; a compassionate and gentle towards every relative and Muslim; and a man with a large fam not beg" [Muslim, see Sharh an-Nawawi 'alaa Muslim, 17/198]

The Way to Paradise is Very Hard

Paradise is very high, and ascending lofty places takes a great deal of effort. The way to Paradise is against human wishes and inclinations. This needs strong determination and willpower. In a hadith Muslim from Abu Hurayrah (ra) the Messenger of Allaah (saw) said, an-Nasaa'ee, at-Tirmidhi, and Abu Dawud report from Abu Hurayrah (ra) that the Messenger of Alla created Paradise, He told Jibreel, "Go look at it". So he went and looked at it, then he cam. Glory, no-one will hear of it but he will enter it". So He surrounded it with hardships and se he went and looked at it, then came back and said, "By Your Glory, I fear that no-one will 10/520, 8068] an-Nawawi commented on the first hadith:

"Hell has been veiled with desires, and Paradise has been veiled with [surrounded by] ha.

"This is an example of the beautiful, eloquent and concise speech which the Prophet (saw) was capa beautiful analogy. It means that nothing will help you to reach Paradise except going through hards. to Hell, but whims and desires. Both are veiled as described, and whoever tears down the veil will re it. The veil of Paradise is torn down by going through hardships and the veil of Hell is torn down by desires. Hardship including striving consistently and patiently in worship, restraining one's anger, f in charity, being kind to those who mistreat you, resisting physical desires, etc" [Sharh an-Nawawi 'n

The People of Paradise Will Inherit The Portion of Paradise That Would Have Gone to the People of Hell

Allaah has given two positions to every descendent of Aadam: a position in Jannah and a position in destined to damnation of the kuffaar and mushrikeen will inherit the positions in Hell that had been Paradise, and those of the people of Paradise for whom eternal bliss is decreed will inherit the portic allocated to the people of Hell. After describing the good deeds that would earn Paradise for the suc "These are indeed the inheritors, who shall inherit the Fridays"

Ibn Katheer said in his commentary on this aayah: "Ibn Abi Haatim said - and he quoted to the isna Hurayrah (ra) that the Messenger of Allaah (saw) said:

"There is no one among you who does not have two positions, one in Paradise and one in a house built for him in Paradise, and his house in Hell will be demolished". A similar report Jubayr.

The believers will inherit the positions of the kuffaar, because those positions were created for those alone and do not associate anything in worship with Him, because they did what they were commanded to do as far as worship is concerned, whilst the kuffaar neglected the duty for which they had been created. So the believers would have gained if they had obeyed Allaah (swt) and they will gain even more than that. I heard Abu Burdah from Abu Musaa that the Prophet (saw) said: "Some people amongst the Muslims will come on the Day of Resurrection with sins as great as a mountain. Allaah will forgive them, and will pass [the burden of sin] to the Jews and Christians". According to another version of this hadith, the Prophet (saw) said, "When the Day of Judgement comes, Allaah (swt) will allocate a Jew or Christian for every Muslim and will say, "This is your ransom from the Fire". This hadith reflects the words of Allaah (swt):

"Such is the Paradise which We shall give as an inheritance to those of Our slaves who ha Muttaqoon" [19:63]

and

"This is the Paradise which you have been made to inherit because of your deeds which you did in this world]" [43:72]

The Weak and Destitute Will Form the Majority in Paradise

Most of those who will enter Paradise will be the weak and destitute, whom people tend to ignore and despise, scorn and oppress because of their weak position in this world. What is meant is that most of the people of Paradise will be of this type, but it does not meant that all of them will be. An-Nawawi said, commenting on this hadith: "It refers to those who others despise, scorn and oppress position in this world. What is meant is that most of the people of Paradise will be of this type, and is not that all of them will be". [Sharh an-Nawawi alaa Muslim, 17/187] al-Bukhaari, Ahmad and Muslim reported from Usamah ibn Zayd that the Messenger of Allaah (saw of Paradise and saw that most of those who entered were the poor and destitute. The people of Paradise back, whilst the people of Hell had been ordered into the Fire. I stood by the gate of Hell, who entered it were women". [Mishkat al-Masaabih, 2/663 no 5233]

Will There Be More Men or Women in Paradise?

Men and women engaged in this dispute when the Sahaabah were still alive. Muslim reports from Ibn Sireen:

"Men and women disputed as to which of them would form the majority in Paradise. According to ar competing, or they were discussing, whether there would be more men or women in Paradise. They said that women would form the majority, on the basis of the words of the Prophet (saw):

"The first group to enter Paradise will be as beautiful as the full moon, and the group that the brightest shining stars in the sky: each man of them will have two wives, the marrow visible through the flesh because of their extreme beauty. There will be no one who is unmarried in Paradise". Muslim, Kitaab al-Jannah, Baab awwal zumrah tadhkul al-Jannah, 4/2179, hadith no. 2834]
This hadith clearly indicates that there will be more women than men in Paradise. Some others thou-men, because of the hadith, "I saw that they [women] formed the majority of the people of Hell". Ti-that women will form the majority of the inhabitants of Hell does not necessarily mean that they wil-Ibn Hajar al-'Asqalaani said [Fath al-Baari 6/325]

The two hadiths may be reconciled by stating that women will be in the majority in both Paradise ar-

Those Who Die Before the Age of Legal Capacity

(i) The Children of the Believers

The children of the Believers who die before reaching the age of puberty will be in Paradise, insha'Al-of Allaah. He (swt) says:

"And those who believe and whose offspring follow them in faith - to them shall We join t-shall not decrease the reward of their deeds in anything. Every person is a pledge for that earned" [52:21]

'Ali ibn Abi Taalib understood this aayah - "Every person is a pledge for what he has earned" [ children of the believers would be in Paradise, because they did not earn anything for which they wc[at-Tadkhirah, p. 511]

al-Bukhaari included a chapter in his Saheeh entitled "The virtue of one whose child dies and he bea-sake of Allaah", in which he quoted the hadith of Anas who said that, "A Muslim whose three chi-the age of puberty will be admitted to Paradise by Allaah out of Mercy towards them."

According to a hadith narrated by Abu Sa'eed the women asked the Prophet (Saw) "Set aside a day-them and said, "Any woman whose three children die will be shielded from the Fire by the-about two?" He said, "And if two [die]." [Saheeh al-Bukhaari, Kitaab al-Janaa'iliz, Baab fadl man ri-
Fath al-Baari, 3/118]

According to a hadith narrated by al-Baraa' (saw), "When [the Prophet's son] Ibraaheem, died, the said, "There is a wet nurse for him in Paradise". [Saheeh al-Bukhaari, Kitaab al-Janaa'iz, Baat Muslimeen, Fath al-Baari, 3/244]

The conclusion that may be drawn from this hadith is that the children of the believers will be in Paradise because "one who is the reason for his parents being shielded from the Fire should be protected himself, because he is the means and cause of mercy". [Fath al-Baari, 3/244]

A number of reports clearly indicate this for example, "The Muslims and the children will be in Paradise" quoted by ‘Abdullaah ibn Ahmad in Ziyaadat al-Musnad]

"A Muslim couple whose three children die before reaching the age of puberty will be admitted by Allaah to paradise, they and their children, by His Grace and Mercy" [Fath al-Baari, 2/245]

From Abu Hurayrah that the Messenger of Allaah (saw) said: "Their little ones are the pageboys of Paradise. One of them will meet his father - or his parents - and take hold of his clothes - or his hand - just as I am taking hold of the hem of your garment, and he will not let go" Or he said, "And he will not let go until Allaah admits him to Paradise." [Silsilat al-Hadith as-Saheehah, 1/184, no. 342]

"The children of the believers will be in Paradise, being cared for by Ibraaheem and Sarat to their parents on the Day of Resurrection". [narrated by Abu Na'eem, ad-Daylami and Ibn 'Asaakir from Abu Hurayrah Siilsilat al-Hadith as-Saheehah, 3/451 no. 1467; see also 2/156 no. 603 narrated by Ahmad, Ibn Hib b an-Nawawi referred to the ijmaa" of reliable Muslim scholars that any Muslim child who dies will be in Paradise. al-Qurtubee stated that Hammaad ibn Zayd, Hammad ibn Salamah and Ishaaq ibn Rahawaal opinion [at-Tadhkirah, p.511]. an-Nawawi said, "Some of them refrained from giving an opinion because of fear not to be acceptable if they said. "We should not say that because Allaah (swt) has created its own people for Paradise." The response to that is that he was most likely rebuking her for hastening to say some proof, or else he said that before he knew that the children of the Muslims would be in Paradise." [Fath al-Baari, 3/244].

I suggest that the best opinion is that this hadith indicates that it is not permitted to state definitely is one of the people of Paradise, even if we know that in general they will be in Paradise.

The second point is that we should not be hasty in such matters, so that people will not dare to do nowadays, when the bereaved claim that their departed loved one is in Paradise, even though he wis Taymiyyah said, "We should not say every single child of the believers that he is in Paradise, but we should say in general." [Majmu' Fataawa Shaykh al-Islaam, 4/281]

(ii) The Children of the Mushrikeen

The Messenger of Allaah (saw) was asked about the children of the Mushrikeen and he said, "Allaah best what they would have done". [on the authority of Ibn 'Abbaas, Saheeh al-Bukhaari, Kitaab awlaad al-Mushrikeen, Fath al-Baari, 3/246]
Abu Hurayrah (ra) reported that the Prophet (saw) said, "Every child is born in a state of fitrah and his parents make him a Jew or a Christian, or a Magian, just as an animal produces a you find it mutilated?" [Saheeh al-Bukhaari, Kitaab al-Janaa'iz, Baab ma qilaa fi awlaad al-Mushri

As Ibn Hajar said, "al-Bukhaari may Allaah have mercy on him, indicated that he was refraining from children of the mushrikeen.

Later in his Saheeh, in the tafseer of Surat ar-Rum, he indicates that he favoured the suggestion that also organised the hadith in this chapter in such a way that shows this was his favoured opinion. He indicates that we cannot say one way or the other, then quotes a hadith which indicates that they all that with a hadith that clearly states that this is the case:

"As for the children around him, they are the children of mankind." In another version, "As for the two children is born in a state of fitrah." Some of the Muslims asked, "Even the children of the Mushrikeen? of the mushrikeen"

Ibn Hajar said, "This is supported by the hadith of Anas reported by Abu Ya'la, in which the Prophet Rabb for the laheen [those who play or those who are unaware] of the children of mankind, punished, and that was granted to me." [Its isnaad is hasan] Laheen was explained as meaning hadith of ibn 'Abbaas narrated by al-Bazzar. Ahmad reported from al-Khansaa bint Mu'aawiyah ibn S who said, "I said, "O Messenger of Allaah, who is in Paradise?" He said, "Prophets are in Paradise and newborn babies are in Paradise". Its isnaad is hasan. [Fath al-Baari, 3/246]

They also took as evidence the hadith, "The children of the mushrikeen are servants of the people of Paradise" Mandah in al-Ma'rifah, Abu Na'eem in al-Hilyah, Abu Ya'la in al-Musnad and al-Albaani deemed it sal Silsilat al-Hadith as-Saheehah, 3/452, no. 1468]

The idea that they are in Paradise is the opinion of some scholars, such as favoured by Abul-Faraj Il Fataawa, 24/382, 4/303] an-Nawawi said of this opinion, "This is the correct position favoured by th Allaah, al-Qurtubee also considered this the most likely t be corrected, reconciling the apparently conflicting Prophet (saw) initially said they would be in Hell with their parents, then he refrained from passing judgment, "Allaah knows best what they would have done", then it was revealed to him that no one would be punished until warned, [17:15] so he stated that the would be in Paradise [at-Tadhkirah, p.515]. The trouble with Ibn Hajar said, is that this is not a matter that can be subjected to study and examination. It is a matter that only be known through revelation. And Allaah knows best.

"..And We never punish until We have sent a Messenger [to give warning]" [17:15]"

[Fath al-Baari, 3/247]

Some scholars such as Hammaad ibn Zayd, Hammaad ibn Salamah, Ibn al-Mubaarak and Ishaaq, see the will of Allaah. It was also transmitted by al-Bayhaqee in al-I'tiqaad from ash-Shaaf'iee. Ibn 'Abdul-B opinion of Maalik, although there is no written evidence for that" [Majmu' Fatawah, 4/281-404, 24/303, 4/281].

This is also the favoured view of Ibn Taymiyyah, who suggested that they will be tested of the day of Resurrection view is what was said concerning them, Allaah knows best what they would have done". We cannot individual that he will be in Paradise or Hell. A number of hadiths state that on the Day of Resurrection arena of judgement: they will be given commands and prohibitions and those who obey will enter Paradise and disobey will be sent to Hell." He attributed this to Imaam Ahmad and Abul-Hasan al-Ash'ari who attr [Majmu' Fatawah, 24/372, 4/303, 4/281].

Ibn Hajar also stated that they would be tested in the Hereafter by being shown the Fire: whoever enters it safe, but whoever refuses to enter it will be punished. Ahadeeth to this effect were reported by al-B Sa'eed and by at-Tabaraani from Mu'aadh ibn Jabal. It has been proven through saheeh asaanid that lived between the time of Jesus (as) and Muhammad (saw) will also be tested in the Hereafter. al-B that this is the correct opinion. [Fath al-Baari 3/246].

The soundness of this opinion is indicated by the clear unambiguous aayaat of the Qur'aan which tells the slave whom Musa (as) travelled to meet at the junction of the two seas. Explaining the reason why "And as for the boy, his parents were believers, and we feared lest he should oppress them with disbelief" [18:80].

Muslim reports from Ibn 'Abbaas (ra) "The Messenger of Allaah (saw) said, concerning the boy was decreed from the beginning to be a kaafir and if he had been left, he would have oppressed them with rebellion and disbelief." Commenting on this hadith, Ibn Taymiyyah said "It means that Allaah decreed it in Umm al-Jannah [the Register Book in Jannah] i.e. it was written that he would be a kaafir and if he had lived he would indeed." al-Qurtubee said, in at-Tadhkirah [p.514]: "What makes this idea [that they will be tested in the Hereafter is not the place of testing; it is the place of recompense - reward of punishment. al-Hulaymee said "This hadith is not proven to be sound, and it contradicts the basic beliefs of the Muslims, because the Hereafter is not the place of testing. Everyone will inevitably know about Allaah, and there is no test when a thing is inevitable."

This is incorrect and was refuted by Shaykh al-Islaam Ibn Taymiyyah who said, "Responsibility only abode of recompense, which is either Paradise or Hell. In the arena of judgement they will be tested Barzakh. The individual will be asked, "Who is your Rabb? What is your deen? Who is your Prophet?"

"[Remember] the Day when the Shin shall be laid bare and they shall be called to prostrate [hypocrites] will not be able to do so" [68:42]..."

Testing will only cease when a person enters Paradise or Hell. al-Qurtubee's suggestion that everyor on that Day is correct, but the testing will take the form of orders and prohibitions as is reported in
(swt) will test them by ordering them to enter the Fire: whoever obeys will be blessed, whilst who\n
The People of Paradise

The Number of People from This Ummah Who Will Enter Paradise

Many people from this ummah will enter Paradise, but only Allaah knows their exact number. al-Bukhārī reports from Sa'eed ibn Jubayr who said, "Ibn 'Abbaas told me that the Prophet (saw) said, "I was shown the nations, ar\nby with his ummah, another with a band of followers, another with ten followers, another\nwho was alone. I looked and saw a huge crowd of people, and I asked, "O Jibreel, are the\"No look at the horizon." I looked and saw a vast multitude. He said, "These are your umn\nthousand in front will not be brought to account or be punished."" [al-Bukhārī, Kitaab ar-Riq'\nSab'oona Alfaan, Fath al-Baari, 11/406]

The first crowd which the Prophet (Saw) thought was his ummah was in fact the Children of Israel a\nsaheeh reports, "I hoped that this would be my ummah, but I was told that this was Musa\nBaari, 11/407].

Concerning the words "a vast multitude" Ibn Hajar said, "A report from Sa'eed ibn Mansoor says, "he\nwas said to me, "look at the horizon" So I looked and I saw a huge multitude. Then I was\nhorizon, it is just like the first one."" According to a report given by Ibn Faadil, "[I saw] a\nhorizon and it was said to me "Look here and here, all across the horizon". According to a\nAhmad, "I saw my ummah filling the plains and the mountains, and I was amazed at the\nappearance. I was asked, "Are you pleased O Muhammad?" and I said, "Yes O Rabb."" [Fath al\n
Some hadiths state that along with every thousand of the seventy thousand will be another seventy\nadded by Allaah.

Our Prophet (saw) hoped that this ummah would constitute half of the population of Paradise. In a\nagreed upon, Abu Sa'eed al-Khudri said that when the Messenger of Allaah (saw) was speaking abo\nhis ummah. He said, "By the One in Whose Hand is my soul, I hope that you will be half of the people o\npeople you are no more than a black hair on the hide of a white bull.."" [Mishkaat al-Masaabeeh, 3/92, no. 5644]

Some hadith state that this ummah will constitute two thirds of the population of Paradise. at-Tirmidhi and ad-Daarimee and ad-Bayhaqee also report, from Buraydah, that the Messenger of Allaah \nParadise are one hundred and twenty ranks, eight from this ummah and forth from the rest.\n\nMishkaat al-Masaabeh, 3/124, no. 5744].

Muslim reports from Anas (ra) that the Messenger of Allaah (saw) said, "I will be the first interce\nProphet was believed in as I was believed in. Among the Prophets is one who was believe\nman." [Mishkaat al-Masaabeh, 3/124, no. 5744].

The reason why so many people of this ummah believed is because of the great miracle of the Mess\nwas a recited revelation which is addressed to hearts and minds. It is a miracle that is preserved an\nJudgement. al-Bukhārī and Muslim report from Abu Hurayrah (ra) that the Messenger of Allaah (sa\n
"There is no Prophet who was not given a sign [or miracle] in which people believed and I have been given is a Revelation from Allaah and I hope that I will have the greatest num\nResurrection." [Mishkaat al-Masaabeh, 3/142, 5746]

The Leaders of the People of Paradise

(i) The Leaders of the Men
A number of the Sahaabah, including 'Ali ibn Abi Taalib, Anas ibn Maalik, Abu Hudhayfah, Jaabir ibn al-Khudri reported that the Messenger (saw) said, "Abu Bakr and 'Umar will be the leaders of n earlier and later generations." [Silsilat al-Hadith as-Saheehah, 12/487, no. 824]

(ii) The Leaders of the Youth at-Tirmidhi, al-Haakim, at-Tabaraani, Ahmad and others reported that Abu Sa'eed al-Khudri said, th (saw) said, "Hasan and Husayn are the leaders of the youth of Paradise". This is proven by s level of tawatur. [see also the narration from Hudhayfah and from 'Abdullaah ibn 'Umar in Ibn 'Asaakir Saheehah, no. 797]

(iii) The Leaders of the Women

The true female leader is the one with whom her Rabb is pleased and whose deeds He accepts. The attain the Paradise of delights. The women of Paradise are of different levels, and the Messenger (saw) told us about their leaders:

"The Messenger of Allaah (saw) drew four lines and said, "Do you know what these are?" They said, "Allaah and His Messenger know best." He said, "The best women of Paradise are Khadeejah bint Khuwaylid, Faatimah bint 'Imraan and Aasiyah bin Muzahim, the wife of Fir'awn" [Silsilat al-Hadith as-Saheehah, 4/13, no. 1508, from Ahmad at-Tahhaawi, al-Haakim from Ibn 'Abbaas, saheeh] Maryam and Khadeejah are the best of the four - "The best of its women is Maryam and the be Khadeejah" [from 'Ali in al-Bukhaari, Kitaab Manaqib al-Ansaar, Fath al-Baari, 7/133] - and Mary. leaders of the women of Paradise, AFTER Maryam bint 'Imraan will be." [Silsilat al-Hadith as-Saheeh Jaabir in at-Tabaraani, saheeh]. The reason why Maryam is considered the best of all women is clea

"Behold! the angels said, "O Maryam! Allaah has chosen you and purified you, chosen you nations." [3:42]

How could she not be the best of women when Allaah has clearly stated that,

"..her Rabb accepted her with a goodly acceptance. He made her to grow in a good manner

These four women are beautiful examples of perfect, righteous women. Maryam, the daughter of 'Ir the Qur'aan:

The Ten Who Were Given Glad Tidings of Paradise

The Messenger (saw) clearly stated that ten of his Companions would be in Paradise:

"Abu Bakr will be in Paradise, 'Umar will be in Paradise, 'Uthmaan will be in Paradise, 'Ali will be in Paradise, az-Zubayr will be in Paradise, 'Abdur-Rahmaan ibn 'Awf will be in Paradise, Sa'eed ibn Zayd will be in Paradise and Abu 'Ubaydah ibn al-Jarrah will be in Paradise." [Ahmad from Sa'eed ibn Zayd, at-Tirmidhi from 'Abdur-Rahmaan ibn 'Awf, Saheeh al-Jaami' as-Sagheer, 1/70, no. 50]

"Ten will be in Paradise: the Prophet will be in Paradise. Abu Bakr will be in Paradise, 'Umar will be in Paradise, 'Uthmaan will be in Paradise, 'Ali will be in Paradise, Talhah will be in Paradise, az-Zubayr ibn al-Jarrah will be in Paradise, 'Sa'd ibn Ma'ali will be in Paradise, Abdur-Rahmaan ibn 'Awf will be in Paradise, and Sa'eed ibn Zayd will be in Paradise.

The Books of the Sunnah tell us that one day the Prophet (saw) was sitting at the well of 'Arees, with Abu Musa al-Aas as his gatekeeper. Abu Bakr as-Siddeeq came and asked permission to see him, and the Messenger said, "Let him in, and give him the glad tidings of Paradise". Then 'Umar came and he said, "Let him in, and give him the glad tidings of Paradise". Then 'Uthmaan came and he said, "Let him in, and give him the glad tidings of Paradise because of an affliction that will befall him" [al-Bukhaari, Muslim and at-Tirmidhi. Jaami' al-Usool, 8/562, no. 6372]

Ibn 'Asaakir reported with a saheeh isnaad from Ibn Mas'oud that the Prophet (saw) said, "My successor will be in Paradise, his successor will be in Paradise, and the third and fourth will be in Paradise." [namely, the Khulafaa Rashida] [Saheeh al-Jaami as-Sagheer, 4/149, no. 4311]

at-Tirmidhi and al-Haakim reported with a saheeh isnaad from 'Aa'ishah that the Prophet (saw) said to Abu Bakr, "You will first enter Paradise, and you will first take a young girl with you from the Fire." [Saheeh al-Jaami' as-Sagheer, 2/24, no. 1494]

Others Who It Was Reported Will Be In Paradise

Paradise is Not the Equivalent of Deeds

Paradise is something of immense value; a person cannot earn it by virtue of his deeds alone - Musl Hurayrah (ra) that the Prophet (saw) said,

"No one of you will enter Paradise by his deeds alone." They asked, "Not even you, O Mes "Not even me, unless Allaah covers me with His Grace and Mercy" [Saheeh Muslim, 4/2170, The fact that some texts indicate that Paradise is the equivalent reward for deeds could be problem:
"No person knows what is kept hidden for them of joy as reward for they used to do." [32:17]

However there is no conflict between these aayaat and the meaning of the hadith. The aayaat indicate that good deeds will be a reason, not the price, for admission to Paradise. The hadith the price.

Two groups were misled in this matter: The Jabaariyyah, who took the hadith to mean that the reward is not connected to deeds, because man has nothing to do with deeds [i.e. everything is foreordained]; and the Qaadariyyah who took the hadith to mean that Paradise was the equivalent of good deeds, and man has the right to enter by virtue of his good deeds.

The commentator on at-Tahhaawiyyah said, "As for the idea that recompense results directly from cause and the Qaadariyyah are misled, and Allaah has guided Ahl as-Sunnah. The ba’ of negation [nafyi] is affirmation. The negation in the hadith "No one will enter Paradise by virtue of his deeds" [bi’ amaalihi] is the ba’ of substitution or exchange, as if good deeds were not the price of a man's admission to Paradise. This claim that good deeds will give a person the right to enter Paradise, whereas the truth is that admission to Paradise is by the Grace and Mercy of Allaah. The ba’ in the aayah "a reward for what they used to do [jazaa’an by’ amaaloona]" [32:17] is known in Arabic grammar as the ba’ of causation, i.e. because of their deed Cause and Effect, so everything is referred back to His Grace and Mercy" [Sharh at-Tahhaawiyyah, 495]

Description of the People of Paradise and the Delights They Enjoy Therein

The people of Paradise will enter in the most perfect and beautiful form, in the image of their father, human form more perfect and beautiful than that of Aadam, whom Allaah (swt) created very tall. He was as tall as a great palm tree, sixty cubits tall. Muslim reports from Abu Hurayrah (ra) that the Messenger of Allaah (saw) said, "Allaah, Subhaanahu wa ta’aala, created Aadam in his own image, sixty cubits tall... everyone who enters Paradise will be in the image of Aadam, sixty cubits tall. People kept getting shorter and shorter after the time of Aadam."

Their external appearance will be in harmony, and their hearts will be as one. Their hearts and souls will be clean and pure. Muslim reports from Abu Hurayrah (ra) a hadith in which the Prophet describes people entering Paradise will be like the full moon. He (saw) said, "Their form will be that of a single person, after the image of their father Aadam, sixty cubits tall." [Saheeh Muslim, Kitaab al-Jannah, Baab Awwal zumrah yadkhuluna al-

Another aspect of their beauty is that they will have no body hair, and will look as if their eyes are anointed with kohl. Each of them will enter Paradise aged thirty-three, the age of strength, vitality and youth. Ahmad and at-Tirmidhi report from Mu’aadh ibn Jabal that the Messenger of Allaah (saw) said, "The people of Paradise will enter Paradise hairless, looking as if their eyes are ringed with kohl, aged thirty three." [Saheeh al-Jaami' 6/337, no. 7928]

As reported in the hadith narrated by al-Bukhaari and Muslim, from Abu Hurayrah (ra), the people c blow their noses or excrete".

The people of Paradise will not sleep. Jaabir ibn 'Abdullaah and 'Abdullaah ibn Abi Awfaa reported that (saw) said, "Sleep is the brother of death; the people of Paradise will not sleep" [Silsilat al-

The Delights of the People of Paradise:
The Superiority of Paradise Over the Pleasures of This World

The pleasures of this world are tangible and present, whilst the delights of Paradise are as-yet unseen readily influenced by what they can see and know instantly; it is hard enough for them to forgo something that is in front of them for the sake of something else that is in the future, so how much harder it is if the promise will not be attained until after death!

So Allaah (swt) drew a comparison between the pleasures of this world and the joys of Paradise, and explained that the delights of Paradise are far superior to this world’s pleasures. The Qur’aan speaks at length denouncing this world of instant, fleeting pleasures and stating that the rewards with Allaah as far better, to encourage man to strive hard for success in the next world:

“And strain not your eyes in longing for the things We have given them for enjoyment to [mushrikeen and kuffaar] the splendour of this life that We may test them thereby. But the provision in the Hereafter of your Rabb is better and more lasting” [20:131]

And “Beautified for men is the love of things they covet: women, children, much of gold and silver, beautiful horses, cattle and well-tilled land. This is the pleasure of the present world’s life excellent return with Him. Say: "Shall I inform you of things far better than those? For al-Gardens with their Rabb, under which rivers flow. Therein [is their] eternal [home] and A [purified mates or wives], and Allaah will be pleased with them. And Allaah is All-Seer of [His] Slaves”

There are many reasons why the delights of Paradise are superior to the pleasures of this dunyaa; Amongst them:

(i) The Pleasures of this Dunyaa are Fleeting:

"Say: Short is the enjoyment of this world. The Hereafter is [far] better for him who fears Allaah."

The Prophet (saw) illustrated the inferiority of this dunyaa by comparing it to what Allaah has prepared in Paradise, "this world in comparison with the Hereafter is nothing more than as if one of you put his forefinger - "in the sea; let him see how much water he would retrieve" [Saheeh Muslim, 4/2193, no. 2858]. A finger dipped in the ocean would not even pick up one drop; this is how little this world is worth when compared with the Aakhirah.

Because these pleasures are so insignificant, Allaah (swt) has rebuked those who prefer the pleasures of this world to the joys of the Aakhirah:

"O you who believe! What is the matter with you, that when you are asked to go forth in the Cause of Allaah [Jihaad] you cling heavily to this earth? Do you prefer the life of this world to the Hereafter of this life, as compared with the Hereafter" [9:38]

We have already quoted numerous texts that indicate the inexhaustible abundance of the blessings of the Aakhirah.

(ii) The Hereafter is also better from the perspective of quality:

The clothing, food, drink, jewellery and palaces of the people of Paradise will be far superior to their earthly counterparts. There is in fact no room for comparison, as even the smallest space in Paradise is better than this world. Bukhaari and Muslim report from Abu Hurayrah (ra) that the Messenger of Allaah (saw) said, "The space of a whip in Paradise is better than this world and everything in it" [Mishkaat al-Masaabeeh, 3/85, no. 5613]

Also narrated by al-Bukhaari and Muslim from Abu Hurayrah that the Prophet (saw) said, "The space of the bow of any one of you in Paradise is better than all that the sun rises upon" [Mishkaat al-Masaabeeh, 3/85, no. 5615]

The comparison between the women of Paradise and the women of this earth serves to demonstrate this. al-Bukhaari reports from Anas that the Messenger of Allaah (saw) said,

"If a woman from the people of Paradise were to look at this earth, she would light up everything between it and fill it with her fragrance; the veil on her head is better than this world and all that is in it" [Mishkaat al-Masaabeeh, 3/85, no. 5614]
(iii) Paradise is free from all the impurities and disappointments of this world.

Eating and drinking in this life results in the need for excretion and its associated unpleasant odours this world, he loses his mind. Women in this world menstruate and give birth, which are sources of from all of these discomforts: its people will not urinate, defecate, spit or suffer from catarrh. The w by its Creator, is:

"Crystal-white, delicious to those who drink [thereof], free from intoxication, nor will the therefrom" [37:46-47]

The water of Paradise does not become brackish, and its milk never changes in flavour:

".rivers of water incorruptible; rivers of milk of which the taste never changes.." [47:15]

The women of Paradise are pure and free from menstruation, nifaas [postnatal bleeding] and all the women in this world, as Allaah (swt) says:

"...and they shall have therein Azwaajun Muttaharatun [Purified mates having no menses

The hearts of the people of Paradise will be pure, their speech will be good, their deeds righteous. T upsetting, offensive or provocative talk there, for Paradise is free of all worthless words and deeds:

"...free from any laghw [dirty, false, evil, vague talk], and free from sin" [52:23]

The only speech that is heard there is good, sincere and pure, free from all the shameful shortcomir

"No Laghw [dirty, false, evil talk] will they hear therein, nor lying" [78:35]

"They shall not hear therein any Laghw, but only salaam [salutations of peace]" [19:62]

"Where they shall hear neither harmful speech nor falsehood" [88:11]

Paradise is the abode of purity and peace, "No laghw will they hear therein, nor any sinful spe But only the saying of Salaam! Salaam! [greetings with peace]" [56:25]

For this reason, when the people of Paradise have been saved from the Fire, they will be detained o and Hell, where they will be purified by settling any wrongs that may be outstanding, so that they n heart and soul, free from any resentment, envy or other negative emotions of this world. al-Bukhaa when the people of Paradise enter Paradise, "There will be no hatred of resentment among the one, and they will glorify Allaah, morning and evening" [al-Bukhaari from Abu Hurayrah, in Ki jaa'a fi Sifaat al-Jannah, Fath al-Baari, 6/318]

Allaah indeed spoke the truth when He (swt) said,

"And We shall remove from their breasts any lurking sense of injury: [they will be] brothe other on thrones [of dignity]" [15:47]

A "sense of injury" is hatred. It was reported from Ibn 'Abbaas and 'Ali ibn Abi Taalib that when the Paradise they will drink from one spring, and Allaah (swt) will remove all sense of injury or hatred fr drink from another spring, and their faces will become pure and bright [al-Qurtubee, at-Tadhkirah, i is meant by the aayah, "And their Rabb will give them a pure drink" [76:21]

(iv) The Pleasures of This World are Transient Whilst the Joys of the Hereafter are Lasting and Etern
This is why Allaah (swt) calls the pleasures of this world "temporary conveniences" because they are then come to an end, but the joys of al-Aakhirah have no end:

"What is with you, must vanish, and what is with Allaah will endure." [16:96]

"[It will be said to them]: This is Our Provision, which will never finish" [38:54]

"...its provision is eternal and so is its shade." [13:35]

Allaah (swt) gave an example of how quickly this world will pass away:

"And put forward for them the example of the life of this world, it is like the water [rain] the sky, and the vegetation of the earth mingles with it, and becomes fresh and green. But and broken pieces, which the winds scatter. And Allaah is Able to do everything. Wealth a adornment of the life of this world. But the good righteous deeds that last are better with your Rabb for rewards and better in respect of hope" [18:45-46]

Allaah (swt) likened this life to the rain that falls from the sky and causes plants to grow and flower only a short time, before they shrivel and are blown away by the wind. Such are the luxuries of this sons, lands and fields. All of this passes away; youth fades, health and vitality are replaced by sickn children may disappear, a man may be taken from his family and wealth, but the Hereafter will nev

"...And excellent indeed will be the home of the Muttaqoon, 'Adn Paradise which they will flow.." [16:30-31]

(v) Seeking to Enjoy the Pleasures of this World and Neglecting the Hereafter Will be Followed By Retr

"Everyone shall taste death. And only on the Day of Resurrection will you be paid your wa removed away from the Fire and admitted to Paradise, he indeed is successful. The life of enjoyment of deception [a deceiving thing]" [3:185]

The Food and Drink of the People of Paradise

We have already discussed the trees and fruits of Paradise, including the ripe fruits, which hang with people of Paradise may pick whichever fruits they desire. The people will also have whatever food a

"Any fruit [any] that they may choose, And the flesh of fowls that they desire" [56:20-21]

"...there will be there all that the souls could desire, all that the eyes could delight in." [4

Allaah (swt) will permit them to take whatever they want of the good food and drink of Paradise:

"Eat and drink at ease for that which you have sent on before you in days past!" [69:24]

We have also mentioned above that in Paradise there will be a sea of water, a sea of wine, a sea of the rivers of Paradise will flow out of these seas. There will be also many springs in Paradise, and its seas, rivers and springs.

(i) The Wine of the People of Paradise

One of the drinks that Allaah will bestow on the people of Paradise will be wine. The wine of Paradis problems that characterise the wine of this world, which makes people lose their minds, and causes and other physical disorders, or which may have something wrong in the way it is made, or its color. Paradise is free from all such faults; it is pure and beautiful:

"Round them will be passed a cup of pure wine; white, delicious to the drinkers. Neither will there be any kind of hurt, abdominal pain, headache, etc] from that, nor will they suffer intoxication therefrom"

Allaah described the beauty of its white colour, then explained that its drinker enjoy it very much, with:

"..rivers of wine delicious to those who drink.." [47:15]

And they will never be adversely affected by drinking it:

"..nor will they suffer intoxication therefrom" [37:47]

Elsewhere in the Qur'aan, Allaah describes the wine of Paradise,

"They will be served by immortal boys, With cups and jugs, and a glass from the flowing wine, Wherefrom they will get neither any aching of the head, nor any intoxication" [56:17-19]

Commenting on this passage, Ibn Katheer said, "it does not cause their heads to ache or their mind: although it still contains the ingredients that make it a delight to the drinker. ad-Dahhaak narrated I produces four things: drunkenness, headache, vomit and urine. Allaah (saw) has mentioned the wine purified it of all these things." [Tafseer Ibn Katheer, 6/514]

In another part of the Qur'an, Allaah (swt) says:

"They will be given to drink pure sealed wine, the last thereof will be the smell of musk.."

This wine is sealed or covered, and at the end of it, the drinker will find the scent of musk.

(ii) The first food of the people of Paradise

The first food which Allaah (swt) will present to the people of Paradise will be the caudate [extra] lobe and Muslim report from Abu Sa'eed al-Khudri (ra) that the Messenger of Allaah (saw) said,

"On the Day of Resurrection, the earth will be like one loaf of bread, which Allaah will turn around in His hands, just as any of you prepares bread whilst he is travelling, to offer it as food to the people of Paradise on the Day of Resurrection?" The Prophet (saw) said, "Of course." The Jew said that the earth would be a single loaf of bread, just as the Prophet (saw) has said. The Prophet (saw) looked at us and smiled so broadly that his back teeth were visible, then he said, "Shall I not tell you of their food? Balam and noon [a large fish]. They asked, "What is that?" He said, "noon seventy thousand people will eat from the caudate [extra] lobes of their livers" an-Nawawi's comments on this hadith may be summarised as follows: "Nuzul is the food prepared for a guest upon his arrival. Turning the bread around in one's hands means kneading it and tossing it from hand to hand, until it becomes flat and round like a disk. The meaning of the hadith is that Allaah (swt) will make the earth like a huge loaf of bread to feed the people of Paradise. Balam is a Hebrew word that means "bull"; the caudate [extra] lobe of a fish l al-Bukhaari reports that 'Abdullaah ibn Salaam asked the Prophet (saw) a number of questions when he came to Madinah, one of which was, "What is the first thing that the people of Paradise will eat?" He said, "The fish liver" [Ibn Katheer, an-Nihaayah, 2/270] Muslim reports from Thawban that a Jew asked that the Prophet (saw), "What will they be presented in Paradise?" He said, "The caudate [extra] lobe of fish liver." The Jew asked, "What will they eat after said, "The bull, which is grazing now in Paradise, will be slaughtered for them." The Jew asked, "What will they eat after that?" He said, "From a spring called Salsaabeel." The Jew said, "You have spoken the truth." [Ibn Katheer, an Nihaayah, 2/270]

(iii) The food and drink of the people of Paradise does not produce any impure excrement.

It might cross one's mind that the food and drink of Paradise might produce the same as the food and drink in this world, namely, excrement, urine, mucus, saliva, and so on. But this is not the case. Paradise is a place that is free of all impurities, and its people are free of all the blemishes of people of this world. A hadith reported by al-Bukhaari and Muslim clearly rejects such a nation: the Prophet (saw) said, "The first group to enter Paradise will be as beautiful as the full moon; they will not spit or blow their noses." [al-Bukhaari, Kitaab Bad' al-Khalq, Baab Maa jaa'a fi Sifaat al Baari, 6/317, also Muslim in Kitaab al-Jannah, Baab Awwal Zumrah Tadhkul al-Jannah, 4/2178, no. 2834]

This does not only apply to the first group to enter Paradise, all those who enter will be similarly pure. Muslim reports from Abu Hurayrah that the Messenger of Allaah (saw) said, "The first group of my ummah to enter Paradise will be as beautiful as the full moon and those that come after them will be like the brightest shining star, and those that follow them will be ranked according to their status. They will not defecate, urinate or blow their noses or spit." [al-Bukhaari, Kitaab Bad' al-Khalq, Baab Maa jaa Baari, 6/317, also Muslim in Kitaab al-Jannah, Baab Awwal Zumrah Tadhkul al-Jannah, 4/2188, no. 2834]

It might be asked where will the waste produces go? This question was posed to the Prophet (saw) and he replied, "[It will come out as] burps which are like musk." [Muslim in 4/2180, no. 2835]. Other excretions will be turned into sweat like musk that will come out of their bodies.

(iv) Why Will the People of Paradise Eat and Drink and Comb their Hair?

If the people of Paradise are to abide there forever, and it is free form all discomfort, pain and sickness, then why will the people of Paradise eat and drink, and wear perfume and comb their hair?

al-Qurtubee answered this question in at-Tadhkirah [p. 475, see also al-Fath, 6/325]: "The luxuries of Paradise will not be for the purpose of warding off potential pains; they will not eat because of hunger or drink because of thirst, or wear perfume because of some offensive odour, because Paradise is a never-ending succession of delight and joy. Do you not remember the words of Allaah (swt) to Aadam?"

"Verily you have [a promise from Us] that you will never be hungry therein nor naked. And you will not suffer from thirst therein nor from the sun's heat." [20:118-119]

The wisdom behind it [food and drink, etc] is so that Allaah will introduce Paradise to them in ways they enjoyed on earth, but He will increase it in ways known only to Him.

(v) The Vessels and Cups of the People of Paradise

The vessels from which the people of Paradise will eat and drink will be of gold and silver. Allaah (swt) says, "Trays of gold and cups will be passed round them." [43:71] i.e. cups of gold.

And Allaah (swt) says, "And amongst them, will be passed round vessels of silver and cups made of silver. They will determine the measure thereof according to their wishes." [76:1] i.e. cups of crystal with the whiteness of silver.

al-Bukhaari and Muslim reported from Abu Musaa al-Ash'ari that the Messenger of Allaah (saw) said, "Will have a tent made of a hollowed out pearl.. and two gardens of silver, their vessels and two gardens of gold, their vessels and everything in them." [Mishkaat al-Masaabeeh, 3/86]
Among the vessels from which they will drink will be cups and jugs and glasses:

"They will be served by immortal boys, with cups, and jugs and a glass from the flowing v

The "cup" [koob] is something that has no handle or spout, the "jug" [ibreeq] has a handle and a spout, and a cup that is filled with drink.

The Clothing, Jewellery and Incense-Burners Of the People of Paradise

The people of Paradise will wear the most luxurious clothes, amongst other things, garments of silk and pearls. Allaah (swt) says:

"And their recompense will be Paradise, and silken garments, because they were patient."

"...wherein they will be adorned with bracelets of gold and pearls, and their garments will there be of silk." [35:33]

"...They will be adorned with bracelets of silver, and their Rabb will give them a pure drink."

Their clothes will be colourful, including garments of green silk and brocade:

"...They will be adorned therein with bracelets of gold, and they will wear green garments of fine silk and heavy brocade. They will recline therein on raised thrones. How good the recompense! How beautiful a couch to recline on." [18:31]

"Their garments will be of fine green silk, and gold embroidery. They will be adorned with silver..." [76:21]

Their clothing will be far superior to any man-made garment. al-Barraa ibn 'Aadhib said, "A silken handkerchief was brought to the Messenger (saw) and we began to admire its beauty and softness." The Messenger of Allaah (saw) said, "The handkerchiefs of Sa'd ibn Mu'aadh are better than this." [al-Bukhaari, Kitaab Bid' al-Khalq, Baab Maa Jaa'a fi Sifat al-Jannah wan-Naar, Fath al-Baari, 6/319]

The Prophet (saw) also told us that the people of Paradise will have combs of gold and silver, and that they will perfume themselves with 'Ud at-Teeb, even though the scent of musk will be emanating from their pure bodies. al-Abu Hurayrah that the Prophet (saw) said of those who will enter Paradise:

"Their vessels will be of gold and silver, their combs will be of gold and the coals of their aloe-wood [Abul-Yaman said, "of 'Ud at-Teeb] and their sweat will be musk." [al-Bukhaari, Maa Jaa'a fi Sifat al-Jannah wan-Naar, Fath al-Baari, 6/319]

Their jewellery will include crowns. at-Tirmidhi and Ibn Maajah report from al-Miqdaam ibn Ma'd Yakrib that among the honours bestowed upon the martyr will be: "...there will be placed upon his head a crown of dignity, one ruby of which is better than this world and all that is in it." [Mishkaat al-Masaabeeh, 3/358, no. 3834, Saheeh Muslim, saheeh]

The clothing and jewellery of the people of Paradise will never wear out or fade. Muslim reports from the Prophet (saw) said, "Whoever enters Paradise is blessed, and will never be miserable, his clothes will never wear out and his youth will never fade away." [Saheeh Muslim, Kitaab al-Jannah, Baab fi Dawam Na'eem

The Couches of the People of Paradise
The palaces of Paradise have been prepared, and in their gardens are places to sit and recline, beautiful couches of delightful colours and high beds whose interiors are lined with silk brocade, let alone how magnificent their outward appearance must be. There are cushions and splendid carpets laid out in the most delightful fashion. Allaah (swt) says:

"Therein will be thrones raised high, and cups set at hand, and cushions set in rows, and out]" [88:13-16]

"They will recline [with ease] on thrones arranged in ranks. And We shall marry them to I with wide lovely eyes." [52:20]

"A multitude of those [foremost] will be from the first generations [who embraced Islaan foremost] will be from the later time generations. [They will be] on thrones woven with stones, reclining thereon, face to face." [56:13-16]

This reclining on those thrones and couches will be one of the luxuries that the people of Paradise will enjoy when they gather together, as Allaah (swt) says,

"And we shall remove from their breasts any lurking sense of injury; [they will be like] br each other on thrones [of dignity]." [15:47]

"Reclining on green cushions and rich beautiful mattresses" [55:76}

"Reclining upon the couches lined with silk brocade" [55:54]

The Servants of the People of Paradise

The People of Paradise will be served by boys whom Allaah (swt) will create to serve them and who perfect in form:

"They will be served by immortal boys, With cups, and jugs, and a glass from the flowing

"And round about them will [serve] boys of everlasting youth. If you see them, you would pears." [76:19]

Ibn Katheer, may Allaah have mercy on him, said, "Boys of eternal youth will go around to serve pe remain in that youthful form forever, never changing or advancing in age. It was said that they will emphasise their youth, because such a thing is appropriate for young people, but it does not befit t (swt) said [76:19] i.e. if you saw them going around to attend to the needs of their masters, with splendid colourful clothes and jewellery, you would think that they were scattered pearls. There is than the picture of pearls scattered in a place of beauty." [Tafseer Ibn Katheer, 7/184]

Some scholars suggested that these boys are the children of the Muslims and Mushrikeen who die ir refuted by al-'Allaamah Ibn Taymiyyah (ra), who explained that these boys of eternal youth are par "..they are not the children of this world. When the children of this world enter Paradise, they will do the other people of Paradise, in the form of their father, Aadam." [Majmu' al-Fatawa, 4/279, 4/311]

The Market of the People of Paradise

Muslim reported from Anas ibn Maalik that the Messenger of Allaah (saw) said;

"In Paradise there is a market to which the people will come every Friday, then a wind will blow on their faces, and clothes, and they will increase in beauty. Then they will return to have increased in beauty. Their wives will say to them, "By Allaah, you increased in beaut they will say, "And you too, by Allaah, you have increased in beauty since you left us." [Saheeh Muslim, Kitaab al-Jannah, Baab fi Sooq al-Jannah, 4/2178, no. 2833] an-Nawawi commented on this hadith, "What is meant by a market is a gathering place where the people will come together, just as they gather in marketplaces in this world. Gathering together every Friday means that they will return approximates to once a week; there will be no real weeks there, as there will be no sun or moon or days described specifically as being the north winds, because for the Arabs this is the wind that brings direction of Syria, so they always hoped for a wind coming from the north. In the hadith this wind is something that carries things, because it will blow the sand or dust of Paradise into their faces, which Nawawi ala Muslim, 17/170]

The Gatherings and Conversations of the People of Paradise

The people of Paradise will visit one another, in delightful gatherings where they will remember their lives in this world and how Allaah (swt) has blessed them by admitting them to Paradise. Allaah (swt) described the gatherings:

"And We shall remove from their breasts any lurking sense of injury, [they will be like] brothers, joyfully facing each other on thrones [of dignity]." [15:47]

Allaah (swt) has also described some of the kinds of conversation that will take place in their gatherings:

"And some of them draw near to others, questioning, saying, "Aforetime we were afraid with our families of the punishment of Allaah, but Allaah has been gracious to us, and has saved us from the torment of the Fire. Verily, we used to invoke Him [Alone and none else] before. Verily He is Al-Barr, the All-Merciful." [52:25]

The Wishes of the People of Paradise

Some of the People of Paradise will wish for things that will be fulfilled in the strangest ways, unlike anything that happens in this world. The Messenger (saw) told of some of these and how they will be fulfilled.

Abu Hurayrah said that the Prophet (saw) was speaking and a bedouin man was present. The Prophet (saw) said: the people of Paradise will ask his Rabb for permission to grow things. Allaah will ask him, "Do you not have what you want?" He will say, "Of course, but I love to grow things." So he will sow the seeds and the plant will grow and its fruit will ripen and become like mountains. Allaah (swt) will say, "Aadam nothing satisfies you!" The Bedouin said, "By Allaah! you won't find him except he is an Ansar for these are the people that love to grow things. As for us, we don't grow anything." Allaah (saw) laughed." [Mishkaat al-Masaabeeh, 3/95, no. 5653]

The Wives of the People of Paradise

(i) The Wife Of The Believer In This World Will Be His Wife In The Hereafter If She Is Righteous

"Gardens of 'Adn, which they shall enter, and [also] those who act righteously from among wives and their offspring..." [13:23]

"They and their wives will be in pleasant shade, reclining on thrones." [36:56]

"Enter Paradise, you and your wives, in happiness" [43:70]

(ii) A Woman [Who Was Married More Than Once] Will Be With The Last of Her Husbands

In Taareekh ar-Raqqah, Abu 'Ali al-Hurani reported from Maymun ibn Mahran that "Mu'awiyah ibn . Umm ad-Darda' but she refused to marry him, saying, "I heard Abud-Dardaa' say that the Messenger..."
woman will be with the last of her husbands."" The men in its isnaad are trustworthy apart from al-whose biography is unknown. Abul-Shaykh reported it in at-Taareek with a saheeh isnaad only quot at-Tabaraani reported it with a da’eeef isnaad in al-Mu'jam al-Awsat but taking both isnaads into acci marfoo' version is saheeh, and it also has two corroborating reports that are mawqoof.

The first of these was reported by Ibn 'Asaakir from 'Ikrimah:

"Asmaa bint Abi Bakr was married to az-Zubayr ibn al-'Awwaam who was harsh towards her. She came to him and complained, "O my daughter, have patience, for if a woman has a righteous husband does not remarry after his death, they will be reunited in Paradise." [The men of its isnaad are thiqa mursaal because 'Ikrimah never met Abu Bakr; he only heard it from Asmaa]

The second report was narrated by al-Bayhaqi in as-Sunan, where he says that Hudhayfah said to my wife in Paradise, do not remarry after I die, for the woman in Paradise will be with the last of he

For this reason, Allaah forbade the wives of the Prophet (saw) to remarry after his death, because ti Hereafter.

(iii) al-Hoor al-'Eeyn

Allaah (swt) will marry the believers in Paradise to beautiful women who were not their wives in this

"So [it will be] and We shall marry them to Houris with wide lovely eyes." [44:54]

al-Hoor is the plural of Hooraa', which is a woman, the white parts of her eyes intensely white, and 'Eeyn is the plural fo 'Aynaa, which is the woman whose eyes are wide.

The Qur'aan describes al-Hoor al-'Eeyn as being firm and full-breasted:

"Verily, for al-Muttaqoon, there will be a success; gardens and grapeyards and young full-maidens of equal age." [78:31-33]

The fact that they are virgins means that no-one has ever married them before:

"...whom no man or jinn has touched before them." [55:56]

This refutes the idea that the wives that Allaah (swt) will create for them in Paradise will be their w again after old age had overtaken them. That idea if correct in that Allaah (swt) will admit the believ their youth restored but they are not al-Hoor al-'Eeyn whom Allaah created in Paradise.

The Qur'an also speaks of the beauty of the women of al-Jannah:

"And [there will be] Houris with wide lovely eyes [as wives for the pious], Like unto pres...

Maknoon ["preserved"] means hidden or protected, something whose colour is not changed by expo tampered with. Elsewhere, Allaah likens them to rubies and coral, two beautiful precious stones:

"In them will be [maidens] restraining their glances, whom no man or jinn has touched b the favours of your Rabb will you deny? Like unto rubies and coral." [55:56-58] al-Hoor are also described as restraining their gaze upon their husbands i.e. they restrict their gaze wander to others. Allaah (swt) has stated that they are very beautiful, and it is sufficient to know th

"In them will be fair [companions] good and beautiful; then which of the favours of your Companions restrained [as to their glances] in [goodly] pavilions" [55:70-72]

The women are not like the women of this world. They are free of al-Hayd [menstruation], an-Nifaas: spittle, mucus, urine and stools. This is what is referred to in the aayah:

"...And they shall have therein Azwaajun Mutahharatun [purified mates]" [2:25]

The Prophet (saw) told us about the beauty of the wives of the People of Paradise. al-Bukhaari and Hurayrah that the Messenger (saw) said, "...the marrow of whose leg-bones will be visible through the flesh because of their extreme beauty." [as-Saheeh, Kitaab al-Khalq, Baab Maa Jaa'a fi Sifaat al-Jannah, Fath al-B Kitaab al-Jannah wa Sifaat Na'eem ahlilhaa, Baab awwal zumrah tadhkhuul al-Jannah, 4/2178, no. 28:

Look at this beauty that the Prophet (saw) described! Can you find any comparison to it in the world?

"If one of the women of Paradise were to look at the people of this world, everything in between them would be lit up and filled with her fragrance. The veil on her head is better than this world and everything in it." [as-Saheeh, Kitaab al-Jihaad, Baab wa Zawwajnahum bi Hoor-'Eeyn. Fath al-Baari, 6/15]

The smallest number of wives that any one man will have in Paradise is seventy-two. It was reported have seventy two wives from amongst al-Hoor a--'Eeyn [Mishkaat al-Masaabeeh, 3/357, no. 3834, at al-Miqdaam ibn Ma'd Yakrib]

The Song of al-Hoor al-'Eeyn

The Messenger (saw) told us that al-Hoor in Jannah sing with sweet, beautiful voices. In al-Mu'jam i with a saheeh isnaad from Ibn 'Umar that the Prophet (saw) said,

"The wives of the people of Paradise will sing to their husband in the most beautiful voice heard. What they will sing is: "We are good and beautiful, the wives of a noble people, we content and happy."
And they will sing, "We are eternal, and will never die, we are safe and remaining here and will never go away."" [Saheeh al-Jaami as-Sagheer, 2/48, no. 1557; also in Sifaat al-Jannah]

Samawayh reported in al-Fawaa'id from Anas that the Messenger of Allaah (saw) said, "al-Hoor al-'Eeyn are singing in Paradise saying, "We are the beautiful houris, we are being kept for noble husbands."" [Saheeh al-Ja

The Jealousy of al-Hoor al-Eeyn over their Husbands in this World

The Prophet (saw) told us that al-Hoor feel jealous over their husbands in this world, if the wife of o Ahmad and at-Tirmidhi report with a saheeh isnaad from Mu'aadh that the Messenger of Allaah (saw

"No woman in this world upsets her husband but his wife from among al-Hoor al-'Eeyn will may Allaah kill you! For he is with you only temporarily, and soon he will leave you and come to us." [Saheeh al-Ja

(iv) The believer in Paradise will be given the Strength of One Hundred Men Anas reported that the Prophet (saw) said, "The believer in Paradise will be given such and such strength." He was asked, "O Messenger of Allaah, will he really be able to do that?" He said, "He will be given the strength of one hundred men."

The People of Paradise Will Laugh at the Fire

After Allaah (swt) admits the people of Paradise to Paradise, they will call out to their opponents among the kuffaar in Hell, rebuking and scolding them:

"And the dwellers of Paradise will call out to the dwellers of the Fire [saying]: "We have indeed found true what our Rabb promised us; have you also found true, what your Rabb promised [warnings, etc]?" A crier will proclaim between them: "The Curse of Allaah is on the Dhaalimoon [wrongdoers]."

The kuffaar used to dispute with the believers in this world, making fun of them and insulting them, but on that Day the believers will be victorious: they will be in a state of everlasting joy, looking at the wrongdoers and making fun of them:

"Verily, al-Abraar will be in delight, on thrones, looking [at all things]. You will recognise the brightness of delight. They will be given to drink pure sealed wine, the last thereof will be the smell of musk, and for this let [all] those strive who want to strive. It [that wine] will be mixed with Tasneem, a spring whereof drink those nearest to Allaah. Verily [during the earthly life] those who committed crimes used to believe, and whenever they passed by them, used to wink to one another [in mockery]; and when they saw them, they say, "Verily! You astray!" But the [disbelievers] had not been sent as watchers over them [the believers]. I will believe will laugh at the disbelievers on [high] thrones, looking [at all things]. Are not the disbelievers paid [fully] for what they used to do?" [83:22-36]

By Allaah, the kuffaar will finally get the punishment that they deserve, a punishment that fits their crimes. The believer who is now in the luxury of Paradise will remember that colleague or friend who used to encourage him to follow kufr in this world and called him to embrace those misguided principles that would have placed him in the ranks of the kuffaar and enemies of Allaah (swt). He will tell his companions about that former colleague, and tell them to look at him and his punishment. When he sees how he is being punished, he will realise the extent of the blessing that Allaah (swt) has bestowed upon him, and how Allaah (swt) has saved him from a similar fate. Then he will address his former companion and rebuke him:

"Then they will turn to one another, mutually questioning. A speaker of them will say, "Verily I had a companion [in the world] who used to say, "Are you among those who believe [in resurrection after death, and become dust and bones, shall we indeed [be raised up] to receive reward or punishment according to our deeds]?" The Man said, "Will you look down?" So he looked down and saw him in the midst of Allaah! You have nearly ruined me. Had it not been for the Grace of my Rabb, I would certainly have been among those brought forth [to Hell]." [Allaah (swt) informs about the true believer that he said], [any more]? Except our first death and we shall not be punished? [after we have entered supreme success! For the like of this let the workers work." [37:50-61]

Tasbeeh And Takbeer Are Among
The Delights Of The People Of Paradise

Paradise is the abode of reward and delight, not of trials and testing. A problem might arise concern Bukhaari and others from Abu Hurayrah, according to which the Prophet (saw) described the first group to enter Paradise and said,

"They will glorify Allaah (swt) morning and evening." [Saheeh al-Bukhaari, Kitaab Bid' al-Kha Jannah, Fath al-Baari, 6/318]

But there is nothing problematic in this report, insha'Allaah, because, as al-Qurtubee said "This task obligation or imposition." As was reported by Muslim, Jaabir explained it as follows, "They will be ins takbeer as they are inspired with breathing." The analogy of breathing was used because it is somet conscious effort. Their breathing will become tasbeeh, and the reason for this is that their hearts wil knowledge of their Rabb, may He be glorified, and filled with love for Him, and whoever loves a thin frequently." [Fath al-Baari, 6/326]

Shaykh al-Islam Ibn Taymiyyah stated that this tasbeeh and takbeer will be one of the pleasures e Paradise. He said, "This is not the kind of obligatory work that is done for the sake of a specific rewa of deeds that people do for pleasure and enjoyment." [Majmu' Fataawa, 4/330]

The Best thing that the Ahl al-Jannah Will Be Given Is The Pleasure of Allaah (swt) and To See His Face

"Some faces that Day will be Nadhirah [shining, radiant], Looking at their Rabb." [75:22-2

Abu Sa'eed al-Khudri reported that the Prophet (saw) said that  "Allaah will say to the people of Paradise! They will say, "We are at Your Worship, our Rabb, and all goodness is in Your hand; are you content?" They will say, "Why should we not be content, O Rabb, when you have given us to anyone else of Your Creation?" He will say, "Shall I not give you better than that?" He will say, "I grant you My pleasure and I will never be displeased with you." [al-Bukhaari and Muslim, Mishkaat al-Masaabeeh]

Muslim and at-Tirmidhi reported from Suhayb ar-Rumi that the Messenger of Allaah (saw) said: "W. enter Paradise, Allaah will say: "Do you want anything more?" They will say, "Have You not [i.e. honoured us]? Have You not admitted us to Paradise and saved us from the Fire?" Then they will have never been given anything more dear to them than looking at their Rabb Exalted."

One report adds, "Then the Prophet (saw) recited the aayah, "For those who have done good is Paradise] and even more [i.e. the honour of glancing at the Countenance of Allaah]..." [10:26]

Thus seeing the Face of Allaah (swt) was interpreted as part of the "more" [mazed] which Allaah h. [those who have done good]:

"There they will have all that they desire - and We have more [for them, i.e. a glance at t Majestic." [50:35]

This is a joy and honour that will be denied to the Kuffaar and Mushrikeen:

"Nay, surely they [evildoers] will be veiled from seeing their Rabb that day." [83:15]

Imaam Maalik ibn Anas, the Imaam of al-Madinah, used this aayah as proof that "Looking at their meant they would see the face of Allaah, as some had interpreted it as meaning the people would b.
Maalik said, "They have lied.... The people will look at Allaah on the Day of Resurrection with their o not going to see their Rabb on the Day of Resurrection, why did Allaah (swt) say that the kuffaar wc Him?" [See Sharh as-Sunnah, Mishkaat al-Masaabeeh, 3/100 no. 5662] at-Tahhaawi, the great Hanafi Imaam, said in his "al-'Aqeedah at-Tahhaawiyyah", "This seeing [Ala will happen to the people of Paradise; it is not necessary to attempt to define it or describe how it w the Book of Our Rabb [75:23]. The way it will happen is according to the will and knowledge of Alla as it was narrated from the Messenger of Allaah in the saheeh hadith. We should not interpret it acc and opinions, for no one is sound in his deen except the one who submits fully to Allaah and His M should be referred to one who has knowledge (i.e. a scholar)" [Sharh at-Tahhaawiyyah, 203]

The Refutation of Those Who Differ

The commentator of at-Tahhaawiyyah explained the different misguided opinions on this matter: "Those who differed with regard to the believers seeing Allaah (swt) on the Day of Resurrection are the Jahmiyyah and al-Mu'tazilah, and those who followed them of the Khawaarij and Imaamiyyah. Their false opinion is refuted by the Qur'aan and Sunnah. The fact that the believers will see Allaah (swt) is confirmed by the words of the Sahaabah, Taabi'een, well known scholars of Islaam, Ahl al-Kalaam who belong to Ahl as-Sunnah wal-Jama'ah."

"This issue is one of the most important matters of Usool ad-Deen [the fundamentals of religion] for which people are striving and competing, and it will be denied to those who are "veiled from seeing turned away from His Mercy."

He then explained the dangers of misinterpretation:

"This is what corrupted both the world and religion. This is what the Jews and Christians did to the t Injeel, and Allaah (swt) warned us against doing likewise, but the confused people insisted on follow harm has been caused to the religion and its followers by wrong interpretations! Was 'Uthmaan killed except as a result of misinterpretation? Would the Battle of Siffeen, the Battle of the Camel, the killing of Husayn and the happened without there being misinterpretation? Would the Khawaarij, Mu'tazilah and Rawaafid hav ummah have split into seventy-three sects, if there had been no misinterpretation?"

He explained that there were two reasons that the aayah should be taken to mean the believers will

1. the Understanding of the Text itself

"an-Nadhar (looking) is connected by Idaafah (genitive grammatical possessive structure) to al-Wajh of looking (because the face is the site of the eyes). The use of the word "ilaa" (here translated as "at") will be looking and seeing with their eyes; the wording has no indication that it could mean anything else. It is crystal clear that what Allaah meant is that they will see their Rabb, subhaanahu, with their own eyes, which

"The Arabic word Nadhar is used in a number of ways and may mean different things, depending on

"If it stands alone with nothing following it, it means "stopping" and "waiting" - "...Wait for us! (udhuroonaa) Let us get something from your light!.." [57:13]

"If it is followed by "fi" it means "thinking" or "pondering": "Have they not considered (yandhuru fi) the dominion of the heavens and the earth?" [7:185]

"If it is followed by ilaa (at) it refers to looking or seeing with the eyes: "Look at (undhuru ilaa) t to bear" [6:99]

So how can it be interpreted otherwise when it refers to the face, which is the site of the eyes?"

2. the way in which the Salaf understood the text.

He quotes a number of reports to illustrate this:

al-Hasan said, "[Their faces] will look at their Rabb and will become radiant with His light."

Abu Saalih reported from Ibn 'Abbaas (ra) that "Looking at their Rabb" [75:23] meant, "They will Allaah, azza wa jall."
'Ikrimah said that "Some faces will be Nadhirah" indicated "because of joy, and looking at their Rabb" and he reported a similar opinion from Ibn 'Abbaas. This is the opinion of the Mufassireen.

Concerning the aayah, "There they will have all that they desire - and We shall have more [for them]

He explains the meaning of "even more" [az-Ziyaadah] as looking at the face of Allaah, as the re saheeh from Suhayb "then the veil will be lifted and they will see Him, and they will never be given them than seeing Allaah (swt). This is az-Ziyaadah [the "even more" referred to in the aayah]". The a number of isnaads and slightly different wording from others, and this is how it was interpreted by reported from Abu Bakr as-Siddeeq, Hudhayfah, Abu Musa al-Ash'ari and Ibn 'Abbaas (ra).

at-Tabari and others quoted from ash-Shaafi'ee via al-Mazani, and al-Haakim said, "al-Asaam told us, "I was with Muhammad ibn Idrees ash-Shaafi'ee when a letter reached him from Upper Egypt. opinion about the aayah [83:15], and he said, "As those [evildoers] will be veiled from Seeing Allaah, towards them indicates that these people (the believers) will see Him because He will be pleased with them.

The Mu'tazilah however concluded from the aayaat "You cannot see Me..." [7:143] and "No visic that therefore no one would see Allaah, but these can in fact be used as proof against their position, that the believers will see Allaah for a number of reasons:

(i) Nobody could think that Musaa (as), the Messenger of Allaah and the most knowledgeable about Allaah, who spoke with Allaah, would ask to see Allaah [as is stated in the earlier part of this aayah] if it we

(ii) Allaah did not rebuke Musaa for this request although when Nuh asked Allaah to save his son, H [see 11:46]

(iii) Allaah said, "..You cannot see Me..", but He did not say, "I can never be seen" or "It is not po invisible". There is a difference. This indicates that Allaah could be seen but that Musaa did not have this life because human beings in this world are too weak to be able to endure seeing Allaah.

(iv) The ideas mentioned in (iii) can be explained by referring to the next part of the aayah

"...but look upon the mountain. If it stands still in its place then you shall see Me." [7:143];

Allaah showed Musaa that despite its strength and solid nature, a mountain in this world could not v sight of Allah, so how could a human being who was created weak, endure it?

(v) Allaah could have made the mountain stable, which is possible, but he had placed a condition for stood form when he appeared to it, then Musa would be able to see Him

(vi) Allaah said,

"..When his Rabb appeared to the mountain, He made it collapse to dust.." [7:143].

If it is possible for Him to reveal Himself to a mountain, which is an inanimate object how could it be Himself to His Messengers and those whom He loves (awliyaa) in the abode of honour which is Para

(vii) Allaah spoke to Musa and if a person is permitted to speak and converse with no mediator, then be able to see the One to whom he speaks. No one could deny that people may see Allaah unless th speak to them and those who denied that Allaah could be seen did in fact also deny that Allaah cou claim that "Lan" (never) implies absolute and eternal negation can be answerd by the fact that the } Hereafter and such a negation will not necessarily be carried over into the Hereafter, especially as ir attached. There are other similar instances in the Qur'aan - "But they will never long for it." [2:
And they will cry, O Maalik! Let your Rabb make an end of us." He will say, "Verily you shall abide forever." [43:77] If "lan" meant absolute and eternal negation (i.e. that such and such a thing would never happen), it would not be possible to impose conditions, but Allaah (swt) says, "Therefore I will not leave this land me." [12:80] which proves that "lan" does not imply absolute negation.

The evidence that people may see Allaah is presented in the most eloquent fashion, and in the context of praise, and it is well known that praise is something positive; a thing that does not exist cannot be praised. When Allaah (swt) implies something positive, a thing that does not exist cannot be praised. When Allaah (swt) praises something positive, like when He is praised by saying that He neither slumbers nor sleeps, which implies He is One; or by saying that He never dies, which implies that He is the eternally living; or by saying that He is the All-Powerful; or by saying that He never forgets or lacks awareness; or by saying that He is the All-Knowing. So there is no praise in negation unless it implies something positive. The One Who is Perfect cannot share in the quality that is denied. The meaning is that Allaah (swt) may be seen but He cannot be seen in His entirety. The aayah "No vision can grasp Him" indicates that He is Almighty and because of His greatness he cannot be fully comprehended, as Allaah (swt) says, "And when the two hosts saw each other the companions of Musa said, "We are sure to be overtaken." Musaa did not deny that they saw them but he denied that they would overwhelm them because seeing or overwhelming or surrounding [idraak] could take place independently of one another. Allaah may be never be fully comprehended just as He may be known, but never completely. This is how the Sahaabah understood this aayah, as their opinions are recorded in its tafseer. Even the Sun, which is a mere created entity, cannot be fully comprehended by the one who sees it.

The hadith narrated by the Prophet (saw) and his companions concerning the believers seeing Allaah was recorded by the compilers of the six books, for example, the hadith of Abu Hurayrah, "Messenger of Allaah, will we see our Rabb on the Day of Resurrection?" The Messenger of Allaah said, "The doubt that the moon is seen when it is full?" They said, "No, O Messenger of Allaah." He said, "Sun is seen when there are no clouds to hide it." They said, "No." He said, then you will see it clearly." [narrated by al-Bukhaari and Muslim, who narrated a similar hadith from Abu Sa'eed al-Khode, Sahaabah, and Muslim; Abu Musa narrated in al-Bukhaari, Shaikh 210]

Earning The Blessings Of Paradise Does Not Mean One Has To Forego The Pleasures Of This World

Monks and ascetics, and many of the believers of this ummah think that the blessings of the hereafter are only attained by giving up the good things and pleasures of this world. So you see them punishing themselves and not engaging in non-stop fasting and [qiyaam] praying at night. Some of them even deny themselves good food, drink and clothing and reject work and marriage. All of this is wrong, for Allaah has created the good things of this world for His slaves:

"Say: "Who has forbidden the adornment with clothes given by Allah, which He has produced?" Say: "They are in the life of this world, for those who believe, but exclusively for them on the Day of Resurrection [the disbelievers will not share in them]."

This world is only condemned when it distracts the believer from the Hereafter, but if he treats it as in the aakhirah then its pleasures need not be spurned, as some people think.

The Conclusion Of Their Prayer Will Be Al-Hamdulillaahi Rabbil-Aalameen

The believers will pass through the turmoil of the Day of Judgement, then they will cross as-Siraat [the bridge over Hell] and will witness its horrors. Then Allaah (swt) will admit them to gardens of delight in Paradise, after removing all grief and sorrow from them.
their hearts. They will see the wonders that Allaah has prepared for them in Paradise and they will raise their voices in praise and glorification of Allaah because He will have lifted their sorrow, fulfilled His promise to them, and caused them to inherit Paradise:

"And they will say, "All praise and thanks be to Allaah, Who has removed from us [all] grief. Oft-Forgiving, Most Ready to appreciate [good deeds and recompense] Who out of His Grace, has lodged us in a home that will last forever, there, toil will not touch us, nor will weariness touch us" [35:34]

"And they will say, "All the praises and thanks be to Allaah Who Has fulfilled His promise to us and has made us inherit [this] land. We can dwell in Paradise where we will; how excellent a reward for the [pious good] workers!"

And you will see the angels surrounding the Throne [of Allaah] from all around, glorifying the praises of their Rabb. And they [all the creatures] will be judged with truth, and it will be said, "All the praises and thanks be to Allaah, the Rabb of the Aalameen" [39:74-75]

And the conclusion of their prayer will be al-Hamdulillaahi Rabbil Aalameen:

"Their prayer will be Glory to You, O Allaah! and their greeting therein will be Peace, and the conclusion of their prayer will be, "Praise be to Allaah, Lord of the Worlds" [10:10]
